E. J. B. PALMER DIES AT CITY HOSPITAL

Came Here in September as Instructor in Chemistry Department.

Mr. E. J. B. Palmer, instructor in the Department of Chemistry, died on Thursday afternoon after an illness of typhoid fever since the Christmas holidays, at the City hospital. He was forced to take to his bed nearly two months ago at his boarding house on North Park avenue, and was later moved to the City hospital. He was the son of an Episcopalian minister, and his mother was with him for some time until Sunday a week ago, when she returned home to Pittsfield, Mass. Mr. Palmer was a graduate of Harvard University and came to Allegheny last September to accept the position in the Chemistry Department. The work in this department was dispensed with on Friday and flowers were sent both by the faculty and the student body.

The chapel service was largely devoted to a tribute which the faculty and students of the college paid to the late Professor Palmer. Dr. Lee, as head of the department, in which Mr. Palmer had worked, was the man who had been chosen to deliver this tribute. Before his address, however, Dr. Crawford spoke briefly of Mr. Palmer and his work. Dr. Lee's address was as follows:

"Standing in the midst of our busy life this morning, it is hard, perhaps, for us to fully realize that one who had established a place for himself in our midst has been taken from his field of service in this life. It is not for us, however, to question or to doubt at this time; it is better to linger for a moment in memory over the life and character and work of the young man whom to know was to respect and admire.

"Mr. Palmer, as you know, came from Harvard University to Allegheny last fall as an instructor in the department of chemistry. He was probably suffering from ill health when he began his work, and therefore, few if any of us had a fair opportunity to learn his work. Those, however, who knew him best admired him most.

"We are pleased to remember this morning that his way was made a little smoother by the fact that he knew that here at Allegheny he was held in the highest esteem. After greeting his associates and the students on his return from the Christmas recess, he wrote to friends back in the east that, 'the fellows seem glad to see me and that helps a little, you know.'

"Intellectually and professionally, Mr. Palmer was well equipped for the work required of him. He was broadly cultured and of a philosophic turn of mind. In personality, he was likable, a good companion, a helpful associate, and a loyal friend. He was, therefore, held in the highest esteem by such of the faculty and students as knew him.

"He was ever cheerful and hopeful. He looked at the world with keenly analytical eyes. Its whims and foibles were made the source of a quaint philosophy that amused and charmed those of us that knew him best. He was quick to appreciate a situation which he interpreted frequently in an epigrammatic form to the delight of the men about him. He was unusually modest and unassumingly genuine. His modesty often caused a hesitation which some time obscured his

Y. M. C. A. Cabinet

J. R. MacGowan, '14, President—Plans Made for Year's Work.

At a meeting of the nominating committee of the Y. M. C. A. composed of J. D. VanHorne, '13, H. J. Hartman, '15, W. R. Hofelt, '13, H. B. Storer, '13, O. A. Parmenter, '14, N. L. Ramsey, '14, and C. R. Wolf, 15, men for the various offices of the association for the ensuing year were considered. On last Wednesday evening at the regular meeting of the association, J. D. VanHorne, the chairman of the committee, reported that the following men were recommended for the several offices: president, J. R. MacGowan, '14; vice president, C. R. Wolf, '15; secretary, B. R. Beisel, '14, and treasurer, W. A. Ellis, '16. On a motion of one of the members of the association, the report was accepted and the men suggested were unanimously elected.

The new president has announced the following chairmen for the several committees: fall campaign, P. W. Johnston, '14; religious meetings, J. Bright, '15; social and music, R. D. Mosier, '14; mission study, H. J. Hartman, '15; neighborhood work, R. N. Kendall, '15, and gospel teams, O. A. Parmenter, '14. In accordance with the plans suggested earlier in the year, the new cabinet intends to place especial emphasis on the gospel team work during the coming year. The first meeting of the new cabinet was held on last Friday when an outline was made of the year's work and suggestions for the members of the various committees were given. The unwieldy committees of former years will be reduced in size and regular meetings will be held.

Klee-O-Kleet Cast

The Twig of Thorne to be Presented on May 2 and 3.

Klee-O-Kleet has recently announced the cast for "The Twig of Thorne," the play which will be given by this organization this year. Now that the cast has been definitely decided, the coach, Miss Alice Colter, is hard at work and will undoubtedly have everything ready by May 2, when the play will be presented for the first time. As usual the play will be given on two successive nights in the gymnasium of Hulings Hall.

The new cast is as follows:

Nessa Leig—Lucile Lippett, '15.
Maurya—Louise Irwin, '16.
Oonah—Ruth Lavely, '15.
Aengus Arann—Anna McKenna, '16.
Aileel—Elizabeth Best, '16.
Father Brian—May Girsham, '14.
Fenula—Faye Neale, '16.
Kathleen—Alice Hawkey, '16.
Sheila—Leone Rial, '16.
Sheamus—Marion Whipple, '16.
Martin—Marion Thomas, '13.
Tumas—Marion Carroll, '14.
A Faery Child—Undecided.

The Varsity Team

"Who was Who" on the Championship Squad.

Louis L. Hawk, '13.

"Louie" as captain has piloted the basketball team through another very successful season and has played his last game of basketball for Allegheny. He has played a sensational game during his four years in school and will long be talked of as the greatest centers that Allegheny has ever had. On account of his floor work and ability as a shooter he has been the terror of opposing teams and has been the stumbling block for many ambitious players. Although handicapped for a part of the season by a bad ankle, he caged forty-one field goals and ninety-five foul goals during the season, a total of one hundred and seventy-seven points in eleven games or sixteen points per game. It is with great regret that followers of the game in Allegheny see him retire, and he will be greatly missed when the team lines up for action next season.

James W. Mates, '13.

This fast forward who has earned his basketball letter for three years has also played his last game in an Allegheny uniform. "Jimmy" played his usual fast game again this year, his floor work and passing being especially strong. At the same time he scored a good many points when they were needed to return Allegheny as victors. He has played the same fast and consistent game during his whole career on the team. In "Jimmy" another strong, peppery player is lost.

Jonter A. Nichols, '14.

"Jont" is the other regular forward on this year's star team and he has been a fit teammate for Mates. He has still another year to play the game for Allegheny and judging from his work in the past, great basketball may be expected from him next season. Aside from Captain Hawk, he has been the best point winner for the team this season, having scored forty-one field goals in the ten games in which he has played.

Paul E. Thomas, '14.

"Puss" has been playing as a regular guard on 'Varsity for the three years that he has been in school and is generally accorded to be one of Allegheny's stellar men. Old players, who have seen Puss in action, seem to be of the unanimous opinion that he is one of the greatest guards that Allegheny has ever had. On account of a bad knee and ankle "Tommy" was out of the game for several weeks but in the other games his work was up to his standard of former years. He especially starred in the Pitt game, holding Baker, the Pitt star, to a single goal from the center of the floor while he caged three baskets.

Orson J. Graham, '15.

The other position at guard has been played by this star who has been

Pan-Hellenic Banquet

Annual Affair Held at Saegertown Inn on Saturday.

Last Saturday evening, the annual Pan-Hellenic banquet, given by the members of the local chapters of the five national fraternities, was held at the Saegertown Inn. The Greeks left Meadville shortly after six o'clock on a special car and returned about midnight after spending a very pleasant evening. About ninety places were set and a number of clubs were immediately formed, having as their names various slang phrases. Each club consisted of members from various fraternities and classes and much enjoyment was added by the good-natured rivalry which manifested itself among the clubs, each striving to outdo all others in yells, stunts and witty hits. After a sumptuous dinner, a number of toasts were given and songs sung by each fraternity. Mr. LeRoy Peterson, '13, acted as toastmaster and the following program was given:

The New Allegheny—C. A. Eckles, '13.
Song—Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
The Thoroughbreds—J. M. Miller, '13.
Song—Phi Delta Theta.
Athletics—E. J. Hall, '13.
Song—Delta Tau Delta.
Greeks—O. C. McLean, '13.
Song—Phi Gamma Delta.
The Powers that Be—W. H. Fegley, '14.
Song—Phi Kappa Psi.

College Sermon

Rev. S. S. Marquis, '90, of Detroit, Speaker for Next Sunday.

The college sermon for the month of April will be preached in Ford Memorial Chapel on next Sunday afternoon by the Rev. S. S. Marquis, '90. Dr. Marquis is at present the dean of St. Paul's Cathedral in Detroit and is probably the best known clergyman in that city. The fact that he possesses both ability as a scholar and as a speaker has made him a man of unusual success in his work.

Since leaving Allegheny, Mr. Marquis has attended both the General Theological School of New York and the Theological School of Massachusetts. For many years he has been called upon to deliver an annual series of addresses at Cornell, which is an evidence of his popularity in a college community. He was editor in chief of The Campus for 1889-90.

Carnegie Tech is to erect a twelve story administration building to be used for the administrative offices and for club rooms for various activities, restaurant, club and recreation rooms, and the student library. At the top will be an observatory containing the eleven-inch refracting telescope.

REVIEW OF BASKETBALL RESULTS OF THE SEASON

Results of All Games Played—Pitt Game in Detail.

With the defeat of Pitt on March 21, the Allegheny basketball team closed a remarkably successful season. Only two games were lost in the entire schedule and these defeats were both received on foreign floors by teams of unusual strength. In fact the percentage of this year's five would be about .882, a standing which would equal or surpass that of any team in Western Pennsylvania. By the double defeat of Pitt, a team which easily succeeded in trouncing the W. & J. five, there can be no doubt but that Allegheny has a right to claim the intercollegiate basket ball championship of the western part of the state.

Allegheny 49, Geneva 13.

In the first game of the season, the Gold and Blue experienced little trouble in defeating the Geneva five. Although the Allegheny team did not display the team work which characterized their work later in the season, the contest was at no time in doubt. It was in this game that Cox made his first appearance before the Allegheny rooters, and easily assured them of his ability to increase the score for the Gold and Blue.

Allegheny 19, Oberlin 20.

In the hardest fought game of the entire schedule, Oberlin administered the first defeat to the Allegheny team. However, this defeat was far from a disgrace, as the score at the end of the regular time was a tie, requiring an extra period. Allegheny was in the lead at several points during the game and surprised their opponents by their fast floor work and close guarding. Oberlin has since completed so successful a schedule that they are now tied for the championship of Ohio.

Allegheny 46, Bucknell 5.

The first game of the eastern trip, played on the Bucknell floor proved an easy contest for Allegheny. From the first moment of play Allegheny took the lead and kept rapidly increasing her score until the end of the game. At the end of the first half the score was 21-1, as the Bucknell five had been unable to make a single field goal.

Allegheny 17, Penn State 21.

The second and last defeat of the season was received at the hands of the fast Penn State five on their floor. The reputation which this team had already acquired throughout the east was a warning of this defeat and helped to alleviate the feelings of the Allegheny rooters. Near the end of the game the score was a tie, but the effects of a long and tiresome trip showed on the Allegheny team. It seemed to be the consensus of opinion that a game played on Allegheny's floor would have had a different outcome. However, it was impossible to schedule a return game for this year as the State schedule was already complete.

Allegheny 69, Western Reserve 6.

In spite of the fact that Western Reserve had defeated Pitt on the preceeding night they proved to be amusingly easy for the Gold and Blue. Throughout the contest the Clevelanders only succeeded in caging one field goal and seemed to be entirely at loss on the floor. Every man on the Allegheny team succeeded in caging at least two baskets in this game, while Hawk made, in all, twenty-three points for the Gold and Blue.

Allegheny 53, Mount Union-Scio 6.

The Mount Union-Scio game was rather a disappointment to many of the rooters as a much closer contest had been anticipated. Although the Ohioans made a strong start and held their opponents scoreless for a few moments, they were soon entirely out-classed and left far behind as the Allegheny score increased. Mates proved to be the stellar performer in this game by making nine baskets during the time that he was in the game. Dunbar made his first appearance as a 'Varsity man and did good work as a guard.

APRIL 8, 1913.

This issue is given over to the delineation of the triumphs and laurels of the basketball team, which has done so much in the way of maintaining Allegheny's record for the year. The fact that another season has been played with only two defeats, and both of them against the possible champions of the states of Ohio and Pennsylvania, is by no means unpleasant. And the most pleasant feature of the whole season, is the fact that Allegheny's record for clean athletics has been maintained.

The Season of 1913.

To those men who have spent their time so faithfully in practice and in playing and especially to Captain Hawk and "Jim" Mates, who have played their last game for Allegheny, The Campus extends its thanks and congratulations for their work.

The anonymous publication, "The Truth," which made its appearance during the past week, is another of those so-called "yellow sheets" which are inevitably written by some person or persons with bad tastes in their mouths or brains. If the writers of such papers have not the courage to present their charges in the open or to give reasons for their statements, they will do well to keep such things to themselves. Such papers do no good and only serve to increase a spirit of suspicion among the various men in school.

The Truth?

To the family and many friends of Mr. Palmer, The Campus desires to extend the sympathy of the student body. The board cannot explain in any better way the sentiment of the students, than that presented by Dr. Lee last week, "to know him was to like him."

Mr. Palmer's Death.

NEW CHAPEL HYMNALS.

At the first Chapel service after the Easter vacation a surprise was given the student body when it was found that a set of new hymnals had been purchased for use in the daily devotions. The provision of these new books comes as a gift from Mrs. Jane Hannah of Meadville and Mr. Chas. Greer of New Castle.

The new book is called "Hymns of Worship and Service, Chapel Edition" published 1912 by the Century Company of New York. It contains 385 hymns consisting mainly of selections from the larger "Hymns for Worship and Service" together with the addition of several of the best known Gospel Hymns and a variety of hymns from other sources especially appropriate to the prayer meeting. Besides the musical selections there is a section devoted to the Ten Commandments, the Apostles' Creed, Opening Sentences, and Prayers. Also in addition to these fifty pages are given over to Scripture Readings in the form of selections of even length for responsive reading and arranged by the Rev. C. C. Albertson, D.D. In commenting on the hymns contained in the book, President Crawford said that an exceedingly large proportion were ones that were in the old book also, while it contained all those old familiar hymns that have become identified with true devotion.

The Order of Service for Allegheny College Chapel, as inserted in the front of the hymnal, shows two changes from the one formerly in use. The order of the Gloria Patri and the Doxology has been interchanged and there is an addition of two more prayers following that of St. Chrysostom, "A Prayer for the College" and "A Prayer" which are interchangeable with that of St. Chrysostom.

As a supplement to the hymns, proper copies of the newly composed college hymns have been pasted in. These two are "Alma Mater Beatissima" sung to the tune National Hymn and composed by John D. Hammond, '66, and "Alma Mater," by an "Alumnus," sung to the tune Austria.

The new book is very neat in appearance. It is of the same broad dimensions as the new Methodist Hymnal although necessarily not quite so thick. It is of a light brown color and the title appears in artistic lettering. On the whole it seems that a better book for use as a Chapel Hymnal could not have been selected.

BASKETBALL CAPTAIN CHOSEN.

At a meeting of the basketball players, which was held in Coach Dunlap's office on last Saturday, J. A. Nichols, '14, was elected captain of next year's team. The men who were eligible to vote were L. L. Hawk, '13, J. M. Mates, '13, O. C. Graham, '15, P. E. Thomas, '14, P. E. Lindberg, '14, J. A. Nichols, '14, R A. Cox, '16, D. G. Dunbar, '15, and S. T. Perley, '13.

Nichols has played at forward since his freshman year and is a familiar figure on the floor. He has played at this position in practically every game of this season and has made a large portion of Allegheny's points. While Jonter is not an exceptionally fast floor man, he has unusual ability in caging the ball and can toss the ball in from almost any part of the floor.

HON G. S. FERRIS, '69, DIES.

In the recent death of Hon. George S. Ferris, '69, Allegheny lost one of her oldest and most distinguished alumni. Mr. Ferris died at his home at West Pittston, Pa., on last Wednesday morning. He had practiced law in both Columbia and Luzerne counties for many years and was a former president judge of the common pleas court of Luzerne County. He was elected judge in Luzerne County in 1900 and became president judge in 1910, serving in this office until 1912. He was a descendant of one of the first settlers of the Wyoming Valley.

INTER CLASS SERIES.

The inter class basketball league this year played one of the most successful series of games that have been played by the classes. On March 15, the series was decided when the Freshman team defeated the Sophomore five by a score of 28 to 18. Up to this time the two under-classes were tied with two victories to the credit of each, and this game was the hardest and most closely contested of the season. The feature of the game was the close guarding which partly accounted for the large number of fouls and the small number of field goals. The winning of this game entitled the Freshmen to the inter-class championship, they having won every game played.

The first games of the inter-class series were played on February 22, when the Sophomores defeated the Seniors by a score of 19-9, while the Freshmen triumphed over the Juniors with a tally of 21-17. Both of these games were hard fought but showed considerable lack of practice on the part of the upper-classmen, while the under-classmen were in good training.

The second games of the series were played on March 8, when the under-classmen again proved victorious in the dual meet. The Freshmen defeated the Seniors by a score of 27-22, and the Sophomores overcame the Juniors with a score of 14-11. These victories for the under-class teams tied the Freshmen and Sophomores for the championship, each having won two games. The tie was played off on March 15 and the championship awarded to the Freshmen.

"THE SCRUBS."

The great success of the 'Varsity basketball team this season is due in no small degree to the hard and persistent work of the scrub team in playing against them. There never was a night when there was not a strong bunch of players out to keep the first team men on their mettle by giving them opposition. It was early recognized that there was a possibility for an exceedingly good team and Manager Carr proceeded to arrange a schedule. Two games were played, which showed the Reserves' superiority over their opponents. The first contest was at Edinboro against the Normal team, the Reserves winning 33-12. The second was easier, when they won from Franklin high school, 71-17. In both games every man played a steady game.

"Doug" Dunbar, '15, was the leader as a point getter. With this and his all round fast playing he earned a place on the 'Varsity squad and eventually his "A."

Bash, '16, was Dunbar's close second. His frequent stellar long shots were features of both games.

McKay, '16, at center, managed to get the tip-off at the same time, scoring nine baskets to his opponents' five. He practiced later as a possible substitute for Hawk on the first team.

Arnold and Colt at guard were both of the same calibre, being mutually helpful to each other in holding down their forwards. They excelled their opponents in point getting.

Hall and McNulty also played at guard and held their men down well although they were unable to score themselves. McNulty, also, later made good on the 'Varsity squad and played in the Grove City game.

MISSION STUDY.

Another very interesting Mission Study class was held last Thursday evening, with Dr. Crawford in charge. The leader briefly outlined the previous chapters in the book and then took up the subject for the evening, "The People of the City as a Factor in the Problem." He spoke of the city as a little world because it contained all kinds of people. Dr. Crawford spoke of the children, stating that because of poor nutrition and the evils of child labor, the majority of the children from the down town districts are inferior to the children of the country. He also mentioned the great work which the Children's Playgrounds and the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations were doing for the youth of our land.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT TO BEGIN NEXT WEEK

With fine weather coming on plans for this spring's tennis tournament are rapidly being worked out. It has been decided that the spring tournament, in which men qualify for the team to represent Allegheny in intercollegiate meets, will be carried out in a way similar to that of last year. The men entering the tournament will be graded into two classes, class A and class B. Drawings are then made for positions in the two classes according to positions number 1, 2, 3, etc., in each class. Any man then has the right to challenge the man in his class who is one or two numbers ahead of him and if he wins he moves up to his opponent's position and his opponent drops down to his. Then at the end of the tournament, the first four men in class A are chosen as the college team unless challenged and defeated by either of the first two men in class B. The tournament will be started one week from Wednesday if weather permits and by starting early and having a regular schedule the tournament will be played to completion and everyone will be tried out. Plans for the doubles tournament will be announced later.

For the first time that tennis has been a college sport in Allegheny attempts are to be made to hold several dual meets and plans are already under way for arranging two dual meets at other schools and one at home.

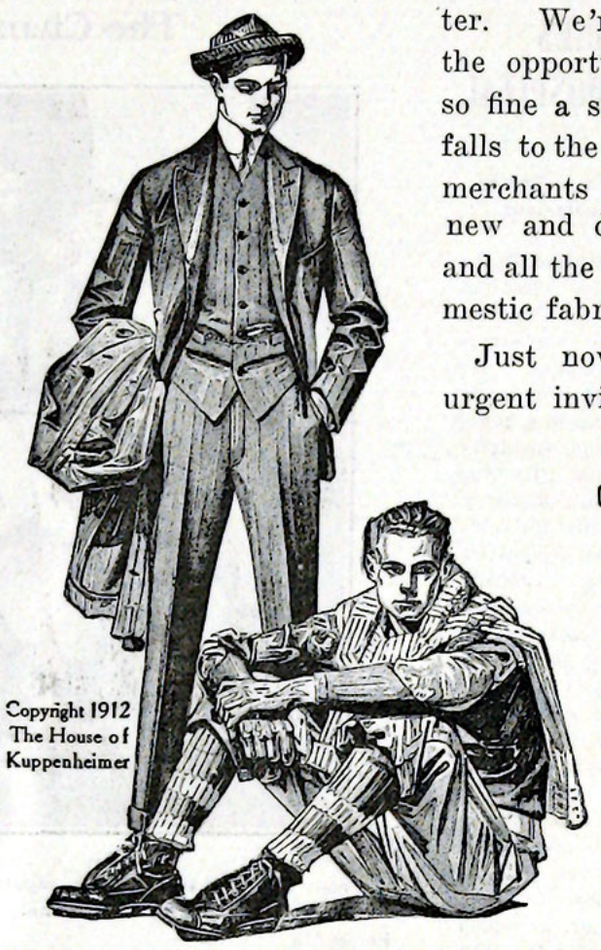

There is a tennis meeting called for Wednesday afternoon, at one-thirty, in the trophy room of the gymnasium and since it is very important it is urged that all those interested in tennis be present.

Case school in Cleveland is making arrangements for the installation of a weather bureau. The apparatus will be sent from Washington and placed on the roof of their Physics building.

On last Thursday evening Mr. L. M. Riddle spoke to a large audience at the Christ Church parish house. His subject was "Cathedrals of Europe," and the material for the lecture was largely drawn from the travels of the speaker.

On the Wednesday evening before the vacation the Livingston Centennial was fittingly celebrated at the union meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Dr. Crawford, Dr. Breed and Professor Ross gave interesting talks on the wonderful achievements of the great explorer.

The newly elected members of the Philo Franklin Forum met on last Saturday and made arrangements for several important changes in the constitution of the society. At a meeting which will be held this week, new members will be chosen and plans will be made for next year.

The members of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity gave a party for their lady friends at their chapter house on the Thursday evening before Easter vacation. The evening was spent at various games and amusements, after which warm sugar was served. Dr. and Mrs. Lee were the chaperones.

On account of the disastrous floods during vacation week several students had a difficult time in getting back to college. Many railroads were not yet running, because of the washouts along the line. As the branch line of the Erie was not running, those from Oil City and Franklin were forced to come by way of Corry.

At the regular meeting of the Thoburn Club, which was held in the Classical Club room in the Library on last Friday night, Dr. Elliott spoke on the subject of "The Country Church." After Dr. Elliott had presented several of the difficulties which the average minister would meet in country work, the members of the club asked him questions concerning possible remedies and methods of campaign. On the whole, the discussion was one of the most interesting and most practical that has been entered into by the club during the present year.

The Glee and Mandolin Clubs gave their first concert before a Meadville audience in the Stone Church under the auspices of the Epworth League on March 18. A large and appreciative audience of town and college people was present and the work of both clubs was heartily encored. The first part of the program was especially good, as was the work of the soloists and reader. The Mandolin Club came in for its share of praise and the rendering of the pieces by the Glee Club was fully up to the standard.

On the Thursday before the Easter vacation the matter of the choice of holidays for this spring was brought before the students by Dr. Crawford. The vote was almost unanimous in favor of Moving-Up Day and consequently that will be the regular college holiday for the spring term. Some special exercises will be held on Founder's Day at the time of the regular chapel services.

Since the return from the Easter vacation and with the present nice weather, baseball has been booming in interest among the men. Nearly every day has seen them on the new field or in other places about the campus getting their arms loosened up for harder practice. It is the expectation that by the first game which is with the University of Pittsburgh at Meadville April 19, the varsity team will have rounded into one of the best in this section. Regular practice started yesterday.

The intra-mural sports, which were held on the Friday before vacation, were easily won by the Sophomores by an overwhelming score, the Freshmen being a poor second. The events included a 25 yard dash, high jump, pole vault, standing broad jump, and high dive. For the "Centennials" L. Wells, '15, especially distinguished himself by breaking the college indoor records in the high jump at 5 feet 5 1-8 inches and the pole vault at 10 feet 4 inches. Doran, '15, and Fahr, '15, were among the leading point makers for the Sophomores, while McKay, '16, and Horner, '16, placed for the Freshmen.

The first meeting of the Y. M. C. A. since Easter vacation was held in the Association room in Cochran Hall last Wednesday evening. In the absence of President Wieler, Paul Johnston, vice-president, presided at the meeting. Clyde V. Sparling gave the talk of the evening and spoke on "What College is Really Worth to Us." He based his talk upon the parable of the five talents and pointed out the fact that not only one's natural talents count in life but also those which are acquired and therefore, college ought to make two-talent men out of those originally possessing but one. He also said that on account of the great advantages offered to the college men, the world expects a great deal from him, and he is therefore put to the test to fulfill the expectations of the people. Not only the material, but also the spiritual things of life count towards one's success. Since in college one lives in an atmosphere of friendship and co-operation entirely different from that of the world, this is very favorable to spiritual development.

HULINGS HALL.

Miss Elizabeth Lord, '13, Editor.

Miss Mary Bardall, '14, returned to college yesterday afternoon.

Miss Esta Ebaugh, '15, is at home on account of her mother's illness.

There was no Senior Tea last Thursday afternoon owing to the death of Professor Palmer.

Miss Ruth Dodd, '14, of Zanesville, O., who has been detained at home by the flood, returned to college Sunday.

Doctor and Mrs. G. G. Benjamin were Sunday dinner guests of the Misses Irene Beatty, '13, and Jessie Tomb, '13.

Miss Grace Thomas, '09, of Union City was the guest of Miss Frances Norton, '13, on Friday. Miss Thomas has been taking examinations preparatory to her A. M. degree.

Miss May Girsham, '14, spent the Easter vacation with Miss Alice Hawkey, '16, at Tidioute; Miss Elizabeth Lord, '13, with Miss Edith Deland, '13, Sheridan, N. Y, and Miss Harriette Bassett, '15, with Miss Genevra Campbell, '16, at Kittanning.

At the regular Sunday evening Y. W. C. A. meeting the installation of the officers for the year 1913-14 took place. The new officers and members of the cabinet are as follows: president, Muza Anchors, '14; vice president, May Girsham, '14; , secretary, Mary Barkley, '15; treasurer, Esta Ebaugh, '15; chairman of devotional committee, Margaret Seitz, '14; chairman of mission study committee, Janet Ellis, '15; chairman of Bible study committee, Gertrude Reed, '14; chairman of nominating committee, Mary Bardall, '14; chairman of social committee, Ruth Browning, '14; chairman of social service committee, Marie Howell, '15; chairman of music committee, Lucile Domer, '15; chairman of association news committee, Leone Rial, '16; cabinet reporter, Linda Holt, '14; advisory member, Miss Edith Rowley.

PITTSBURGH ALUMNI DINE.

There was an enthusiastic crowd of Alleghenians at the annual banquet of the Pittsburgh Alumni Association, which was held in the Monongahela House on March 28, with about ninety present. Dr. Crawford had been expected, but was detained because of the recent flood and his place in the program was taken by a substitute.

The toast list was as follows:

Toastmaster—J. L. Porter, '90.

When Men Wear Skirts—James Wakefield.

First Federated Church, Riverside Congregation—C. M. Miller, '85.

When We Were in College—A. W. Robertson, '06.

When Women Vote—Miss Ruth Townley, '03.

Nineteen Fifteen—R. W. D. Darragh, '93.

Our Girls—A. K. Travis, '02.

Oberlin ranks second in the country in number of negro students in attendance.

REVIEW OF BASKETBALL RESULTS OF THE SEASON.

Allegheny 20, Ohio Wesleyan 19.

Allegheny defeated her old rival, Ohio Wesleyan, in the fastest game that was seen on the home floor during this season. The Ohioans were often in the lead and at several times displayed superior team work to that of their opponents. The fact that both Hawk and Thomas were badly crippled before the game materially weakened the Gold and Blue line-up. One of the features of the game was the "shooting guards" of Ohio Wesleyan, who succeeded in breaking loose several times and did the scoring for the Ohio team.

Allegheny 28, Pitt 23.

The last game on the home floor resembled football rather than basketball. Neither team displayed any remarkable ability and the game became largely a "rough and tumble" characterized chiefly by the frequent fouling. Although the score was close throughout the contest, Allegheny succeded in gaining a five point lead before the whistle blew. Probably the best feature of the game was the accurate foul shooting by Baker of the Pitt team.

Allegheny 43, Geneva 15.

Allegheny was compelled to send a crippled team because of the absence of the two regular guards. Geneva was unable to make any headway during the first period but displayed more strength during the second half and at this time made thirteen of her fifteen points. Both Hawk and Dunbar were successful in caging field goals almost at will.

Allegheny 36, Grove City 9.

Most of the reports that had been received of the strength of the Grove City five proved to be idle boasts when they met the Gold and Blue team. Because of the injury of Thomas and the absence of Graham, the Allegheny line-up was partially made up of scrubs. However, Allegheny experienced practically no trouble in maintaining a safe lead throughout the game. The close guarding by the Allegheny men proved to be more than the Grove City team had anticipated and resulted in their poor success in making field goals.

Allegheny 35, Pitt 19.

Probably the best account of the recent game with the University of Pittsburgh can be obtained from the following article which appeared in the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times:

Pitt closed its basketball season last night at Trees gym and lost to the fast Allegheny College passers 35 to 19. It was a fast and rough game and interesting all the way.

At the start Baker tossed in four from the foul line before Hawk dropped one through from the foul mark for Allegheny. Baker got another and Thomas threw in the first basket and Allegheny was two points behind. Hawk got a foul goal and a basket, putting Allegheny ahead 6 to 5., Hawk tossed in two fouls and Baker one. Then each got one and Hawk made a toss from the floor. Baker made four more foul baskets before the half closed, but Hawk had a basket and one from the foul line to his credit.. The half closed with the score 14 to 11 in Allegheny's favor.

Baker turned loose a long overhand toss from almost midfloor into the basket. That was the first score of the second half. Hawk added another point to Allegheny's total from the foul line. Baker discounted it with a toss from foul line. Nichols got under the basket and tossed in one from floor. Mates soon afterwards scored another for Allegheny. When Baker made a foul goal the count was 19 to 15, Allegheny. Thomas added two more points for the 'Varsity team by a basket, having a clean shot. Hawk had an easy chance for a basket and he accepted it. He followed with two foul tosses. Baker put one in from foul and the score was 25 to 16 against Pitt. Hawk got the ball on the jump off and made a long shot in the net for another basket. Hawk made a foul goal and when Baker was talking to Referee Davis, Hawk was given another toss and made it two. Baker made good from the foul line, but Nichols helped along Allegheny with a foul goal. Ochsenhirt threw in a basket for Pitt. Thomas was all alone when he made a basket. Hawk threw one of two trials from the foul line. Nichols got a basket just as the whistle blew. The lineup:

Pitt—19.		Allegheny—35.
Frishman	F	Mates
Baker-Straw	F	Nichols
Reese	C	Hawk
Ochsenhirt	G	Graham
Campbell,	G	Thomas

Graham

Field goals—Hawk 5, Thomas 3, Nichols 3, Mates, Ochsenhirt 2, Baker. Foul goals—Baker 13 out of 18, Hawk 12 out of 18. Referee—Davis.

Summary.

A summary of the scores of the season shows that Allegheny has succeeded in making almost three points to her opponents one. The totals show 415 to opponents' 157, or an average score of 38-14 for each game.

E. J. B. PALMER DIES AT CITY HOSPITAL.

really wide knowledge of the subject under discussion. Under all circumstances, he did his work quietly and simply, to the best of his ability and with absolute integrity and no thought of self, but the kindest consideration of others.

"Mr. Palmer was a man of clear and strong convictions but not aggressive. If ambitious for place or power he never revealed the fact in the presence of the speaker by word or act. He was not content, however, to let the world merely glide by. His training had given him a broad and catholic view of the ethics of life and a love for the truth and scientific investigation and a desire for service. He was one of those that believed that 'there is a ministry of farm, and mine and shop; of mill and railroad, and store and office, and that wherever men toil with the strength of body or strength of mind for that which makes for the best life of their kind—that ministry is holy and sacred.' What he had was given freely, and he seemed to feel that no labor was too great in his fundamental desire to be of service to others.

"We are sad when we remember that he has been taken away from us by death, but we are assured when we remember his fine, clean life, and his character as that of a Christian gentleman. We shall ever hold him in affectionate remembrance."

VARSITY TEAM.

"Tommy's" team mate for two years. "Ocean" has the faculty of sticking to his man in such a way that his opponent might just as well be out of the game, as only four baskets have been scored on him this season. "The greatest pair of guards ever" is the opinion of all who have seen "Ocean" and "Tommy" in action.

Paul L. Lindberg, '14.

"Lindy's" work this year has been very effective. He has always been "right on the job" when called upon to go into the game, whether placed at guard or forward. He generally managed to slide in a couple of baskets whenever he played and on account of his all round ability is a valuable man to the team.

N. LeRoy Ramsey, '14.

Roy was unable to get into many games on account of injuries received early in the year, but upheld his old reputation as a hard and fast player in those games in which he did play. He will also be with the team next year and will doubtless be one of the old reliables.

Raymond A. Cox, '16.

Cox was the only Freshman to make a place on the 'Varsity this year and his work certainly entitles him to a permanent position on the team. He has been most effective when put in to sub at forward and will be the fastest forward on the 'Varsity next year.

Douglas M. Dunbar, '15.

Another man who has earned his letter this year is "Doug" Dunbar who filled "Tommy's" place when he was hurt in the middle of the season. He played through the rest of the season until hurt in the Grove City game.

Charles G. McNulty, '14.

"Jere" accompanied the team on its last two trips and when called upon in the Grove City game to play guard filled this position in great shape holding his man to no baskets and shooting a difficult goal himself.

Manager Perley.

Much of the success of this year's basketball team belongs to Manager Perley. In fact, the excellent schedule which he arranged made it possible for the Allegheny five to achieve a high reputation throughout Pennsylvania and Eastern Ohio. In spite of the fact that he was hampered by the cancellation of games and difficulty in arranging terms for contests, he succeeded in giving Allegheny rooters some of the best games seen in recent years.

THE CLASS OF 1917.

That the enrollment for next year will easily reach the 400 limit, set by the Board of Trustees at their last meeting, is shown by the fact that already all the rooms in Hulings Hall have been filled for next year and there are still about ten young ladies on the waiting list. The trustees decided at their meeting also to enforce more stringently the rules requiring the young ladies to room in the hall, so it is probable that no more young ladies will be admitted to next year's class. A number of men have already signified their intention of entering next year so that the total of students signed for next year is about fifty.

LETTER FROM W. L. MORGAN, '10.

President Crawford received recently a letter from Rev. W. L. Morgan, '10, principal of the J. L. Crawford Boys' school at Vikarabad, Deccau, India, telling of his work there. He was sent to India by the Mission Board and has been successful in his work there. He is very optimistic for the future of the school.
