Dear Mr. Walter:

I shall be pleased to have you include my essay "The Old Sewing Room" in your Essay Annual for 1939. And the reprint fee of $15.00 is satisfactory. However, I think it is necessary for you to have the permission of The North American Review. I have written them today asking ~~them~~ if they have any objections to the reprint.

I have not seen the Annual, but the table of contents for 1938 is admirable. I cannot imagine a more useful book for a college teacher of good writing.

Very truly yours

Mr. Erich A. Walter
