Sept. 21, 1922

Dear Percy:

Thank you for your letter of the 18th. There would be nothing that I should like better than to go out with you some afternoon and spend the night with you and Mrs. Eastment; and if we had the time next day to be shot around Long Island, as you suggest. I would even be willing to be one of the "women speakers" at Mrs. Eastment's Club.

The only thing in the way is my finding a Friday when I can go. It will have to be after my return from my next Lincoln journey, and I fear that will not be until late in November. If some time in December will be acceptable to Mrs. Eastment, I will try my best to arrange it. And please, please, thank her for the invitation, which I do appreciate.

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Percy Eastment,
373 Fourth Avenue,
New York City.
