Dear Miss Hendershot:

Thank you for writing me. I am so glad that you have taken the Wall etchings. They are sure to have greater value as time goes on. I had no idea he was contemplating a trip out himself.

Did I, by any chance, send you the bookplate? I don't find it here and I should like to have some prints made.

I was so sorry that it was out of the question for me to get to Meadville for Home-Coming Celebration. I'd have been glad to have done my part in congratulating Dr. Tolley on his ten years work. There's been a remarkable showing in my judgment and I hope he's been as happy in what he has done as I have been in watching him. The new arrangement of the Campus in undoubtedly a great improvement. Just between you and me I am going to miss the old entrance. Nothing satisfies me at Allegheny that does not make Bentley Hall Exhibit No. I.

Tell Dr. Giddens I hope he'll find time someday to write me. Remember me to Miss Rowley and to Miss Painter.

With all good wishes,

Affectionately yours,

Ida M. Tarbell
