Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:-

X The present status of the stock and plates of your book is as follows: everything has been delivered and accounted for with the exception of the plates of "The Life of Napoleon" and "Father Abraham", the sheet stock of "Father Abraham" and a shortage of 244 in the sheet stock of "Madame Roland". We have been notified that the plates and sheets have been shipped, with the exception of the shortage noted above. That shortage should be adjusted by Mr. Coit with the binders, and we understand from Mr. Coit that he will do this. X

If I may venture a suggestion, it seems advisable to withhold any payments until all the stock is delivered or accounted for. I hope to have a further report <sup>tomorrow</sup> ~~to make~~ which I shall submit to you immediately.

Very truly yours,

Edward C. Munk
