Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I still have in mind items pertaining to Mary Lincoln for your proposed book, when I come across them. I realize how hard it is to gather authentic data that is outside the usual sources available to authors. The Springfield, Massachusetts News, under date of September 16, 1927, carried a few extracts from letters of Mary Lincoln, a copy of which I enclose herewith. I also enclose herewith a copy of a letter written by Mary Lincoln on December 14. The year does not appear, but it was probably written close to 1866. It was offered for sale by Thomas F. Madigan in his autograph bulletin April 1, 1925, and listed at Ninety Dollars.

Let me know how you are getting on with your book and if I can be of any further service to you.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Geo. P. Hambrecht
