Mr. Allen T. Burns
420 Lexington Avenue
New York, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Burns:

I mailed you the revision of the article last night. I hope you find it more to your purpose.

Now as to the title: I am not quite convinced as I look at it on the page that it suits the piece. I feel quite sure that it is true of the stanza I have quoted. They don't seem to suit the Honorable Newton Baker. Am I overnice about this? Of course it is for you to decide.

I am off this afternoon for the country. If you should need me, my address is Bethel, Connecticut, R. F. D. #3 and my telephone, Trumpell 5 ring 4.

Very sincerely yours,
