Dear Miss Gilson,-

Bully for you! But I am greatly disappointed that you are not going to be here in Cambridge.

My wife, who has a Columbia M.A. and who ~~is~~ a graduate of Vassar says that ~~no~~ high grade woman ought to be willing to take graduate studies under present conditions here. But Miss Comstock has hardly started yet. Perhaps, as her influence begins to be felt, conditions will change.

We all sympathize with your feelings but are personally keenly disappointed.

We shall certainly look forward to having you here for some lectures! As soon as the clans begin to gather I am going to write you further on this subject, as I want to get some others to join me in planning lectures in their courses at the same time, if possible, that you come for my course. It will be better for you if I can engineer it.

In the meantime - congratulations and best wishes.

Cordially
Gordon James
