

697 East 22nd Street,
Brooklyn, N.Y., Nov-26, 1934.

My
Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Thank you for your letter of November 23rd.

It is to be regretted indeed that you are "not working on George now".

The able pen of Ida Tarbell, which has done so much to awaken humanity to injustice, should be wielded with all its force and power to direct mankind to the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, as proclaimed in the works of Henry George.

With all mankind, standing with back to wall, this would indeed seem the opportune time to learn from a leader, such as yourself, that the doctrines of Henry George offer the way out from the common distress.

Sincerely,

Lerene J. Burger
(Mrs. B.W.)

Miss Ida M. Tarbell, 120 East 19th Street,
New York City.
