

24 EAST NINETY-FIRST STREET.

April 15, 1916

Dear Miss Farwell -

My brother Tom was deeply moved in reading your Tribute to our beloved sister - and we wish to ask a
great favor of you.
Her birthday is on the 3rd of May; we always made quite a festive occasion of it - and I felt that I could not let the day pass even this year without some commemoration.

In talking of one yes,
today - my brother and I had the same idea,
the same wish: that you might repeat the Tribute you wrote on occasion of the annual meeting of the Cosmopolitan Club - here at the house which, alas, will soon be broken up -

in an intimate circle
of friends.
Do you think you could do this for us
in memory of our father a sister?
We should ^{be} profoundly grateful to you!
The day is two weeks
from Wednesday -
the hour still to be decided upon.
I do hope for a favorable
reply!
Very sincerely yours
Marianne Schurz.