Philadelphia
Pa.

My dear Miss Tarbell—

I take the liberty of addressing you in c/o of the above Jouvet, feeling sure this letter will reach you.

I have read with much pleasure your article about (Mary Todd Lincoln) (your ultimo) in Feb. 1928. to me, it was more than interesting, for I have in my possession the pearl earrings & pin, of Mrs.

Mrs Abraham Lincoln, My Mother Mary
A. Wilder, bought at the time of the Sale Sept. 1867. at N. F. Brady & Co.
609 B'way N.Y. City, I believe Mr Keyp had something to do about the Exhibition when also Mrs Lincolns Cameo Set — Shawls and jewelry was Black Mrs L. V. Ostrander, wife of the President of the Merchant Insurance Bank, on Broadway, she bought a shawl ring Medium Earrings & Pin, but not necklet or Bracelet, which all was of the same Pattern, in all Mrs Lincolns pictures you see her with these pearls on If you could give me any information about these pearls, if they are any interest to you I should be greatly obliged

My Mother gave a Grand Ball, for them and she was the Mother of the late Marshall P. Wilder, the celebrated humorist. Prince of Entertainers and Entertainer of Princesses. Also he was a great friend of the late King Edward of England

So you, the fact I own that Book, once belonging to the First Lady of the Land, and a Wife of our much beloved President Lincoln makes them of great value to me.

If you are at all interested in this letter, I should be pleased to hear from you. Sincerely

Yours Jennie C. Wilder Connick
