

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Thank you so much. It will be awfully kind of Mr. McBlane to second me for the National Aets. I think Mrs. Seth Low or Judge John F. Dillon will second me (without any objection) for the Bureau. Mrs. Low is a kind of <sup>or my friend, Mrs. Crawford</sup> cousin (that is her father married my friend's aunt) and knows me and Judge Dillon is an old and dear friend. (His residence address is The Dakota) and Mrs. Low's address 30 East Sixty fourth street.

Should you prefer ~~to~~ come on else, however, I am quite willing.
I know either of them would feel pleased to have you ask them and I hope to have you meet them, if you don't know them both already, when you are next in New York.

I am sorry you have been ill. I wish we could rummage up some Southern business so that you might come South to Arkansas and let Mrs. Crawford and me show you plantation life. Bring your mother and get acquainted with us. There is nothing so restful as the Southern air.

But I fear you are charged to your desk.

I expect to go South next week. My address, after the fourth of February, will be Glover Bend, Arkansas. So soon as I get South I shall think up a story for you. And you can't be so glad as I am, that I did meet you in New York. You are awfully good about the clubs. Remember me to Mr. Mc.

Clune, affectionately,

Your true friend and adviser
Alice French
