

November 13, 1931

Mr. William W. Reed
Reed Publishing Company
Buffalo, New York

My dear Mr. Reed:

I have your letter of November 11th enclosing article on the Trial of Aaron Burr, first published in the McClures magazine - not in Scribes.

I should be glad to have you include it in your proposed volume on Aaron Burr, that is, if your idea is to print it as it stands with my name as author.

In case that you want to do this the publishing fee usual for such permissions, that is, usual with my publisher is $100.00.

I am returning the article to you because I suppose whatever your decision is you will want to keep this in your files.

I do not understand whether or no you want to use the illustration. I could give you no help about this as the McClure possessions were scattered and sold long ago.

If I can be of any further help to you in the matter I shall be glad.

Very truly yours