Dear Mr. Gould:

In a very few days I shall have ready for its travels all of the Recollections I am writing save a short chapter of Conclusions. This I am holding back for various reasons. It would not I am sure change your decision.

Do you care to see the manuscript as it stands? If so, I will express it to your office by the end of the week.

Whether you want the book for the Journal or not I shall greatly appreciate your frank comments on what I have written.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Bruce Gould
