Dear Mr. Hoan:

I want very much to have a copy of your address on "Abraham Lincoln - A Real American." I understand that it is in pamphlet form and I should like to have it autographed. I am enclosing the price for two copies - ten cents. And if you charge for your autograph I will gladly send you a check when you let me know how much it is. I know writers that do that, generally for charity.

What I want the autographed copy for particularly is the little collection of Lincoln books, pamphlets, letters, etc., that I am turning over to my old college hoping that there will be now and then a student who will get something from a closer study of the man.

I am glad you are going on in Milwaukee. It would be something of a tragedy if you should not, from my way of thinking - individualist that I am.

Very sincerely yours
