Mrs. A. C. Carlson
309 Park Ave. West
Princeton, Ill.

My dear Mrs. Carlson:

Pardon the delay in replying to your letter of October 22 - I have been out of New York.

I appreciate very much your invitation to meet with the members of the Woman's Club while I am at Galesburg; but, dear Mrs. Carlson, I am afraid it is out of the question. My time will be entirely occupied at Knox, and it will be all too short for the work we have planned. Moreover, if I accept an invitation from one club I must from another. I have already had several, and I feel that, much as I should enjoy meeting the people, there is nothing to do but for me to decline. I am sorry.

With all good wishes, believe me

Sincerely yours
