THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR
WASHINGTON

October 30, 1919.

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

I appreciate very much indeed your letter of October 28th. I know how hard you worked to bring something out of the conference, and it was too bad that we could not have gone on, but I am hopeful of a new conference and what it can do. I agree with you that no one connected with the last conference should be included. In fact we have already reached this conclusion.

With kind regards,

Cordially yours,

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
132 East 19th Street,
New York City.
