Mr. Louis A. Warren,
Morganfield, Ky.

My dear Mr. Warren:

I have delayed in replying to your letter of December 1st until I could hear from Collier's. Their answer has just come.

They could not use more than a single paper, of about 3000 words, on Thomas Lincoln. I am not sure at all that that would be worth your while. Would you object to my submitting your scheme of four articles to the McClure Magazine? Mr. McClure is much interested in Lincoln material. He is in Europe just at present but probably will be back by the time I get a letter from you. I hope everything is going fine with the book.

Sincerely yours,
