Dear Miss Tarbell:-

I am ever so much obliged to you for sending me another manuscript, which I have read with great pleasure. But would it not seem almost too naive in printed form. You need the emphasis and gesture of the talker if the story is to retain all its values. I don't wonder that the experience laid hold upon you. The gentlest echo of the Gospel is affecting enough in these times.

If you are ever in Boston it will be a great pleasure to see you.

Yours sincerely,

Ellery Sedgwick
