Mr. Julius Klein
Assistant Secretary of Commerce
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Klein:

I have not thanked you for the trouble you took in giving me the information that I asked for some time ago from your office. Your letter covered the questions admirably, quite sufficient for my present purpose.

I am expecting to be in Washington before very long and am going to ask for a talk with you at that time.

Thanking you again for your kindness, believe me

Very sincerely yours
