Miss Ida Tarbell
% Liberty Magazine.

In todays Balto Sun was an excerpt of yours, on the Care in the American home I get around, quite a bit, from 8 am to 6 pm every day in Balto & I am here to say, your assertion is caused by a warped brain or the recent hot weather Were you a man, two words would suffice, - - - - - - - !

In an article a short while ago in Liberty, a lady writer told all her acquaintance, that women & libertines, except herself & her Brother. They were angels, oh yes! how the Bro did Hush & stammer -- but every one else, were practicing promiscuous love.

You write such twaddle to get paid - to make your living -- but why not give just one or two explicit names & addresses - tell you & such as you, from why!!

In this year, nearly 7 months I've seen exactly 3 men drunk, two niggers & one white.

In wet Baltimore, 800.000 people, 3 dissolutes, drunk. I get all over this City, 2 & 3 times a week, from Charles St, to Locust Pt & Canton, & such squawks as yours are silly, to say the least.

Yes, there is some drinking there always will be - & there are some dope-fiends & murders & rapists - - only a fool would expect otherwise. But, when a Tarbell, stoops to slandering her fellow Americans, then her star must be on the wane & the writing-game on the bum!

I'm sorry for you, Ida!
I really am! But we all have our day. The Rockefellers & Morgans have survived your rotten attacks — I suppose the American Romes, will be able to laugh at your diatribe
