Dear Miss Tarbell

While reading and enjoying the noteteps of the Lincolns in our local paper I happened to think of the Eastern Daily Press of Norwich (England) which contains articles and pictures about the memorial put up in the church at Neingham (England), I am far from sure as to whether I gave you a copy of that paper, so to make very sure I am sending, in soon mail, a copy for your records - I enclose herewith circular sent out by the committee when it was getting subscriptions

Mrs Lincoln & I hope you have a Merry Xmas and a Prosperous as well as Happy New Year.

Yours sincerely

H. P. Lincoln

P.S. I have regular photographs like those in the paper I do not know just where they are but if they will be of any service to you I'll be glad to make a hunt for them You will have to let me know however very soon as we expect to go away early in January, to be gone at least two months.

H. P. L.
