My dear Mr. Reynolds;

Your letter of February 10 with the suggestion of an article for Mr. Vance has just found me here in Nebraska. No, I do not think I could handle this for him. I do not see the matter in the light of the writer of the suggestion. It would take more squirming than I am capable of to make a clean case for the gentlemen and the corporations mentioned.

Sorry to have to pass up anything that you or Mr. Vance suggest.

Very sincerely yours,
