June 5, 1933

My dear Miss Beckman:

Thank you heartily for your pleasant letter of May 31st, accompanying the catalogue of Mr. Little's Lincoln collection.

I am much interested in this sale and deeply regret that Mr. Little has to part with his collection. Sorry, too, that I am not going to be there to bid, although if I were there I am afraid my budget would not allow me to take much part in the offering.

As you surmise my interest in this collection is the stronger because I did visit Mr. Little. I am filing your catalogue in my own little collection.

It is pleasant to be told that you are a neighbor of Aunt Lizzie. I sometimes drop into Naperville, though it has been a long time since I have had that good fortune. When it comes to me again I shall not forget that you are just around the corner.

Thanking you for your kindness in remembering me, believe me

Very sincerely yours

Miss Eleanor A. B. Beckman
410 South Michigan Avenue
Chicago, Illinois

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library