November 13, 1931

My dear Mr. Abbott:

Thank you for your kind note of the Twelfth. I appreciate your willingness to talk with me about Mr. Young. I know you can be of real assistance to me.

The morning of Friday, the Twentieth will be convenient for me. I will call at 240 Beacon Street at Nine thirty if that hour is not too early for you. I have no engagements for the morning and could suit the time to your convenience.

Thanking you heartily for your willingness to see me and looking forward to our talk, believe me dear Mr. Abbott

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Gordon Abbott
