

251 Western Promenade
Portland
Maine

Thursday.

Dear, dear friend: —

Your letter has touched my heart, & believe me I know you would be loved & true. —

Some day I shall see you & if I can, I will bring myself to speaking of many things: But your faith — given so unquestionably, means more than I can tell you.

Believe me, I can look into my own soul as clear, as if I can prove truth, in spite of all that I have to fight against, I shall feel that I have not stolen the victory. If I fail — well — my own conscience is at peace for I know what I have not done.

My love to you,

Your devoted

Kathrine

Say a kind word for me when you can — I need it.

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library