MASS MEETING INVITES INDEPENDENT THINKING

ANOTHER MEETING ARRANGED FOR TONIGHT—KLAN IS DENOUNCED

Over two hundred Alleghenians, including students and several faculty members, attended a mass meeting held in Ford Memorial Chapel last Tuesday evening, for the purpose of arousing among the students an active interest in the problems which are now of greatest importance in national and international affairs. This meeting came as the direct result of the sending of six delegates from Allegheny to the conference of the Student Volunteer Convention, held recently at Indianapolis.

Mr. Charles W. Havice presided and spoke in explanation of the object of the meeting. He emphasized the responsibility of students to help find a remedy for the unrest and disorder prevalent in the world today and of the significance of the youth movement. Four other delegates then spoke, each one giving an exposition of some problem which has been the subject of discussion at the conference.

Mr. G. Alfred Palmer spoke on the menace of war. At the conference various solutions for war had been offered, which Mr. Palmer outlined. All recognized that war is undesirable, but differed in their method of avoiding it. Some advocated a policy of passive resistance; others stood for preparedness.

Miss Elizabeth Laffer gave various phases of the race problem as it exists in different countries. The relation of the negro to the white in our own country was the chief question under consideration. Miss Laffer related her topic particularly to college conditions.

The Kp Klux Klan was the subject of Mr. John M. Pratt's speech. Mr. Pratt questioned the Americanism of the Klan and declared it to be a grave danger to the Government and peace. Miss Helen Fry reiterated some of the issues concerning war, which she and Mr. Russell R. Denison had presented that morning in chapel.

The Ku Klux Klan was the most popular subject for discussion. Conviction against the Klan was intense, although several of the students pointed out some of its redeeming features.

The interest was so high among the students that they unanimously voted that another such meeting be held tonight at 6:45 o'clock, at which time other vital problems of the day will be presented to open forum. Free expression and independence of thought are encouraged. The mass meeting is purely a student enterprise, but the faculty and other friends are cordially invited.

THE WORLD HAS BECOME A GREAT NEIGHBORHOOD

COLLEGE BIBLE CLASS DISCUSSES INTIMACY OF RELATIONS
AMONG NATIONS

"The World—a Neighborhood" was the subject of discussion at the regular meeting of the College Men's Bible Class, last Sunday, at the Stone Church. This was the first topic in the new course of study adopted by the class some time ago.

Dr. C. F. Littell, following the outline in the study pamphlet, pointed out that today the world is not a group of segregated nations but a neighborhood. Because of the closeness of contact with our own countrymen as well as with foreigners, we must evince more self-control, be more unselfish, and follow more closely the teachings of the Christian religion than our forefathers were required to do. Dr. Littell said, "The problem today is not how to get away from folks but how to get along with them."

The United States, with its many kinds of races, peoples, and languages all in one nation, illustrates best the fact that the world has narrowed down. We are all proofs that the world is a neighborhood.

The previous attendance record of fifty-two was increased, with sixty-two present.

The second topic under the new course, "Tolerance," will be discussed next Sunday.

VARSITY DEBATERS MAY MEET HAMILTON COLLEGE

FRESHMAN TEAM TO DEBATE
PENN STATE FROSH
FEBRUARY 8

With the first varsity debate scheduled for February 21, the debating teams are now hard at work, meeting several times a week for practice. A few changes in details of the arrangements of the season's contests have been made at the request of the teams which Allegheny will meet.

The Freshman team will debate the Penn State Freshmen on February 8, instead of January 18, as formerly announced. The home team will take the affirmative of the varsity question, "Resolved, the United States Should Enter the League of Nations." The Penn State team, which includes three speakers and a faculty coach, will come here, giving the Allegheny men the advantage of debating at home in Ford Memorial Chapel. This event has the double benefit of opening debating relations between Allegheny and Penn State, and of giving first year men intercollegiate experience.

Arrangements are pending for a debate with Hamilton College at Clinton, New York, to be held April 4. It has not been definitely settled yet whether the debate will be dual or single, and, if single, where it will be held. Hamilton has an excellent record in debating and undoubtedly would give keen competition to their opponents. However, the establishment of debating relations with this institution will be a distinct advantage to Allegheny, for Hamilton men are well known for their skill in forensics. In order to satisfy the requirements for graduation, every student there must make a certain number of speeches in public during his college course.

According to the present schedule a dual debate will be held with Western Reserve University, February 21, and a triangular debate with Oberlin and Wooster, March 20.

JUNIOR CLASS MAKES FINAL PLANS FOR PROM

TICKETS ARE NOW BEING SOLD
BY COMMITTEE FOR ALL-COL-LEGE DANCE

Final arrangements for the Junior Prom have been completed by the committee, and all indications are that the majority of the College students will be present at the State Armory, Friday evening, February 1.

The music for the most important of College functions will be furnished by the Blue Ribbon Synkoptors, one of the best of Pittsburgh orchestras. The committee has planned to decorate the Armory in a manner in which it has never been decorated before. It is also promised that favors will be exceptionally pleasing. Inasmuch as this Prom is to be far from a funeral, the young ladies will not wear flowers.

The chaperons will be President and Mrs. Fred W. Hixson and Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee. Dancing, according to the custom of the past few years, will be from 8 to 12.

Tickets are now on sale by the members of the committee.

STUDENTS MAY LEARN FRENCH BY VICTROLA

SET OF RECORDS GIVES PRONUN-
CIATION OF VOCABULARIES
IN PRESCRIBED TEXT

Learning to pronounce French words correctly has always been a task, sometimes impossible, for the beginner, and in order to facilitate this difficult labor the College has obtained a set of twenty-five or more Victrola records which will give all the vocabularies and sentences of the Fraser and Squair Grammar pronounced correctly in French. Although this method of teaching will not be incorporated in the classwork, and student who finds French pronunciation difficult will be permitted to use these records. The Victrola from Hulings Hall has been taken to Bentley Hall in order that students may make use of the records. They may be used in the classroom from time to time by some of the teachers.

WEST VIRGINIA FIVE DEFEATS BLUE AND GOLD IN FAST GAME

Mountaineers Win by 31-21 Score—Wolf
Stars for Allegheny

Fresh from a victory over the University of Pittsburgh on the preceding night, the West Virginia University basketball team stretched its unbroken string of basketball victories to six, by defeating the Allegheny quintet, 31-21, in a fast and exciting game. The crowd of over a thousand enthusiastic fans saw the Blue and Gold fight hard to cut the Mountaineer lead to four points in the final quarter, and then bow before the invincible passing and shooting attack of the visitors.

The contest was the second home game, and the crowd in attendance vouched for the interest of the college and townspeople in the success of the new Allegheny team. The game furnished thrills galore, the sensational guarding of Joe Wolf, who, the Mountaineer coach stated, "is the best guard I have ever seen," being the outstanding feature. The passing attack of the entire West Virginia team, their daring cutting for the basket, their close guarding, and the accurate shooting of Hill and Rohrbach, featured the visitors' play.

The first quarter of the game undoubtedly contained the best basketball of the evening. Bowers opened the scoring for West Virginia after a minute or two of play by dropping in a two-pointer. McClurg's foul was the first point registered for Allegheny. Field goals by Hill and Rohrbach, two fouls by Hill, field goals by McClurg and Ross, with two more fouls tossed in by McClurg brought the score to 8-7, in West Virginia's favor by the end of the quarter. The Mountaineers continued to drop in field goals, adding two, while the Blue and Gold failed to tally from the floor. Foul throws brought the half score to 16-10, with Allegheny still trailing.

The second half, though roughly played, brought out some good work by both teams. The Blue and Gold fought the Mountaineer lead down to four points in the third quarter, but the strain told, and Funke, Hill and Rohrbach caged shots which brought the margin to ten. The final whistle found the score 31-21.

Hill, despite his injury, sustained in a fall during the third quarter, and Rohrbach were the best performers for West Virginia, although the entire team showed play of championship calibre. Wolf's guarding and the general play of Judd and McClurg kept (Continued on page 4.)

WINNING PLAN IN BOK CONTEST IS PUBLISHED

AMERICAN PEACE AWARD TO SUBMIT IDEA TO PUBLIC
FOR REFERENDUM

Selected by a jury of the American Peace Award as being the most deserving of the $50,000 prize offered by Edward W. Bok for the most practicable plan to achieve and preserve world peace, the winning plan is being submitted to a referendum of the American people.

The plan in brief proposes that the United States shall immediately enter the Court of International Justice and shall offer to extend its present cooperation with the League of Nations without becoming a member of the League as it is controlled at present. It also proposes that the United States participate in the work of the League under given conditions which would safeguard the Monroe Doctrine and substitute moral force and public opinion for the military and economic force which has been applied up to the present time. The membership in the League shall be open to all nations, and provisions shall be made for continuing the development of international law.

A second $50,000 will be awarded if the Jury of Award decides that sufficient public support has been demonstrated for the plan. Ballots and copies of the selected plan may be secured through the courtesy of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. or from the American Peace Award, New York City.

NEW YORK TRIO
The New York Trio which comes to Allegheny on January 31 as the third number of the College Concert Series.

Composed of Clarence Adler, pianist, Scipione Guidi, violinist, and Cornelius Van Vliet, cellist, this trio is one of the outstanding musical organizations of the day. Their program is well chosen and will please the most sensitive audience.

CONVENTION DELEGATES SPEAK TO STUDENT BODY

PRESENT CRITICAL PROBLEMS
IN WORLD AFFAIRS AND URGE STUDENT ACTION

Presenting reports of the recent International Convention at Indianapolis, Miss Helen Fry and R. Russell Enison, two of Allegheny's six delegates to the assembly, spoke in chapel last Tuesday.

Miss Fry spoke first, stating the general nature of the convention and the main problems taken up both in the assembly as a whole and in the various group meetings. The general purpose, she said, was to discuss the critical problems facing the world today and to get frank, open opinions upon these problems from students from all parts of the world. The questions of discussion were treated under four different phases: Modern Industrialism, International Relations, Racial Problems, and the Youth Movement. Miss Fry gave reports on the first three problems and a general summary of the discussion in the Convention Hall and in the various smaller groups.

There were over seven thousand delegates at the convention, representing peoples of all countries and nationalities. Opinions and viewpoints were presented in a remarkably frank and direct manner, some of these being surprisingly radical.

Mr. Dennison discussed the Youth Movement in the world. He emphasized the fact that there is such a movement today, that students from all parts of the world are uniting in an effort to abolish the old social order. Foreign students are especially active in this movement, and these people have some interesting and unprejudiced views on world problems. The general opinion of the assembly seemed to be that a more Christ-like attitude of one nation toward another is the best solution to the great problems of the present day.

CAMPUS JOURNALISM COURSE ADOPTS MODERN TEXT-BOOK

With the arrival of a selected text book, the class in journalism conducted by the Campus has been given added impetus. The book adopted is "A Course in Journalistic Writing," by Grant Milnor Hyde, M. A., one of the most modern and authoritative texts on practical news-writing of the recent press.

This special class is held in connection with the regular staff meetings, and the purpose is to instruct reporters and staff competitors in the composition of news stories. A number of men have already purchased the book and much interest is being shown in the course. The work is being done in connection with the Department of English Language.

REGISTRATION RULES PUBLISHED BY OFFICE

WORK CARDS DUE JANUARY 31—
RECITATIONS ARE RESUMED
FEBRUARY 6

All the necessary information concerning student registration for the second semester has been made public by the Registrar's office. In order to prevent congestion during the last minutes of the registration period, students are urged to do as much as possible towards enrollment for the next semester prior to Thursday, January 31.

Registration for the second term should be completed on February 4 or 5, and a late registration fee will be charged after Wednesday, February 6.

All work cards should be filled out, signed, and deposited at the Registrar's office by 5:00 P. M., January 31. Instructors' signatures on work cards are required only, (1) If student has not been enrolled during the present term in the subject he desires to register. (2) If student is conditioned or fails, or secures a lower mark than C in the subject in which he desires to register. Should additional signatures be needed, they may be secured February 4 and 5.

A student's request for extra hours will not be considered unless a card is deposited before 5:00 P. M., February 1.

In addition to the regular full-year courses, the following are being offered for the next semester.

Political Science II, IV, VIII; History II, V; Biology I, II, XI; Latin I; Philosophy II, VI, VIII, IX; Geology I, III; Economics V, Education III, IV, V; English Literature VIII, XIII, XV; Physics VIII.

Any of the above courses may be elected provided the consent of the head of the department concerned is secured.

The Registrar's office calls particular attention to the fact that no marks for this semester will be given until February 7.

DR. CHURCH PRESENTS RECITAL IN CHAPEL

REGULAR PROGRAM IS PLEAS-
ANTLY CHANGED BY FOUR ORGAN NUMBERS

Playing on the Chapel organ with pronounced skill Thursday morning, January 17, Dr. Church gave a program of three numbers and responded to an enthusiastic applause for an encore. The first selection was the finale to Act II of the opera, "Madame Butterfly," by Puccini. Although it was of a deeper trend, Dr. Church played it with consummate skill. The second piece, Gavotte from "Mignon," was of a lighter vein. The "Marche Heroique," of Saint-Saens, the third selection, was a masterpiece of fingerling with a delightfully martial spirit. Replying to an encore, Dr. Church played "Minuet," by Boccherini, one of the selections which he included in his organ recital of last year. That the entire recital was enjoyed by everyone was evinced by the long applause.

DR. FREDERICK W. HAMAN, OF
DREW THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL,
VISITS ALLEGHENY

Dr. Frederick W. Haman, Professor of Homiletics at Drew Theological Seminary, was at Allegheny Thursday, January 17. On account of the organ recital given by Dr. Church at chapel, Dr. Haman was unable to speak to the student body. He was introduced, however, and made the announcement that anyone interested in the ministry or mission work of any kind could see him at President Fred W. Hixson's office during the day. Dr. Haman interviewed a considerable number of students who are planning to attend the Drew Theological Seminary.

WHITNEY ENTERTAINMENT PRODUCES MANY LAUGHS

THE "SQUARE DEAL" FROM "HIT
THE TRAIL HOLLIDAY" PRE-SENTS WORTHY MORAL

Presenting the "Square Deal," Edwin M. Whitney, the noted dramatic impersonator, entertained an appreciative and enthusiastic audience which had gathered at Ford Memorial Chapel last Wednesday evening in order to hear the extra number of the Y. M. C. A. lecture course.

"The Square Deal," George M. Co-han's famous four-act stage success, was adapted from the magazine story, "Hit the Trail Holliday."

Mr. Whitney appeared upon the stage with no make-up whatever, and after a short explanation of the play, began his act. His ability and mastery of technique was so thorough that he soon had his audience looking at a wonderful stage setting with a full cast instead of seeing in reality one man upon a bare stage. His voice, actions, and facial expression depicted each character truthfully. One saw him as Mr. Jason, the bent, aged, and mild-mannered hotel keeper. Again he was the straight, tall, and dignified minister. The part of Grainger, the blustering, bullying brewery czar, was played with forcefulness, and he did equally well in representing Holliday, Grainger, Jr., the minister's daughter, the constable, and the humorous sketches of Anna, the maid, and Jed, the champion checker player, who bought himself a medal because nobody else would and because he knew he deserved it.

The setting of the play is in Johnsbury, a small New England town which is ruled over by Grainger. Grainger is about to open a new hotel which will force Mr. Jason's small inn to close its doors. It appears that Jason has rented Grainger's hall for the Temperance Society meeting, and Grainger, finding out the type of meeting to be held, has come down to Jason's place to cause trouble. Holliday, a bartender coming from New York to take a place in Grainger's hotel, arrives a few days before time and stops first at Jason's hotel. Seeing the disagreeable character of his intended employer, Holliday sides with Jason and tells him he need not worry about the hall tonight. A hissing mob of Grainger's does not allow the meeting to proceed that evening until Holliday springs upon the platform leads in the national anthem and then makes a fiery impromptu speech which is highly pleasing to the gathering. Press reports carry the news of the bartender leading the temperance meeting, and the next day Holliday is besieged by reporters, churchmen, moving picture men, and admiring friends. Besides this, he receives offers by telegram and long distance telephone calls which range from writing articles for magazines to addressing meetings. With some of the money thus made, he backs Jason in building a factory and selling a soft drink of Jason's formula. Holliday's continued activities in Johnsbury force Grainger out of business, and in the (Continued on page 4.)

TOM DAVIES IS PLEASED WITH ALLEGHENY SPIRIT

EMPHASIZES SCHEDULE IS HARD
BUT PREDICTS VERY suc-CESSFUL SEASON

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I greet the student body and Alumni of Allegheny College. I am very glad that I shall be a part of Allegheny in the fall, and I have a real interest in the wonderful spirit which I know exists there.

Allegheny College has risen to a high place in the football world, and it will be up to me to work very hard in order to continue the wonderful record made by the team and Coach McCracken.

We must realize that we have a much more difficult schedule than last year and must not treat it with too much optimism. However, I shall do everything in my power to make every game a victory for Allegheny, and with the support of the student body, alumni, and townspeople, I feel confident that we are going to have a very successful year.

Cordially yours,
Tom Davies.

ONE WAY OF LOOKING AT IT

In forty-eight hours will begin the Semi-Annual Allegheny College Judgment Week. The clangor of the house piano will be silenced, and the flapping noise of turning pages will take its place. The erstwhile shieks will forget their fair ones, and the fair ones will forget their shieks as all set themselves to the pursuit of knowledge. Textbooks which have been accumulating dust since October will usurp the place in the students' attention hitherto occupied by the "Cosmopolitan." Those who once delighted themselves and drove their friends frantic by humming "No, No, Nora," will now be repeating the names of the Tudor kings under their breath. Desk lamps, whose switches are stiff from lack of use, will soon burn brightly through the night. The merry crowds that thronged the living rooms after meals will be no more; there will be a group of heavy-eyed students seated uncomfortably in wide-armed chairs, filling blue-books with endless word combinations designed to summarize their meager knowledge of their course in English Lit.

RULES AND OUR LIBRARY

Elsewhere in the columns are to be found the revised rules of the library. The privileges offered by our splendidly equipped Library are too frequently taken as a mere matter of form, and just as often then are they abused. Rules should not be necessary, and certainly their enforcement should not be made necessary so often as is now the case. But as long as careless or selfish students fail to return the borrowed books, rules and their enforcement must continue. The rules published herein also explain the adequate exchange system which Allegheny enjoys with metropolitan libraries. Pamphlet copies of the revised rules may be had at the Library desk within a few days.

THE RUSTIC BRIDGE NEEDS REPAIRS

The Old Rustic Bridge is in need of repairs, especially one section of its railing. Some of the wood is showing the effects of the destructive rain and snow and should be replaced for the sake of safety and appearance.

As impractical as they are, hewn logs will always span the picturesque ravine. The Bridge has a richness in sentiment that can never be lost in more economic values. Although rotted logs must frequently give their places to reinforcements, it will always be the Old Rustic Bridge.

NEXT REGULAR ISSUE PUBLISHED FEBRUARY 12

The special alumni edition will be ready Tuesday, February 5. Students may secure their copies at the Registrar's window.

BOK PEACE AWARD BALLOTING

Campus Filings

From the Campus of Younger Allegheny.

October 1908.

In the early part of the week some of the cross-country runners while entering town near the Odd Fellows' home on North Main frightened a horse which ran off and threw Mr. Roberts to the road, breaking his neck, death resulting in a short time. It is needless to say that the accident was not through the carelessness of the part of the runners, for it was the first time a horse had frightened at their running suits. It is most keenly regretted by the entire student body that this terrible accident resulted through the unintentional fault of our runners. We take this occasion of expressing our deepest sympathy with those who remain.

April 1888.

"Look before you leap" is our advice to all who are asked to join a fraternity. Do not connect yourself with any chapter unless you are convinced that it will do you good; and look at all sides of an argument before it convinces you.

May 1888.

The College base ball team will have to play ball in earnest this spring to win a majority of games from the city club recently organized. The town club includes several excellent players and there will undoubtedly be some exciting games played between now and commencement.

Among numerous other athletic clubs of all kinds organized this term why could not Allegheny support a boat club? Lake George has never contained so much water as at present, and besides it would satisfy the abnormal cravings of some persons to have their names in print.

October 1839.

The annual reception tendered by the Y. M. C. A. of the College to the new students was this year a decided success. An excellent program was carried out including some new (?) selections by "the remains of the Glee Club." The social part of the program was very enjoyable as all exerted themselves to be agreeable and to make new acquaintances.

March 1888.

The security of the occupants of Hulings Hall has been insured in case of fire by the erection of fire escapes on the east and west wings of the building. At least they would be insured if the apparatus was extended another story as at present they only reach from the second to the third floor.

STUDENT OPINION

To The Campus:

Yale students are very much in favor of a modification in the existing prohibition amendment, if figures given out by the Yale News are to be taken as authority for this statement.

The vote taken from the faculty, the undergraduate, and graduate schools revealed a total of 982 for modification, 585 for enforcement, and 526 for repeal.

In the light of present day problems these statistics are extraordinarily significant inasmuch as they disclose a tendency on the part of the average student of one educational institution, at least, to depart from the straight and narrow path as outlined by Volstead and the Eighteenth Amendment and revert back to the pre-war days. This danger is magnified by the vote on the other two questions which show 585 for enforcement and 526 for repeal. Thus it may be seen that the true situation as evidenced by these figures is worthy of the thought and consideration of every college student throughout this country.

To trained minds with the good of the country at heart it would seem that time would erase all traces of this erstwhile evil, the memory of which is so vivid in the minds of most of us. On the contrary, as time elapses, the desire for a reform in the present day dry laws becomes more animated with the result that movements are now on foot to secure the modification and ultimate repeal of this legislation.

This is indeed a grave question which will, in all probability, be answered in the next few years. The data submitted above is not characteristic of Yale alone, but would be substantiated in the greater percentage of American colleges should they take the trouble to ascertain the genuine condition. Therefore it is for us to decide whether we will array ourselves on the side of prohibition to ward off this impending danger. The facts are before you; govern yourselves accordingly.

Sincerely yours,

A SENIOR.

SENIORS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. O. P. Akers entertained the Senior girls at dinner at her home on Saturday evening, January 19. About forty girls were present. The evening passed quickly with jokes and conundrums. Mrs. Akers gave the girls an interesting account of her trip abroad several years ago and showed them some of the beautiful and unusual things which she brought back with her.

TEA FOR TALLEGEWE

Miss Grace Henderson entertained the members of Tallagewe at tea on Wednesday, January 16, at the home of Judge Henderson of this city. Mrs. Fred W. Hixson and Mrs. O. P. Akers poured. Among the guests were Mrs. I. R. Beller, Mrs. Southworth, Mrs. Webb, and the Misses Spalding, Hammett, and Calvin.

Delta Tau Delta announces the pledging of John Henrietta, '27, of Meadville.

Alpha Gamma Delta entertained the members of Theta Upsilon in the chapter rooms on Saturday evening, January 19.

PERSONAL MENTION

Tallagewe announces the initiation of Miss Mildred Pearce and Miss Orpha Starr.

Miss Lillian Newcomb was the guest of Cecelia Johnston at dinner on Saturday evening, January 19.

Miss Ruth Peck visited Hulings Hall Saturday evening.

Seth Perley, '21, was a visitor at the Phi Gamma Delta house on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Braun were guests of Beta Upsilon on Sunday.

Joseph Mason, of Townville, visited his brother, George, at the Phi Alpha Kappa house last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Townsend and Miss Betty Arnold were dinner guests at the Alpha Chi Rho house on Sunday.

Among the guests at the Phi Delta Theta house this week were Osh Graham, Max Lick, and M. Hughes. Miss Twila Hilliard spent Sunday at Hulings Hall as the guest of Helen McMullen.

Among the visitors at the Alpha Chi Rho house over the week-end were the members of the Ridgway High School basketball team, including Messrs. Charlesworth, H. Decker, R. Decker, Blose, Carlson, Young, and Beck. Mr. Albert Snyder, of Franklin, and T. Elliott G. Greenlund, '23, were also guests.

Mr. and Mrs. McVicar, of Tarentum, visited their daughter, Louise, on Sunday.

Mrs. W. E. Davis, of Cambridge Springs, spent the week-end with her daughter, Luella.

FACULTY

President Fred W. Hixson, Dr. Joseph W. Miles, Hon. John J. Henderson, Hon. Arthur L. Bates, Hon. Frank P. Miller, Capt. Wesley B. Best, and Mr. D. B. Reed were in Pittsburgh on Thursday, Jan. 17, attending the mid-year meeting of the Board of Trustees of the College, which was held in the William Penn Hotel.

Dr. C. F. Ross preached the sermon at the North Side Methodist Church in Pittsburgh on Sunday evening, Jan. 20. It was the third of a series of "college nights" which the church has been holding and at which college officials have spoken.

QUILL CLUB PRESENTS AN ALLEGHENY PROGRAM

An Allegheny program was presented at the meeting of the Quill Club last Tuesday night in their room in the Library. Owing to the student mass meeting in the Chapel many of the members were late in arriving.

The program consisted of the review of several books written by former Alleghenians. Virginia Berry reviewed Ida M. Tarbell's book entitled "The Business of Being a Woman." Robert J. McCollum gave a review of "My Year in the Great War" written by Frederick G. Palmer, who was a correspondent on the Western Front. Miss Edith Rowley gave some interesting sidelights on the lives of both Mr. Palmer and Miss Tarbell. The program was concluded with the review of another of Mr. Palmer's books on war entitled "Our Greatest Battle"; G. Alfred Palmer was the reviewer.

PHILO-FRANKLIN FORUM

There was an increase in attendance at the last meeting of the Philo-Franklin Forum on Friday at 4:45 in Bentley. The topic for the meeting, "The Best Joke I Know," almost explains itself. Everyone entered heartily into the program, and some good laughs resulted. Plans for next semester were discussed. It was decided to continue meetings of the Forum throughout next semester contrary to the present custom of terminating activities at this time. Program and publicity committees were appointed by the speaker, and future programs will be entertaining as well as profitable. This new series of programs will be announced in a later edition of the Campus and also by posters in Cochran and Bentley Halls. The next meeting will be on Friday, February 8.

HISTORY AND POLITICAL SCIENCE CLUB

Biographical reports were the order of the day at the History and Political Science Club meeting last Tuesday night in the Library. Glenn Jones gave a report on "Clemenceau" and Nell Titus reported on "Poincaré."

GIRLS BIBLE CLASS

All the College women are urged to attend the College Girls' Bible Class at the Stone Church next Sunday. Those who have not yet joined a Bible Class in any church are especially urged to come. You will surely enjoy the instruction under Mrs. Arthur S. Emig.

LIBRARY RULES

The Library is free to students, professors, alumni, and to the families of the professors; under reasonable restrictions, residents of the city or adjoining towns are accorded the privileges of the Library. The Library is open during term time as follows: Monday, A. M., 10:30-12:45; P. M., 1:30 to 5:30; Tuesday-Saturday A. M., 8:00-12:45; P. M., 1:30-5:30; evenings 7:00-10:00.

Students wishing to work in the stacks, or to consult the magazine files, may do so by securing permission of the desk attendant. Persons who need books outside of regular hours may confer with the Librarian. The seminar rooms are for work and reading assigned to the upper classmen. Conversation, loud talking, or anything which will disturb those wishing to study is out of order. All persons in the Library should refrain from making any disturbance which will interfere with the rights of those wishing to study. All hats, coats, and umbrellas should be left in the cloak rooms. Committees meeting in the Library may have a room assigned. General conversation in the public rooms is not permitted. Books in great demand must be shared, and a spirit of co-operation and fairness in the use of the Library facilities is expected of all.

All books must be charged at the desk before being taken from the Library. In general, no person except the Librarian and regular desk assistants may charge books. Books other than "Reserved" or reference copies set aside for the use of a class may be kept two weeks. New books may be kept for a week. Periodicals, bound or unbound, may not be withdrawn. All Saturday night withdrawals are due at 10:30 on Monday.

Reference books marked "R" are for use in the building only. They may not be taken from the room where regularly kept without permission. "Reserved" or department shelf books may be withdrawn at 10 P. M. Books in frequent use, not reserved, may be loaned "on call." A request for a "Reserved" book does not charge that book, but it must be regularly entered by the desk attendant. All "Reserved" books loaned over night are due before 8:15 next morning. A violation of this rule deprives the student of the privilege of reserving or drawing books for one week. A second offense will be dealt with by the Library committee. Persons receiving "overdue" notices must return the book at the earliest possible moment. Delinquents may be fined or deprived of the privilege of the Library for a time. All books must be returned before the close of a session. By special arrangement books may be reserved for use during vacations. All books loaned during any college recess are due on the first day of the next regular session. Borrowers are responsible for the full value of books and magazines damaged or lost. All books are to be returned a week before the end of the college year, and all accounts with the Library must be settled before students may take examinations.

The Library maintains a book service with the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, from which books may be secured for two weeks on payment of carriage under the usual rules. The libraries of Cleveland, Erie, and Buffalo also loan books to this Library. The Library of Congress and some of the larger University libraries occasionally loan books for special work. New books are placed on display as soon as catalogued. Students are requested to examine their shelves frequently to discover any Library books taken by mistake.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. meeting in Hulings Hall Sunday evening was in charge of the Freshman girls. Cecelia Johnston, the leader for the evening, read the scripture lesson, Psalm 21:1-13. Eleanor Brown then lead in prayer. Lorée McClaren gave a delightful reading entitled "An Old-Fashioned Garden," accompanied on the piano by Emma Snodgrass. Alice Breed gave a helpful talk on how to increase attendance at Y meetings, offering as suggestions special features, pageants, attractive posters, and an attendance contest. Ada Burris then gave an inspirational talk, using as her subject the scripture verse "What I say unto you, I say unto all, watch."

ALLEGHENY HOCKEY CLUB LINE-UP IS ANNOUNCED

Tentative lineup of the team of the Allegheny Hockey Club was announced by Coach Randolph Faries who recently selected the men that would, temporarily at least, hold positions on the first sextette. The selected men are as follows: goal, Dundon; left defense, Humeston; right defense, Taylor; center, Miller; left wing, Morrissey; right wing, Welsh. Center John Miller, was elected as captain of the 1924 team.

Coach Faries' team is still awaiting the support and sanction of the Athletic Board of Control, but whether this is given the squad undoubtedly will play out a schedule of several games.

Candidates are wanted for the position of manager of the hockey team, and all students desirous of competing for the place are requested to report to Coach Faries. The position is temporarily being filled by Alden Humeston.

With conditions highly favorable on the Shryock farm these days, many students are visiting the place to indulge in either skating or hockey. For those particularly interested in skating, races will be held on two or three days a week. These contests will not be confined to men alone, as there has been such an interest shown among the women skaters that races will be held for them also.

INTERCLASS BASKETBALL IS FEATURED BY UPSETS*SENIORS AND JUNIORS WIN SATURDAY'S GAMES—TEAMS NOW ON EVEN SCORE

The well-known dope bucket received a severe jolt Saturday afternoon when the Seniors defeated the Freshmen, 15-9, and the Juniors won from the Sophomores, 12-11, in the second round of the inter-class basketball games. Both the losing fives had been generally picked to win. As a result of Saturday's upsets all the teams are on an even basis, each having won one game and lost one.

SENIORS DEFEAT FROSH 15-9

The game between the Seniors and Frosh was the better played game of the two, and provided some real basketball in spots. Both teams passed well, particularly in the first half, but it was their superior fight and shooting ability that won for the upperclassmen. Pratt and Siedle were the individual stars of the game, while Rhodes' work was commendable for the Freshmen. The lineup:

Seniors 15. Freshmen 9.
Right Forward Salberg (C)
Left Forward Vigrass
Center Kinnunen
Siedle Left Guard
Moffatt Left Guard
Wright (C) Koehl
Substitution: Seniors, none; Freshmen, Fiscus for Vigrass, Stewart for Fiscus.

Field goals: Pratt 2, Siedle 2, Moffatt, Rhodes 2.

Fouls: Seniors, 5 out of 12; Freshmen, 5 out of 12.

Referee, Wagner.

JUNIORS 12—SOPHOMORES 11

An extra five-minute period was necessary to settle the clash between the Juniors and Sophomores. Exceptionally close guarding by both teams featured the game throughout; only five field goals were scored during the entire thirty-five minutes of play. The Juniors played three men at the guard positions consistently, and effectively blocked the Sophs' attack. At the end of the first half the score stood 7 to 5 in favor of the underclassmen, but by changing their tactics a little and adopting a more offensive style of play, the Juniors knotted the count at ten all by the time the whistle blew ending the fourth quarter. The five minute period that followed was largely a question of foul shooting. The Sophs could make only one of their free throws, while the Juniors garnered two, and won the game by a 12-11 count. The lineup:

Juniors 12. Sophomores 11.
Right Forward Riemer (C)
Left Forward Babcock
Center Parnell
Risher (C) Right Guard
Piper Right Guard
Meyers Hobaugh
Substitutions: Juniors, Fuller for Risher, Blackwell for Meyers, Risher for Fuller, Meyers for Blackwell, Hough for Piper; Sophomores, Anderson for Riemer, Dahl for Hobaugh, Hobaugh for Anderson, Riemer for Babcock, Olson for Piper, Babcock for Riemer.

Field goals: Piper 2, Babcock, Parnell, Hobaugh.

Fouls: Juniors, 8 out of 14; Sophomores, 5 out of 11.

Referee: Wagner.

ALLEGHENY QUINTET
WINS OVER GENEVA*EXCITING GAME WITH COVENANTERS ENDS WITH 25-23 SCORE

Producing the best brand of ball that they have played this year, the Allegheny College basketball team defeated the team representing Geneva College, 25-23, last night in the College Gymnasium. The game was fast and thrilling throughout, and the score was in doubt until the final whistle blew.

Judd scored the first pointers for Allegheny a few seconds after the opening whistle when he was left open under the basket. The first quarter ended with the score 4-3 in favor of Allegheny. The second period started off with a rush when Fries caged a field goal from under the basket, and this was quickly followed by another pretty shot by McClurg. Up until this time Geneva had been unable to get a field goal, but with half of the second period gone, Hecker was successful on a long shot from the center of the floor. In the short time left Hecker and Shupe scored in rapid succession. The half closed with the score 13-10, with Allegheny on the long end.

Soon after the third quarter opened Lipschitz shot two free throws, bringing the score to 13-12; but Fries and McClurg quickly added to Allegheny's lead with two field goals. Wild and Lipschitz each caged a goal from the floor and Hecker shot a foul making the score 19—all as the whistle blew for the end of the period. Beginning the fourth quarter, Fries counted from the side of the floor, and a few moments later Judd and McClurg each made a foul. Play was getting faster and faster, and McClurg again caged the ball which made Allegheny's lead look safe. But Wilde shot one from the side of the court, and on the next tip-off Hecker made a basket from beyond the center of the floor, which made the score 25-23. After a moment of scrimmaging the whistle blew leaving the Blue and Gold the winner.

Box score and further details omitted as issue went to press shortly after the game.

INTERFRATERNITY SWIM HELD THIS AFTERNOON

The annual inter-fraternity swimming meet will be held in the gymnasium pool this afternoon when nearly all of the Greek letter societies will enter teams to compete for aquatic honors. The purpose of the swim is to give the coaches a line on the available material for a Varsity team.

Phi Delta Theta won the swimming championship last winter, and it will be the object of the other fraternities to down the present title holders. Most of the entries look formidable; so there is every indication that a close meet will be the result.

The first Varsity meet will be held on February 8 when Allegheny meets the University of Buffalo team in the latter's tank. Soon after the clash with Buffalo, Captain Wright's natators will take on Thiel College in the annual series between the two institutions. Other meets are also pending.

WHITNEY ENTERTAINMENT

meantime Jason has become wealthy through his soft drink sales.

Finally, Holliday and Jason become reconciled with Grainger and his son, when the latter humbly meets the former at the minister's house, and the former brewer is allowed to have a share in Jason's business at the request of the two Graingers. Holliday is going on a long speaking tour and of course he marries the minister's daughter and takes her along.
