

November 24, 1922

Mr. Burke,
Emerson Lyceum Bureau,
850 Orchestra Building,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Mr. Burke:

A long time ago you asked me, I believe,
about my subjects for this coming winter.

I really never get down to my subjects before fall, waiting to see how the land lies. I have three topics: 1) "The Making of Abraham Lincoln" - an entirely new address. 2) "Possible Contributions of Women to a Higher Civilization" or, if they prefer to put it that way, "Woman's New Relation to Public Questions." 3) "Industrial Unrest" - with particular attention to the unemployment problem.

Will you put these subjects before your dates and let me know as early as possible what they prefer?

Sincerely yours,