

Sept. 25, 1923

Mr. George A. Gall,
244 Madison Avenue,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Gall:

Pardon the delay in replying to your note of the 17th. I am very busy these days.

The letter you enclosed certainly is a tragic one. I have sent it to Mr. Walsh, asking him if he thinks it could be used in Collier's. I doubt very much of their being willing to print another article, and I certainly could not find time to prepare one, though of course somebody else might do something.

I have suggested to Mr. Walsh that possibly I could write a few lines of introduction and he could use this in one of his editorial departments. As soon as I hear from him, I will let you know and either telephone or write you.

Very truly yours,
