Second In Concert Series Presented Here Last Week

V. L. Granville Appears Before
Capacity Audience of 900 People.

Nine hundred people attended "a presentation, in costume and makeup, of the principal characters from the drama of all time" given by Mr. V. L. Granville last Thursday night in the High School Auditorium. This entertainment was the second of a series of eight concerts and lectures being presented in the College-Community Concert-Lecture Course.

Mr. V. L. Granville, who has been on a tour which has lasted three years, asserted that "dramatics is necessary in the study of human nature". The well-known characters whom Mr. Granville impersonated were the following: Oedipus, from "Oedipus Rex", by Sophocles; Ergasilus, from "The Captives", by Plautus; Faustus, from "The Tragic History of Dr. Faustus", by Marlowe; Falstaff, from "The Merry Wives of Windsor", by Shakespeare; Duke of Gloucester, afterwards "Richard III", by Shakespeare; Harpagon "The Miser", by Moliere; Mrs. Malaprop, from "The Rivals", by Sheridan; Fedya, from "The Living Corpse", by Tolstoy; Lord Dundrille, from "Our American Cousin", by Taylor; Cyrano de Bergerac, from Rostand's play; Svengali, from "Trilby", by George du Maurier. These many personations represent dramatic literature from the time of the Greeks to the present day.

Miss Alice Spaulding, Director of the Playshop, introduced Mr. Granville and Mr. Hulbert had charge of the lighting effects. Lighting with different colors as well as change in voice aided a great deal in the change of character. Although different clothes were worn and various wigs used, little change was made in make-up.

Speech Professor Is Elected As Head Of Debating Group

A signal honor was bestowed on Allegheny when Prof. Hurst R. Anderson, assistant professor of speech and debate coach, was elected president of the Pennsylvania Debating Association. The election took place at a meeting of the association held in the Penn-Harris Hotel in Harrisburg on October 6.

Prof. Anderson has been quite active in the association. For the school year 1933-34 he was advisory editor of the association publication, The Bulletin. In 1934-35 he was vice-president.

Thirty Pennsylvania schools and colleges are members of this association. Of this number twenty-five were represented at the Harrisburg meeting. There were sixty-nine delegates present.

Objectives of the association are many. The main points of its program are to coordinate debating activities in Pennsylvania, choose official questions and provide approved lists of judges, to prepare schedules of the members of the association, and to stimulate debating in high schools.

The Executive Secretary of the association is Prof. John H. Frizzell, of Penn State.

National Secretaries Of Two Fraternities Visit On Campus

Two national secretaries of fraternity groups visited on the campus during the past week.

Miss Marion Hardy, national field secretary of Kappa Kappa Gamma, who has been inspecting the local chapter, left Sunday morning for Buffalo. Miss Hardy had been in Meadville since Thursday.

The alumnae entertained her at dinner at the home of Mrs. Leland J. Culbertson on Friday. Miss Hardy was a guest at the chapter pledge dance on Friday evening.

While at Allegheny, Miss Hardy met with all the chapter officers and committees as well as with President W. P. Tolley and Dr. Evelyn Miller.

Mr. Karl Moetecher, national representative of Alpha Chi Rho, visited at the chapter house from Saturday, Oct. 5 until Sunday, October 12. He conferred with chapter committees and also held conferences with the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women.

English Debaters Will Appear Again On College Campus

Allegheny is again to be host to a foreign debate team. On Nov. 1 two men representing the Cambridge Union Society, Cambridge, England, will debate an Allegheny team on the question, Resolved: That a written constitution is a hindrance rather than a safeguard to social progress.

The two gentlemen from Cambridge are Cuthbert James McCall Alport and John Royle. Alport was born in Johannesburg, South Africa in 1912. Since the beginning of the War, however, he has lived in England. He went first to Haileybury College where he was a School Prefect, Head of House, Secretary of the Dramatic Society, and Captain of Boxing for two years.

Alport entered Pembroke College, Cambridge, in 1931, where he took an Honors degree in history and law. He was president of the Union, as well as of the Martlets Society, and the Pembroke College Debating Society.

In 1902 he became a member of the Middle Temple preparatory to reading for the Bar, and he intends to be called soon after his return from his tour. He is also a Second Lieutenant in the Artists Rifles. Alport's father is Dr. A. C. Alport, London, the author of a number of books on medicine and other subjects.

John Royle, the other member of the team, was born in London in 1913 and is the son of Arthur Layton Royle. He was educated at Arnold House and went on to Clifton College. There he was in the Sixth Form, an Under-officer in the O.T.C., and acted in the School Play.

Royle came up to Peterhouse, Cambridge, in 1932 and read Part I of the Economics Tripos—a subject which has retained his interest ever since. At Cambridge he was a member of the Standing Committee of the Union, Secretary of the Peterhouse Debating Society, and coxswain of the College Second Long Boat.

During his last two years at Cambridge, he read for the Law Tripos Part II and graduated with honors in June of this year. He is a member of the Inner Temple and intends to be called to the Bar.

The details of the debate have not yet been announced. The Allegheny speakers, the location, and the plans for the visitors' entertainment will be made public within a few days.

Dean Miller Starts Series Of Freshman Women Meetings

Continuing the practice of recent years, Dean Evelyn Miller has been sponsoring Freshman women's meetings Monday evenings at Hulings Hall. The purpose of these meetings is to acquaint the Freshmen with campus history, topics of the day, and future problems.

At last week's meeting Leon Gregg spoke to the women about the Photography Club which has just been organized. He explained its purposes and objects and also gave an interesting talk on the subject of photography. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Grace Ross who began a discussion of professions open to women.

This week's meeting was a further and more inclusive discussion of professions. Mrs. Ross explained 30 or more professions as to earning capacity, relative number of positions open, and steadiness of work.

Town Girls' Club Elect D. Phillips President

The Town Girls' Club has reorganized this year with the following officers being elected: President, Dorothy Phillips; senior representative, Nancy Sleeth; junior representative, Dorothy Henderson; Marjorie Kiebert; sophomore representative, Dorothy Beller; freshman representative, Aileen Dain.

To further the object of the club, to bring the town girls in closer connection with the college girls, a series of Wednesday evening dinners has been planned. Other plans have been discussed.

Alligators Cop Win Over Hiram Terriers For Second Straight

Pushing one touchdown drive across the line in the first quarter, Allegheny's football 'Gators successfully warded off late Hiram thrusts and capped their second straight victory of the season, 6-0.

The touchdown came after the recovery of a Hiram fumble on the opponent's 33 yard line. After receiving a punt the Hiram ball carrier lost the ball after a hard tackle. Allegheny, upon recovering the ball, immediately started their drive towards the goal line. With Clark and Diaz alternating runs, and a pass to Horn, the ball was soon within striking distance. Clark, on a wide end sweep then went over for a score, but the officials nullified the score claiming that he had stepped out of bounds on the 2-yard line. It required only one play, however, to make that distance with Tommy Clark scoring. Blasdel's try for the extra point was wide.

'Gator opportunities for scoring were few after that. The two or three times they got deep into Hiram territory, the Terrier's defense was equal to the task of stopping the Lawrence backs.

From the start of the second half, the outstanding part of the game was the great defensive stands on the part of the 'Gators. With the Hiram backs regaining their tricky offensive powers, it took every ounce of defensive strength the 'Gators could muster. The last quarter saw two desperate Terrier scoring attempts stopped deep near the goal line by remarkable defensive tactics.

Going clear down to the Allegheny six-yard line on their first drive, the Terriers were stopped cold by a stone wall defense. With a first down on the six-yard line, the Hiram's aggression seemed headed for a score, but they wound up after the fourth down back on the 22-yard line, losing yardage on every play.

After a poor Allegheny punt, the Terriers came right back again, but met the same solid defense and were pushed back until the 'Gators took the ball on downs. The 'Gators then got to midfield with the ball before the final whistle blew, the game ending with the ball in Allegheny's possession.

The Terriers made more first downs than the Lawrence men, but the defensive work of the 'Gators was the highlight of the game. The work of Horn, Widmann, Lavelly and Spence in the line shone, while the running of Clark and Diaz proved enough to gain a win. The defensive work of Eberle, frosh back, proved a great boon to the 'Gator cause.

Reis Library Features Special Bible Exhibit

Among the special exhibits displayed at the Library in the past week was that noting the 400th anniversary of the English Bible. It was the Coverdale translation made in 1535. Pictures of the title page and special articles were included in the display.

Other exhibits included those of Columbus Day, Leif Erikson Day, observed October 9, and recent biographies received by the Library.

Among the books given to the library by Ida F. Preston, of Cleveland, are as follows: New Dealers; by the Unofficial Observer; Catherine; The Portrait of an Empress, by Gina Kaus; Stars Fell on Alabama, by Carmer; Voodoo Fire in Haiti, by Loederer, and The Inquisitor, by Walpole.

Beside 300 newly bound books recently added to the library, a number of new additions have been made, including Adamic; Native's Return, War-moth; War, Politics and Reconstruction, Heiden; National Socialism, Gandhi; Songs from Prison, and Seldes; Iron, Blood and Profits.

Kappa Phi Kappa Plans Program For This Year

New members were elected and appointments to several committees were announced at a meeting of Kappa Phi Kappa, professional educational fraternity for men, which was held at the home of Dr. Frederick G. Henke on Wednesday, October 9.

Dr. Guy E. Buckingham was named chairman of the program committee and John Riddle was appointed chairman of the publicity committee.

Annual Homecoming Event Celebrated This Week-End

Kappa Representative Wins Annual Speaking Contest Of Sororities

Catherine Gardner, representative of Kappa Kappa Gamma, was victor of the women's Delta Sigma Rho extemporaneous-speaking contest held in the chapel Friday, Oct. 11; she spoke on the subject, "Recent Military Clashes in Ethiopia."

Mary Calvin, runner-up, represented Alpha Gamma Delta with "The Case of Italy Against Ethiopia." Other speakers were: Marian McCardell, Theta Upsilon; Elizabeth Brady, Alpha Xi Delta; Dorothea Ely, Alpha Chi Omega, and Helen Edmundson, Kappa Alpha Theta.

In her discussion of recent military conflicts, the winner described the Ualual incident of December, the capture of Aduwa, and the Battle of Aksum. She developed a picture of the guerrilla warfare carried on by the Ethiopians, and the Italian machine-gun combat. After pointing out the insistence of Mussolini on the victory over Ethiopia in six weeks as a modern Caesar fighting a feudal lord, the speaker concluded with the question, "Will the Ethiopian shot of the bird at Ualual bring about the same disastrous results of the Serbian shot fired at the Archduke Ferdinand in 1914?"

Dean Evelyn Miller, Dr. S. S. Swartley, and Dr. Paul Giddens were judges of the contest.

World Traveler To Be Presented On Concert Program

Captain Burr Nickle, world traveler, will present a motion picture program in the High School Auditorium this evening at 8:15 for the third number of the College-Community Concert-Lecture Course. Tonight's program is an extra number on the course, having been secured only two weeks ago.

The picture which will be shown tonight will depict Capt. Nickle's travels in several of the many countries which he has visited.

Although little is known about Capt. Nickle, advance reports and press notices state that his program will be both interesting and entertaining.

Capt. Nickle has traveled throughout the world in connection with his work with one of the large oil companies of the United States. Among the countries he has visited are Russia, Siberia, China, Japan, Borneo, India, Australia, Ceylon, Sumatra, Arabia, Alaska, Hawaii, and Mexico.

Various press reports give high praise to Nickle's pictures. The New York Times says: "The outburst of applause at the end of Capt. Burr Nickle's pictures demonstrate that the Broadway crowd appreciated the production." According to the San Francisco Chronicle the pictures are "extraordinary" and "full of interest". Another west coast paper, the Los Angeles Herald, says: "Burr Nickle heard the cry for something new on the screen, and being as obliging as he is clever, straightway gave that something to the cryers."

In speaking of his Minneapolis appearance, the Journal reports: "Burr Nickle, the man who crossed eight hundred unsurveyed miles of the island of Borneo where savage head-hunters and cannibals live, has a great picture."

Officers To Be Elected At Meeting Of Photography Club

An interesting program is planned for the meeting of the Photography Club which is to be held Friday evening at 7:30 P. M., in Carnegie Hall. All interested students and faculty are invited to attend.

Mr. Kurt Glaubach, local photographer, will demonstrate correct picture-taking methods with various types of cameras.

Officers will be elected and a constitution and a set of by-laws will be presented. The committee on the constitution and by-laws included Dr. Chester A. Darling, Robert Muir, '36, and David Abel, '38.

Interesting Program Arranged For Return of "Old Grads" Saturday.

One of the largest crowds of alumni ever to return for an Allegheny Homecoming Day is expected this week-end when the annual affair is celebrated.

An exceptionally large program has been arranged in expectation of one of the most successful celebrations in recent years. Starting Friday afternoon, events have been planned to carry through Sunday.

The feature of the entire week-end is the annual Homecoming football game. This year the opponent selected for the "big day" will be Bethany College, of West Virginia.

The opening event of the program will be the soccer game Friday afternoon, on Montgomery field, between Allegheny and Slippery Rock. Friday night will witness the usual "pep meeting" celebration in preparation for the game the following afternoon. Singing and refreshments will be served for the women in Hulings Hall. For the men a smoker will be held in Cochran Hall in honor of the new football coach, Karl Lawrence.

Saturday's program will start with a buffet luncheon in Hulings. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 P. M. At 2:30 the football team goes into action with Bethany. Following the game, there will be a tea in Hulings which will be open to everyone.

In the evening, the Playshop will give two one-act plays. The first will be "The Dollar", by David Pinski, which is a satiric comedy. The second is "The Happy Journey to Trenton and Camden", by Thornton Wilder, a portrait of an American family. The entertainment is to last about an hour. These plays are one of the series of try-outs for the winter's activity. There are many of these plays given and when they reach a certain degree of excellence, they are presented to the public. Those taking part in the play, "The Dollar", are as follows: Phyllis Freeland, Philip Jacobus, Joseph Macedo, Joseph Philipbar, and Don Murray. In the play, "The Happy Journey", there will be Marian McCardell, Don Murray, William DunLany, Dorothea Ely, and Esther Goodwin. Edward Carney is to be stage manager.

The program, as arranged by the college, is as follows:

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18.
2:30 p. m.—Soccer, Allegheny vs. Slippery Rock.
8:00 p. m.—Women in Hulings Hall. Program, Singing, Refreshments.
Men in Cochran.
Smoker for new coach, Karl Lawrence.
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19.
12:30 p. m.—Buffet Luncheon in Hulings.
2:30 p. m.—Football, Allegheny vs. Bethany.
3:5 p. m.—Tea in Hulings (All invited).
6:00 p. m.—Fraternity Banquets.
8:15 p. m.—One-Act Plays in Little Theatre.
9:00 p. m.—All-College Dance, Gymnasium.
SUNDAY, OCTOBER 20.

New 'Gay Gator' To Appear First On Homecoming Day

The first issue of The New Gay Gator will appear on the campus this Saturday in commemoration of Homecoming Day.

A new magazine of an entirely new type, this publication will be of an informal nature as an outlet of that type of literature and information not embodied in school publications. Humor, of course, will be injected to maintain the air of informality.

Vance Freed, '36, and William Osborne, '36, will act as co-editors of the publication. They will be supported by a staff including Marjorie Joice and Romaine Lawrie, associate editors, Aileen Rockenbach, Phyllis Freeland, Elizabeth Osborne, as feature writers. The business staff will be composed of Richard Jones and John Jones.

An attempt will be made to have the publication appear monthly. Plans are already under way to have the next issue appear on the day of the Juniata football game.

Once again the Allegheny campus will be the scene of an alumni reunion as the annual celebration of Homecoming Day is observed this Saturday. Hundreds of "old grads" will congregate here to take part in the program set apart each year for them. Old acquaintances are renewed, and new ones made. It is a pleasant occasion for all. The alumni come back to the scene of their campus days, review their memories, and gaze upon the changes in the place of which they were once a part. It is up to the student body of Allegheny to make sure that the new things the "past students" see for the first time bring a pleasant thrill as those their memories hold. A pleasant welcome is much appreciated by those who are coming back, and also by those who are extending the welcome. It is urged, then, that we make the alumni body feel "right at home". They are one of the greatest parts of our college. Some we know, some we don't—but all should be extended such a welcome as to make this coming week-end one of the most memorable "alumni days" as the college has yet to see.

SOME DISCOVERIES NEED TO BE RE-DISCOVERED

Columbus has been given credit for discovering the Western Hemisphere but millions have here discovered America as the land of opportunity. The great Emerson said, "Our whole history appears like a last effort of the Divine Providence in behalf of the human race."

But even here in good times or bad a man must keep his "eye peeled" as the saying goes for the particular opportunity which will help him fulfill his destiny. When he has his opportunity he must plow and plant and weed and cultivate.

As care is needed in weeding a garden in order that the hoped-for crop be not destroyed so in developing one's opportunity tact must be used so as not to offend those who are essential to our continuing to have a given opportunity.

To discover America the land of opportunity was a great achievement but that discovery won't lift you and me out of the old countries of Penury and Want and Mediocrity unless we each discover that watchfulness and tact and fearlessness and persistence are necessary to the development of our particular place in the sun.

"Though I'm beaten and bruised
My heart won't give in
I'll fight and I'll stick
And somehow I'll win."

Help those who are stumbling betimes; but for the most part you associate with those who look up and talk up. They will better enable you to GET UP where you can more effectively LIFT UP.

A conversation, a book, or a radio talk has often furnished the impetus that started some men toward an entirely new life. It makes a difference the forces we allow to play on the sensitive plate of our inner consciousness.

A man is a man when he puts away the childish notion that he wants to make a high grade to please teacher or someone else. A real man is not satisfied FOR HIS OWN SAKE with being a 75% success when he could chalk up a hundred.

As he who climbs a tree and hollers!
He who has a thing to sell
And goes and whispers in a well
Is not so apt to get the dollars

Letters to the Editor

October 14, 1935.
Caffisch Hall.

Dear Mr. Hawkins:

There is an organization on Allegheny's campus that has long been neglected. This organization is the band.

In the very short time that I've been a student at Allegheny, I have found that the attitude of the student body and the faculty toward the band is exactly opposite to what it should be. To them, the band is an object for ridicule and a farce. They seem to forget that the band is just as much a representative of Allegheny as the football team, the Singers, the Players, or any other college organization.

The band is but a reflection of the college. If the band makes a poor showing, or is not large enough to be worthy of the name "band", it follows that the college must be in much the same shape. The impression that the band makes on visitors will form a large part of the impression of Allegheny that will be carried away with them.

To improve attendance at the football games, it should be remembered that "college football" means much more than a game. It means cheers, spirit, a band, and lots of color. In short, you must "put on a show" and that show can't get along without a band. It is true that the band has been putting on a show of its own but that show (a few Alleghenians valiantly tooting horns) is a tragedy whereas the show must be a comedy with plenty of pep.

The freshmen were told to "guard the honor of the Alma Mater" yet this same honor is indiscriminately left in the hands of the untried frosh by the upperclassmen who are "too busy" to play in the band which represents Allegheny College.

If each of the upperclasses would furnish as many men to the band as the frosh have, Allegheny would have a REAL band.

The Freshman Class has done its part. What about the upperclasses? Are they going to "pass the buck" as they have in the last few years or are they going to accept the challenge?

Sincerely yours,
GLENN O. McCLURG, '39.

At Harvard they have a new name for the "cue-ball," "Von Hindenberg," "Gene Tunney," (or Tubby Hume) haircut.

Quoting the "Los Angeles Junior Collegian," whence comes this information:

"At Harvard no man is socially correct until he has a 'whiffles' haircut. A 'whiffle' is nothing more nor less than a convict haircut. And they order 'tonics' instead of soft drinks and send their clothes to the 'cleansers'. There is also the tradition that the men grow bushy beards during finals."

Ordeal Of Campus Publication Revealed To Indifferent Public

Each week, The Campus of Allegheny College—an incorruptible, forthright journal of pertinent news developments—crystallizes into impersonal print the inspired creations of its journalistic Myrmidons.

Cursorily, you—the ultimate consumer—scan these columns, blandly unaware of the mental travail and demoralizing anguish which accompanies the throes of literary creativity.

Dissipate a Sunday evening. Watch The Campus staff in all its frantic fury attempt to conceive a logical sentence, coerce an unruly headline, or formulate a lead paragraph. Then depart, sublimely edified.

It is Sunday evening. Out of the bluish haze which curtains The Campus offices, the raucous blare of jazz rasps from a portable radio. The staccato gunfire of typewriters punctuates the distracting harmony.

Copyreaders, discernible through the haze, gnash their molars over freshmen journalistic atrocities. Someone bawls, "What is the legal spelling for Los Camanes?" To which someone shrieks in retort, "Refer to your nearest alphabet!"

Further queries add to the general tumult. "Who won the 1934 Slippery Rock soccer game?" "When is the next C.C.C.L.C. scheduled?" "How do you spell Bousson?"

Middle names, professorial rankings, official designations—all are subjects for wrangling and contradiction until, as a last resort, the college catalogue is referred to.

"Has anyone covered Chapel program?" Portentous silence follows. The editor fulminates about inefficiency, incompetence, ignorance. Finally, the crisis is averted when someone surreptitiously adopts the write-up from the local daily as his illegitimate brain-child.

The copy of freshmen contributors is scrutinized for the inevitable editorializing. With unholy exultation, the copyreader eradicates the opinionated phraseology, puzzles his mental processes for a substitute, utters a maledictory epithet and, despairingly, reinserts the offending phrase.

You watch as the copy accumulates. Rewrites, references, verification, and corrections wield the copy into accurate, readable verbiage.

By midnight, a maze of hieroglyphic copy has been dispatched to the print shop.

Time, as the news commentators would have it, marches on. Occasionally, time may fly—on wings of lead.

It is now Tuesday afternoon. In the shadowed recesses of Dean's Print Shop, The Campus—mighty minion of public weal—is galvanized into being. Linotype and compositor combine to regiment inspired editorials and impassioned copy into chill print.

Then, after the proofs are pulled and corrected, after the cuts and copy are locked in the chases, The Campus goes to press.

With the beneficent indulgence of mechanical causality, The Campus may be printed before the press breaks down.

Then, speeded to its destination, The Campus is distributed to its eager clientele.

The repercussions of editorials and news articles reverberate across the campus; comment is provoked, but the news behind the news—the epic of The Campus' gestation—goes unrecorded.

DOROTHY GRAY CREAM 683

• You'll want to eat it, but don't! It's a luscious, double-beaten cream that softens your skin while it cleanses. Named after Dorothy Gray's famous 683 Fifth Avenue Salon, where it has been used with marvelous results for patrons with dry skins. Its penetrating qualities are remarkable, because it contains vegetable oils...and because double-beating breaks the oils up into such tiny, frothy particles. First Floor

Soccer Team Opens Season Friday With Slippery Rock

Two Teams Broke Even in Contest Held Last Year.

Allegheny College's soccer team will inaugurate its 1935 season Friday when it matches its skill with that of Slippery Rock on Montgomery Field at 2:30. Allegheny and Slippery Rock were "even stephen" in soccer last year with Slippery Rock winning the first game 5-0 and Allegheny taking the second 2-0. Incidentally this 2-0 win was Allegheny's only victory last year and Slippery Rock's only loss.

Inside left Gilmore or W. Shields
Center Robertson or W. Cappe
Inside right Dain (capt.) or St. Clair
Right wing Clark or Hickernell
Right half Ober or Thomas
Center half Barackman or J. Thompson
Left half Shafer or C. Thompson
Left fullback D. Shields or Darling
Goalie Dennis or Hutchison

Of the 30 men on the squad 11 are lettermen there being one for each position and of the 11 lettermen 6 are seniors. This is the second year that Allegheny has had a soccer team.

The quarters on Friday will be of 15 minutes duration with one minute between quarters and ten minutes at the half. The referee will be George Lundsden, of Conneaut Lake.

Little is known of the Slippery Rock team under the tutelage of Coach Archie Dodds, although if last year's record means anything they should present a well-balanced team which will provide a very interesting game on Friday. The team would appreciate your most hearty support at not only the first game but throughout the season.

Two changes have been made in the schedule due to the cancellations by Thiel and Geneva. A game has been arranged with the University of Rochester for Oct. 29 or 30. It will be played at Rochester, N. Y.

"When they take co-education away from the schools, what will follow? I repeat, what will follow?" asked a speaker on women's rights recently at Purdue.

A loud masculine voice from the rear replied, "I will."

Nevins Wins Much Postponed Faculty Cup Tennis Tourney

Charles Nevins, of Phi Gamma Delta, won the Faculty Cup Tennis Tournament by virtue of his victory over Hebard Manness in the final round by the scores of 9-7, 11-9, 5-7, 6-8, and 6-3.

Seeded contestants were Nevins, Manness, Tate, and J. Thompson in the order named. Wellons provided the big upset of the tournament when he defeated Thompson in the first round 6-4, 7-5.

From a large number of applicants what were thought to be the best sixteen men were selected upon their past records and play began on Sept. 23. The weather played havoc with the tournament and did not permit the completion of the final match until Oct. 8.

Mr. John L. Heller supervised the tournament.

Results of the first round were as follows: Goodrich defaulted to Nevins; Shields defeated Lloyd 6-2, 6-4; Tate, who, incidentally, will captain the tennis team, defeated Boyer 6-1, 6-1; Robertson defeated Shafer 3-6, 6-3, 7-5; Manness defeated Weibel 6-2, 6-2; Taylor defeated Way 6-1, 6-1; Wellons defeated Thompson 6-4, 7-5; Dennis defeated McVey 8-6, 6-4.

In the second round Nevins defeated Shields 6-4, 6-0; Tate defeated Robertson 6-0, 6-3; Manness defeated Taylor 6-4, 6-2; and Wellons defeated Dennis 6-3, 4-6, 7-5.

Semi-finals, which were the best out of five sets, found Nevins victorious over Tate 6-0, 6-2, 0-6, 6-2; and Manness subduing Wellons 6-2, 6-1, 6-2.

The cup will be awarded along with the other athletic presentations which are made in a chapel program which is set aside for this purpose shortly before Christmas vacation.

How Do You Spend Time?

In the current "Los Angeles Junior Collegian" is the following interesting bit of statistical information:

"Apparently for the sake of parents 'who really want to know,' a Cornell professor has compiled some more statistics on what college students do with their time:

"1. Senior men spend 55 hours per week sleeping.

"2. Women devote four more hours per week to personal appearance than do men.

"3. Senior men are the most studious, and they spend 9 1-2 hours at the dressing table.

"4. Women consume 9 hours and 30 minutes each week in entertainment."

Saturday's Opponents Hold 13-6 Victory Over Hiram Team.

After two victories and still holding a clean slate, the Allegheny 'Gators will clash with Bethany's Bisons on Montgomery Field Saturday afternoon, at two o'clock, for the annual Homecoming game. This will be the third gridiron contest with Bethany in Allegheny's grid history.

A game was slated with Bethany in 1924 but the game was cancelled because of President Hixon's death. In 1926 the 'Gators were victorious over Bethany by a score of 14-7 and in 1932 the two teams battled to a 0-0 draw.

Hauner and Klezins at the ends will be in the probable line-up of the Bisons with Wickham and Rodman at the guards, Bisten at center, Hanna at quarter, Crabtree and Kinsey at halfbacks, and Mumper, a hard line-plunging fullback.

The West Virginians have already encountered two grid contests. In the first they were victorious over Hiram by a score of 13-6, but Geneva took the second game by the score of 36-7.

The win over Hiram seems to give the Bisons a slight edge over the 'Gators, at least in the scoring department. But the defense shown thus far by the Blue and Gold may dampen Bethany opportunities and may prove to be the deciding factor of the contest.

With no outstanding injuries present on the squad, Coach Lawrence hopes to have his usual lineup in strong shape for the battle with the Bisons.

Spanish Club To Meet In Hulings Tomorrow Night

Los Caimanes will hold their regular monthly meeting in the Gold Room of Hulings on Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

"Mexico" will be the general subject for discussion.

All of the members of the Spanish Club are requested to be present. Moreover, all other students who are taking Spanish and who are interested in this meeting are cordially invited to attend.

Kappa Delta Epsilon Meeting.

Kappa Delta Epsilon, women's professional educational fraternity, held its first business meeting Thursday, October 10, in Ruter Hall. Appointments to the program committee were made. They were Misses Mina French, Esther Parker, Marianna Rall and Lois Slocum. Elections for treasurer were held, the results to be announced later.

CAMPUS CLIPPINGS

A politician, according to the Connecticut Campus, is a man who stands for what he thinks others will fall for.

Prosperity is returning. Students are lending longer pencils. The results of a psychological experiment carried on by students at North Carolina State are brought to light. A class of 123 studied 112 professors for two weeks and then made reports on the annoying mannerisms of the teachers. Some of the complaints mentioned most were: Rambling in lectures, twisting mouth in odd shapes, tinkering with objects, making incomplete statements, using sarcasm, pulling ear, nose or lips, and odd color combinations in clothes. Pet expressions were also noted such as: Follow me? Time is fleeting. I was raised on a farm. Interestingly enough. In the final analysis. Pardon me class, may I say damn? Like an old mule. Anything on your mind? etc.

We wonder if the shoe fits? Any suggestions for additions?

And then there was the freshman girl who took Anthropology because it was the study of man.

A poetized version of the proverbial "wine, women and song" was presented by the Duquesne Duke recently as follows:

"A book of verses underneath the bough,
A jug of wine, a loaf of bread, and thou—"

To miss a kiss
Is more amiss
Than it would be
To kiss a miss,
Provided that
The kiss you miss
The miss herself
Would never miss.
But if you try
To kiss a miss
With whom a kiss
Would be amiss
You'd better always
Miss the kiss.

Outing Club Promotes Interest In Winter Sports, Recreation

Members of the Allegheny College Outing Club are looking forward with a great deal of enthusiasm to a pre-tentious fall and winter program of sports and games which will help put their alma mater in the spotlight of an outdoors recreational movement which is rapidly taking root in colleges and universities all over the country.

Tentative arrangements have been made for a meeting of the executive committee of the Allegheny College Outing Club Friday night, at which time plans for a Hallowe'en party will be completed and the membership for the year will be decided upon.

Fifteen of the 20 members of the club last year have returned to school. This year a great many applications for membership have been received. It was the original intention to limit the enrollment to 35, but it is probable that this quota will be enlarged to 50. An attempt is being made to achieve a balance between men and women members, at the same time distributing the membership as equally as possible among all the fraternities and sororities. A qualification for membership is a genuine love for outdoor sports and exercise.

At present, faculty and students are eligible to membership, but if certain plans mature, there will be an opportunity for select members of the alumni to participate in the club's privi-

Bob Lostutter is president of the club and Jack Hoeveler, secretary-treasurer. Arthur Daniels and Miss Nancy Pepper, physical education directors; D. B. Reed, college treasurer, and Dr. C. A. Darling, representative-at-large, from the faculty, are faculty advisers. These six persons, along with the vice-president of the club, who has not yet been elected, comprise an executive committee which controls the affairs of the club and passes upon new members.

The Hallowe'en party at the Bouson farm will be held in the barn and will be a costume affair. The interior will be appropriately decorated for the occasion, and a recreational program is being planned. The outing club lodge has not yet been erected, although its location has been decided and some materials are on the spot for the beginning of construction. The biology cabin in the woods, now nearing completion, may be available to the outing club until its own lodge is finished.

Allegheny College is not the only educational institution to have an outing club. The idea seems to have originated in the last few years in the New England states. Williams, Dartmouth, Yale, Brown and New Hampshire State have similar organizations. Mt. Holyoke has a women's outing club. Lafayette and Allegheny

Honors Given To 33 Students

First and second honors were presented by Dr. William P. Tolley in chapel recently. All students having received no grade lower than B during the year and having an average of A received First Honors. Second Honors go to those who have no grades lower than C and have an average of 88.

First Honors in the junior class were given to Frank Walton Bailey, Annabelle Broomall, Reginald William Ivett, Joseph Walter Musiek, Herbert Arnold Nye, and Arthur Lewis Vangeli.

Second Honors went to Cloyd Dake Gull, Helena Grace Mumaw, and Donald Earle Murray.

In the sophomore class those who received First Honors were: Alice Grayce Church, Marian Elizabeth Elliott, Julia Ferguson, George Fred Hinton, Jack David Hoeveler, Mary Jackson, John Bard Sampson, and Archie Emil Tate.

Second Honors went to Ross Crates Beller, Walter Otto Jacobson, Mary Virginia Jones, Dorothy Louise McDowell, and William Eldred Weesner.

First Honors in the freshman class were given to Helen Louise Dorworth, James August Heckman, Henry Rex Malmquist, Aileen Etelka Rockenbach, Raymond Philip Shafer, Frances Elizabeth Wynne, and Sam Joseph Ziskind.

Second Honors were given to Mary Hamilton Calvin, Virginia Lee Derr, Robert Bradford Miner, and Margaret Sue Wickline.

Pronunciation Tests For Teachers Prove 'Beaners'

Teachers applying for jobs in New York City schools are contemplating writing a new ditty which will have a title which goes something like this: "The Board of Examination Will Git Ya If Ya Don't Watch Out."

And especially this new song will be chanted by the college and university graduates who hold masters and doctors degrees, for the board has a new pronunciation examination that is a "beaner", if we are to judge from some of the results given in few of the tests.

Here are a few of the new additions to lexicology made by the examinees:

Manger rhymes with anger.

Assudity should rhyme with liquid-ity.

Lamentable accented on the second syllable.

Maniacal is accented on the first syllable.

And, in the field of word definitions, their contributions included:

Noisome has to do with clamor.

Littoral with unpoetic language.

Temerity with lack of courage.

Machinations are a form of labor-saving machinery.

Fatuous is related to corpulency.

Commenting, the report of the board said: "Apparently the explanation of a marked weakness in vocabulary is to be found in a habit of reading carelessly or inattentively, or perhaps in the lack of habit of reading at all outside of the limited field of elementary subject-matter."

are the Pennsylvania colleges having clubs. In Ohio the idea has been adopted by Oberlin and Dennison University.

The Allegheny organization is considering affiliation with the intercollegiate outing club association, which would be useful as a source of information and moral support. There seems to be a great future ahead for the outing club movement, club officials said. For a number of years the youth of Europe, especially in Germany, have been organized for outdoor recreation. Outing lodges have been erected in chains, so that it is possible to visit most of Europe's scenic spots on foot. The "hostel movement," as it is called, has recently had its introduction in America, and in the future it may be that over-night cabins will reach from coast to coast in a network that will serve as the basis for a genuine American "youth movement."

"Which one," retorted the peeved male, "the dark lock, or the one that you gave me when you were a blonde?"

The following are some answers received in a freshman English exam at Loyola: "An inclinator is a person who hints nasty things instead of coming right out and telling you."

A professor at the University of Tennessee was having some difficulty in getting the attention of his class. He said, "I will not begin today's lecture until the room settles down."

Came a voice from the rear of the room: "Go home and sleep it off, old man."

You don't have to go to an agricultural college to plant a fraternity pin—so says the campus wit.

Delta Tau Delta.

About forty-five couples were entertained at the Delta Tau Delta pledge dance, which was held at the chapter house on Saturday evening, October 12, from eight-thirty until twelve o'clock. The music was furnished by Barney Knapp and the Melody Weavers. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. L. D. McClean. Ray Watts was social chairman.

Phi Delta Theta.

About 20 couples attended the Phi Delta Theta radio party, held in the fraternity house Saturday evening, October 11.

Miss Agnes Painter and Mr. Henry Neely chaperoned the party.

Alpha Gamma Delta announces the initiation of the following: Esther Dawson, '36; Betty Lindsay, '38, and Betty Kottman, '38, on Thursday, October 10.

On Wednesday, October 9, Theta Upsilon initiated Selma Koehler, '38, and Betty Snyder, '38.

Dinks Prove Frosh Heads Normal Size

Have you noticed those jaunty blue caps, with their gold "A's" bobbing around the campus riding the crest of the still unruly hair of the frosh?

A curious Campus reporter has seen this phenomenon of the campus and wondered if this year's crop of freshmen were a big-headed (literally, of course) outfit. After unearthing all the available statistics, he came to the conclusion that whether or not the inside of the average frosh head was swelled, the outside is most certainly normal.

SEVEN IS POPULAR SIZE.

Statistics show that the average head size of 73 men wearing the caps is 7 1-8. The smallest cap is size 6 5-8; the largest is 7 3-4. More men wear size 7 than any one other size, 20 of the 73 caps being 7's. Next in number come sizes 7 1-8 and 7 1-4 with 16 each. Six-and-three-fourths and 6 7-8 follow with eight and six caps respectively, while those remaining include three 7 3-8, two 7 1-2, and one each 6 5-8 and 7 3-4.

While figures would be hard to find, it would be extremely interesting (merely as a scientific study) to learn what the average head size of these 73 frosh will be when they are seniors. It would probably be wise to bet that there will be no shrinkage.

ALLEGHENY INN

Corner Loomis and North Main Streets

Allegheny alumni will be returning this week-end to relive their memorable campus days. A hearty welcome is extended to all the "Joe Colleges" of former days. Canes, watch chains dangling with college keys, cigars, and flashy mustaches and beards will be in evidence. But whether older in years and thought, they still are Alleghenians. Welcome!
