Mrs. C. G. Woodhouse Will Speak To Women

Connecticut College Professor Will Speak of the Role College Women Play After Graduation; A. W. S. Sponsors Program

Allegheny's women students will convene, May 5 to hear Mrs. Chase Going Woodhouse discuss "The Role of College Women After Graduation."

Brought to the campus by A. W. S., Mrs. Woodhouse will be guest of the college May 5-6. In addition to a large group meeting in the playshop, special conferences for smaller groups are being planned by Patricia Van Ostrand '41, chairman of the two day's program. These group meetings will probably be scheduled according to classification and will center about women in the various professions. Announcements of topics for discussion and the time for selected meetings will be announced later in Hulings and Cochran halls.

Mrs. Woodhouse comes well qualified to speak through her wide experience in varied fields. At present she is a professor of Economics at Connecticut college and a member of the American Sociological association. Other positions held by Mrs. Woodhouse include the directorship of the Institute of Women's Professional Relations and acting Secretary of State for Connecticut.

As an author, college students are familiar with the speaker's writings concerning "Occupations for College Women" and "After College—What." Many of her articles have appeared in monthly publications. A display of such writings will be placed in the main room of the library this week.

Men students will have a chance to hear Mrs. Woodhouse when she speaks in chapel, Tuesday, May 6. Arrangements for the various programs are being made by Patricia Van Ostrand '41 and a committee composed of: Dorothy Bence '42, Peggy Fitzpatrick '42, Virginia Kirk '42, Wilma Beck '43, Mary Ann Howard '43, Esther Ebenhoe '43, Nancy Lawrence '44, Caroline Emerson '44, Ellen Boyd '44, Esther Lee '44, Roberta Waite '44 and Charlotte Snell '44.

Pre-Registration Will Begin Today

All juniors, sophomores and freshmen must have completed pre-registration for next fall between today and May 10. During this period, students should make appointments with advisors and discuss plans for the coming semester with them.

Signatures of professors or teachers in chosen classes must be secured on the registration slips and returned to the advisor.

Faculty advisors have been provided with necessary information concerning next year's courses, in order to advise the freshmen fully concerning his plans for the new semester.

Noted Artist In Technicolor Film

Mr. Wayman Adams, celebrated artist, will come to the Allegheny Playshop, next Monday by way of a full color silent film to demonstrate "How to Paint a Portrait." Scheduled for 8:30 p. m., the movie will be free to all Allegheny students.

Acknowledged today as one of America's foremost painters, Adams is a native of Indiana, though he studied in Spain and Italy. His portrait of Booth Tarkington has been acclaimed all over the world.

The film, which is sponsored by a New Yorker, will show Mr. Adams' technique in painting a portrait of Morris Gest, New York producer.

'Danger of School Books' Is Topic Of Next Town Meeting

"Are Our Schoolbooks Dangerous?" will be the timely subject for the Town Meeting of the Air program tonight, which will be preceded by a discussion on the same subject at 8:45 in room 15 in Arter Hall by a local group.

Mr. Carl Triola, the organizer of the Meadville branch of the American Federation of Teachers, will lead the discussion in the local meeting.

This question of textbooks is becoming more and more publicized due to our national defense program. Many people feel that school textbooks must be overhauled, so as to present a solid front to a world wide challenge to democracy. Others, however, see a source of strength in these disputed books, which, they contend, point out weaknesses which democracy must remedy to insure its survival.

Prominent educators and lawyers will discuss the topic over the national program.

New Cwens Honored At Banquet May 13

Newly-elected Cwens will be honored at a banquet to be held as a part of their initiation into active membership on Tuesday, May 13 at Cochran hall.

The new Cwens are Virginia Bennett, Joan Bliss, Ellen Boyd, Marilyn Braniger, Caroline Emerson, Martha Entler, Ruth Hammon, Nancy Konstanzer, Jean Merrill, Anne Rinehart, Charlotte Snell and Doris Traub of the freshman class.

Retiring Cwens include: Wilma Beck, Ruth Brace, Ruth Gelbach, Mary Lou Harrison, Helen McClester, Catherine Cavelti, Nancy MacKinney, Adalou Randall, Jean Risser and Peggy Williams of the sophomore class.

The first duty of the new Cwens will be that of assisting the college on High School Day.

Singers Participate In Saturday Program

The Allegheny Singers, recently returned from their Eastern tour, will participate in a chapel program on Saturday, as an annual feature of High School Guest day. This will be their first concert on the campus since Founder's day ceremonies.

Next Wednesday, the Singers will participate in services at the First Methodist church of Erie. A large number of alumni are expected to attend.

The final performance of the year by the Singers will be given at the Emory Methodist church in East Liberty, Pittsburgh, on May 14.

More Impressive 'Moving-Up Day' Exercises Planned

Humorous Sections Dropped In Favor of Speeches and Presentations

A combining of the skit-filled "Moving-Up Day" of former years with Class Day exercises in a move to make for a more impressive ceremony in connection with senior graduation was tentatively decided last week by a committee of the A. U. C. working with President William P. Tolley of the college.

The maneuver, planned to do away with events that clutter up commencement and class day, would see most of the strictly undergraduate features shunted to a special hour and a half chapel program, Monday, May 27, at 11:00 a. m.

Humorous speeches and playlets will be dropped in favor of the new plan of a more serious celebration. An academic procession will precede the program.

As planned, the program would embrace the valedictorian and salutarian addresses, formerly part of class day, and the presentation of the class gift, the Bentley hall tower lights, to the president. Also slated is the possible presentation of a class flag.

Announcement of the Phi Beta Kappa elections will be made together with the reading of all other prizes, formerly a commencement function. Hobby contest winners will be announced and awards made.

In connection with the program the chapel will be specially decorated, arrangements being under the direction of John Hulbert and Phillip M. Benjamin of the faculty.

Also scheduled for inclusion with the other features will be the reading of the class history and prophecy, combined this year under the new set-up.

Working with Tolley on the program are Thomas Cort '41, chairman, David Robertson '41, William Robertson '44, Donna Ochsenhirt and Howard Gibbs both of '41.

Announcement of this plan by Cort marked the last sitting of the retiring council headed by Gibbs, it being decided that the incubatory period of four weeks during which the new council was to watch the old in action was too long. Accordingly, the old council adjourned and the incoming group met briefly with newly-elected President Robert Miller '42.

The new council again withheld action on the Christian council petition for representation on the body until Stuart Shaffner '42, president, could discuss the reason for the request.

Consideration of Outing club's request for an A. U. C. grant was deferred until the new council could formulate the budget for the next year. The club's request was based on a proposal to provide roller skating parties, ski trips, and joutings for the student body, advanced by H. P. Way, director of athletics.

The council decided to vote on its own officers at the next meeting. The positions of treasurer and secretary and vice-president having to be filled. It was regarded as almost certain that a three-man social committee would be appointed by President Miller to replace the former one-man chairman of such activities.

Sarah Emerson Is Elected Head of Women Students For Coming Year

Emerson Elected in Run-off With Helen Shaffer; Betty Ling and Jean Sahli Eliminated in Primary Voting

Ballots cast in the Allegheny Women Student's voting last week elected Sarah Emerson '42 president of A. W. S. for the next school year.

Candidates competing for the presidency included Sarah Emerson, Helen Shaffer, Betty Ling and Jean Sahli, all present junior women. At the first balloting no candidate achieved a majority, setting the run-off between Sarah Emerson and Helen Shaffer.

Vice-presidency of the women's association falls to Helen Shaffer '42. Both girls have been active in student government this past year. Sarah Emerson participated as secretary of the organization and as a junior advisor to freshmen women. Helen Shaffer has been active on the women's athletic board and orientated freshmen as a junior advisor.

Other officers in the organization election included Secretary Wilma Beck '43 and treasurer Helen McClester '43. These officers will be installed at a meeting of the women students to be announced next week.

Group Conference On Social Welfare Opens Here May 13

Sociology Students Invited To Attend; Will Discuss Welfare Work

Participation in the Pennsylvania Citizen's Conference of Social Welfare for region 1 will begin for a group of faculty and students when the conference opens in Meadville, May 13.

Representatives from six counties in north western Pennsylvania will establish headquarters in Stone church for a discussion of "Community Services and National Defense." As a member of the executive committee for this region, Mr. Lee D. McClean has been instrumental in planning meetings.

Speakers scheduled to appear during the conference are members from various welfare groups including the National Red Cross, Department of Public Welfare, Associated Charities, Family Welfare, Federation of Social Agencies and the Welfare Federation of Harrisburg. The college point of view is to be upheld by Allegheny's Mr. Guy E. Buckingham. His topic, "Youth as Affected by the Defense Program" is listed in the afternoon session beginning at 2:30 p. m. Mr. McClean will preside during this session.

Sociology students interested in attending the conference may register at 9:00 a. m., May 13, for a fifty cent fee. An additional sixty-five cents is to be charged for the luncheon meeting at 12:15 p. m. when Alvin R. Guyler, special representative, Office of the Federal Coordinator of Health Welfare and Related Services will speak on the convention subject.

College students aiding in registration, information and acting as hostesses are: Marjorie Wible '41, Elizabeth Diefendorf '42, Gloria Sherman '42, Phyllis Black '42, Ruth Godley '42, Dorothy Bence '42, Mildred Hutchison '42 and Dorothy Jane Konstanzer '42.

Deadline For Hobby Contestants To Sign Is Set For May 10

Deadline for entries in the annual Hobby Contest is May 10, when those competing must have signified their intentions at the Library. Senior book collections should be brought to the Library by May 15th, and all other exhibits must be entered between May 27th and May 30th at a place to be announced later.

Full particulars will be announced in next week's Campus.

Substantial prizes totaling over three hundred dollars will be given for the best exhibits in the fields of art, music, writing, photography, handicrafts, collections and other creative work. Prizes will also be awarded for the best Senior Library Collections, which will be exhibited in the Craig Room.

The awards will be made by a faculty-student committee consisting of Miss Edith Rowley, chairman, Dr. Julius Miller, Dr. Julian Ross, Mr. Philip Benjamin, Dean Laila Skinner, Dean J. R. Schultz, Mr. Don Murray, Mr. Edward Johe, Mr. Charles Irvin, Miss Blair Hanson, Miss Nancy Sleeth, Mr. Alfred Werner, Mr. Howard Gibbs '41, and Miss Marjorie Wible '41. The announcement of the winners will be made on Commencement Day.

High School Students Here For Saturday

Over 500 Seniors Expected To Take Part In Day's Activities; Competitive Scholarship Tests Sports, Luncheon, Included

Some five hundred high school seniors from Western Pennsylvania, New York, and Ohio will converge on the Allegheny campus this Saturday for the annual High School Guest Day. A full program of scholarship tests, a Playshop production, intercollegiate athletics and other activities have been arranged for the visitors.

Greets Guests

President William P. Tolley who speaks before high school seniors Saturday.

Kalfayan Will Speak At Debaters Annual Banquet, May 13

Arman Kalfayan, chairman of the humanities division and professor of French here, will be the principal speaker at the annual debate banquet Tuesday, May 13, at the Town House.

Philo-Franklin members, debaters, and Speakers' Bureau students will also hear a series of informal speeches and the announcement of the new members of Philo-Franklin union, elected by the group before Easter. There will be five new members.

James Gettemy '41, retired president of the union, will be toastmaster.

Guests of the group at the banquet will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Irvin, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lavelly, Mr. and Mrs. Kalfayan, Miss Ellen Eaves, and Mr. Delisle Crawford.

Officers of Philo-Franklin, sponsors of the banquet, are: president, Howard Beebe '42; vice-president, John Van Strien '43; secretary, Nancy Martin; and treasurer, Arthur Diskin '42.

Arrangements are in charge of Mary Brock '41.

Debaters Honored in Ohio Wesleyan Meet

Allegheny debaters received a signal honor recently when their debate at Canton, Ohio, with Ohio Wesleyan was recorded for inclusion in the forthcoming Phelp's Debator's Annual, well regarded forensics publication. This is the first time this honor has been accorded local debaters.

Students participating in the discussion of whether "the U. S. should cease to oppose Japanese aggression in the Far East" were Robert McVey '41, Arthur Diskin '42 and Stuart Schaffner '42. The debate was conducted in the Oregon style, in which cross questioning figures prominently.

The program was held at the Canton McKinley high school in Canton.

Last Craig Room Program Cancelled

Inability of President William P. Tolley to be present has forced cancellation of the fourth anniversary observance of the opening of the library's John Scott Craig room this Sunday afternoon. Tolley was to have been the speaker at the celebration.

The program was to have been the seventh and last in a series of Sunday afternoon reading hours in the library.

The sixth program, last Sunday, was under student direction of Helen Hilker '41. She and other students read from their own writings before a small audience.

* Outstanding of the day's events will be the competitive tests for scholarship awards. Sixty-four scholarships of one hundred and fifty dollars each will be awarded from the Alumni and Arthur Webster Thompson Funds; sixteen of these Freshman Prize Scholarships are renewable and will thus be worth a total of six hundred dollars during the college course. The prizes will be awarded on the basis of rank in high school, psychological and aptitude tests to be given during the day, character and personality recommendations, and on need. All prizes after the freshman year are awarded on the basis of the student's record in college.

After the scholarship examinations, scheduled for 10:00 a. m., a buffet luncheon will be given in Cochran Hall for the visitors. At 1:00 they will meet at the Ford Memorial Chapel where Dr. Tolley will extend greetings and the Allegheny Singers will present a brief concert under the direction of Professor Morten J. Luvaas.

In the Playshop, "Yellow Jack" will be reproduced by Mr. John W. Hubert and the cast. And in Montgomery Field the Allegheny track team will meet with the University of Rochester, while the tennis squad is host to the University of Pittsburgh racquetters.

The Cwens, A. U. C. and Block A members will act as guides for the visiting students and their parents. The Cwens will maintain information service throughout the day in the front hall of Hulings.

Brief of the day's program:

10:00 a. m.—competitive scholarship examinations in the gymnasium.

12:00 noon—buffet luncheon at Cochran hall

1:00 p. m.—service in Ford Memorial Chapel

2:00 p. m.—Allegheny tennis squad vs. University of Pittsburgh
Allegheny track team vs. University of Rochester
Production of "Yellow Jack" in the Playshop.

Summer School Starts June 10; Will Continue Until Late August

Dr. Frederic G. Henke, director of the Allegheny college Summer Session, has announced that the session will begin June 10. The session will consist of two terms, the first beginning June 10 and closing July 18; the second beginning July 21 and closing August 22.

The session is held for college students who wish to obtain further credits or remove conditions, and for high school graduates who desire to remove entrance conditions before entering college. In addition to this, courses for graduate students are available.

An hour's credit may be obtained for each week of the session. Thus, a maximum of twelve credit hours is available.

Courses offered include art, aviation, biology, chemistry, classics, economics, education, English, French, geology, German, history, Latin, mathematics, philosophy, political science, psychology, sociology, Spanish, speech and dramatic art.

Women not living with relatives or at home must reside in Beebe house. Men may board at their fraternity houses or at rooming houses in the vicinity of the college.

College Aids YMCA Campaign for Funds

Allegheny college is taking an active part in the Meadville Young Men's Christian Association drive for funds. The Allegheny Undergraduate Council has pledged $50 to the fund, President Howard Gibbs '41, announced recently. The Block A club is also expecting to contribute.

Fraternities are being solicited in the drive by Mr. L. J. Long of the faculty. Any contributions may be given either to Howard Gibbs or Mr. Long.

OF MORE THAN PASSING INTEREST is the article elsewhere in this issue in which Mr. Gibbs voices a hope for great work from the new undergraduate council and suggests in passing some of the worthwhile things accomplished by the old.

While Mr. Gibbs does point out some of the steps taken by the retiring council, he does not indicate the important part he has had in accomplishing them. He has done a fine job.

Some of the policies which were put into effect under his regime seem destined to remain in the student government set-up here for some time.

We think immediately of the pioneer efforts in behalf of politics-free elections, measures which succeeded in their tests this year.

We are more aware of the A. U. C. than we have been before. The group has established itself and justified its existence through shrewd thinking and acting.

The Kaldron has been kept going.

Financial trouble has been minimized.

Student events have been well handled.

Criticism has been difficult to make.

Generalities as these statements are, and commonplace as they are, they could scarcely have been said before in regard to the A. U. C. Mr. Gibbs had a lot to do with this new feeling. He deserves a great deal of credit. To the incoming president we wish the same success.

Mention should also be given Richard Miller, treasurer of the council, for work well done in the establishment of a new system of requisitions by which student funds may be more easily controlled.

All in all, the 1940-41 council has done well. It is up to the new group to continue the progress.

THAT MORE STUDENTS than ever before saw fit to vote in Friday's A. U. C. election would seem to show that that group is gaining more prestige and provoking more interest all the time.

We can't believe that 475 students were affected by fraternity politics. We rather feel they were interested in who was president of the council more because his is such an important position in regard to the school and the students than to the fraternities.

It shows that the student body is interested enough in its own welfare to get out and vote for a leader. They are interested in where their money goes and in what sort of man represents them.

It further shows that students here are qualified to have such a powerful body to voice their wishes and run their affairs.

As was brought out at the student government conference at Pennsylvania State college some time ago, Allegheny's is the most powerful group of its kind in the state. The vote Friday seems to indicate that students are aware of this and appreciate their privilege.

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED a letter from the national interfraternity conference which announces a prize for the most outstanding local interfraternity council in the United States and Canada. We thought immediately of our own Men's Undergraduate council. We didn't think about it as a serious contender, though.

We thought back to the Greek Week trouble. We remembered that there had once been an M. U. C. bridge tournament, but we hadn't heard about it this year yet. (On investigation no member knew anything about it). It was to have been an annual affair.

We can't seem to remember anything the council has done that is praiseworthy. It's too bad we don't even have an entry to send after that award.

FOR THE SEVERAL people who were worried about the story on Donald Murray, director of publicity for the college, which was said to be in last week's issue, we beg to apologize. Space limitations pushed the article out of the paper and into this issue.

SEEMS LIKE the best way to get along on this campus is to buy yourself a mimeograph machine. All you need then is to forget to sign your name. In line with this business of anonymity, this paper has taken a new step. Unsigned letters will not be published unless their content is unprovocative. In no case will personal attacks be printed unless the author is willing to reveal his identity.

WE ARE PLANNING, for the near future, to include a syndicated column which will treat of the newest and best orchestral recordings of popular music. It is our belief that some few students are interested in such things and to them we will extend our encouragement.

Deferment Urged For Draftees In Engineering Fields

Sidney Hillman Suggests Scientists Remain In College

By the
Intercollegiate Washington Press
WASHINGTON—Associate Director Sidney Hillman of the Office of Production Management recently urged occupational deferment from selective service for college students who are studying civil, electrical, chemical, mechanical, mining and metallurgical engineering, as well as all branches of chemistry.

Manpower in these fields is at a "dangerously low level," he declared in asking national draft officials to give "immediate attention" in preventing any unnecessary increase in the shortage.

In a letter to Acting Draft Director Lewis B. Hershey Mr. Hillman said that representatives of industry, the professions, and the nation's colleges and universities also anticipated early shortages in agricultural and sanitary engineering, dentistry, pharmacy, physics, biology, bacteriology, geophysics, meteorology, hydrology, cartography, and medicine.

Mr. Hillman warned that "the flow of trained graduate students into these fields should not unnecessarily be interrupted by the action of any agency of Government."

"It is my conclusion," he wrote, "that the national interest requires that students be encouraged to continue their education in these fields and that the principle of occupational deferment under the Selective Service program may be used to assure their future availability to all activities relating directly or indirectly to the national defense program."

Although the letter was not immediately made public by either the O. P. M. or national draft headquarters, it was learned authoritatively that the letter would be transmitted later in the week to local draft boards throughout the country.

While not specifically defined in the letter, it was assumed in Washington that the recommendation for occupational deferment would include individual students in undergraduate pre-professional courses and June graduates who are enrolled for admission next September in professional schools offering training in these fields.

The defense director said his conclusions were based on studies conducted by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. He explained that the Bureau had on its own initiative interviewed "responsible people" in important defense professions and had sought a "cross section of opinion in the matter."

"It is reported," he told the draft director, "that the uncertainties arising from the attitudes of local draft board have already affected the registration of students for graduate work in the professional fields."

"Therefore, it is urgently recommended," said Mr. Hillman, "that the most serious consideration be given by the Selective Service System to the individual occupational deferment of students in these courses, so long as they continue to be in preparation or training as necessary men in activities necessary to the national defense program."

Mr. Hillman said the Labor Bureau would continue their research into personnel shortages and that he would keep the draft director informed of further developments.

Heelers Plan Trip To Warren Forests

Announcement has been made by Bruce Campbell '42 of a special spring trip for Heelers, Sunday, May 11, to the mountains south of Warren.

The station wagon will leave for this all-day trip at 6:00 a. m. and return to Meadville before 11:00 p. m. Sunday evening. All Heelers interested in such an outing will sign up in the boys' or girls' gyms. Names should be in by Wednesday, May 7; only a limited number will be permitted to go.

Students should come equipped with sturdy hiking shoes for tramping through the beaver areas. Chaperones will be Miss Mildred Ludwig and Coach Al Werner.

Speakers Bureau Ends Successful Season

The Speakers Bureau ends its series of chapel talks for the year this week with talks by Robert Mc Vey '41 at the last Tuesday chapel and Leroy Schneek '41 who spoke today on Radio Propaganda.

Verla McDuffy will conclude the activities of the Speaker's Bureau this year with reading of Negro poetry at the Richmond grange, New Richmond, Pa., on May 14.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Alumni and interested persons desirous of receiving the Campus at their homes may subscribe by mailing a check for $1.50 to George Richardson in care of the college. The sender will receive a year's subscription, 25 issues.

New President

In the largest student vote ever cast here in such an election, Robert Miller '42 (above) defeated Julius Raskin '42 for the presidency of the undergraduate council last Friday. 475 students took part in the balloting. Miller's victory is unusual since his is the first successful candidacy under the new petition system by which a junior man may run upon securing 100 signatures. The plan, instituted this year, also was the means by which Raskin became eligible. Miller, a member of Phi Gamma Delta, is editor of the Kaldron. The election was the first in which students here used a voting machine to register their preference.

Statue Caught In 'Draft' Must Leave Library For Museum

"Summer" Gets Too Hot For Denver U.; Cools Off In Museum

(By Associated Collegiate Press)
Art is all right in its place, but when the art is a nude statue, its place isn't the library of Denver University. So "Summer," a modern classic nude cast in bronze by the French sculptor, Aristide Maillol, is back in her niche at the Denver art Museum.

The trouble started when "Summer" was lent to the university by the museum to assume her stance in the Renaissance room of Mary Reed library. She had been there only a few days when a professor asked at a faculty meeting: "When is that statue going to be moved?"

It wasn't so much what he said as the derogatory tone he used that caused art professors to leap to her defense. "She doesn't belong in a library" one faction contended. "Students go there to study, not to be distracted—by art or anything else."

To which the art instructors replied: "Of course students go to the Renaissance room to study. Art is a study, too. And we would be shirking our educational duty if we failed to give our students a chance to see and appreciate the great works of art."

The anti-"Summer" faction, charging she attracted too many students to the library—but not to pore over its books—suggested the nude be placed in the university stadium. "She could draw as many people as she wanted down there without disturbing anyone. The stadium needs filling, anyway," they said.

A college columnist took sides with the anti-"Summer" faction. "She should be retired to a quiet corner—where always the obvious appears more subtle and the artistic more comfortable," Lewis Kornfield said in the Clarion. He described "Summer" as "a rather peasant-looking woman with thick ankles and a fine carriage" who is "standing in the draft."

"Summer," finally was removed to the museum.

FACULTY WATCH TOWER

When Robert Frost visited Allegheny a few years ago and I had the pleasure of meeting him, he very kindly inquired concerning the enrollment in Greek. I replied that it was rather small and confined almost entirely to pre-ministerial students. "Well, you can thank God for that," was the witty answer, and I have been doing so ever since.

At the same time I have deplored the fact that more from other groups have not enjoyed the advantage of the study. Are most people aware, for example, that the American Medical association recommends Greek as one of the three most important studies for pre-medics, not only because of the debt to Greek for vocabulary, but also for broader cultural reasons, just as Latin is still recommended for law.

Perhaps it is most surprising that students interested in language and literature in general are not more aware of stylistic beauties and logical subtleties of Greek and do not take advantage of the opportunity of learning to read in the original not only the New Testament, but also Plato, Euripides, Homer and Sappho.

William R. Tongue

The A. U. C.

Editor's Note—This is the first in a series of such columns, designed to introduce the student to the background and make-up of prominent campus organizations. In each case an attempt will be made to have an important member of the organization do the writing. This week it is Howard Gibbs, retiring president of the A. U. C. who writes for us. Another article will follow next week.

This Sunday night a new Allegheny Undergraduate Council officially takes office. For the past few weeks it has been meeting with this year's council in somewhat of a training period; now it has full responsibility for the conducting of student government.

Everything seems to point toward a very excellent year for the A. U. C. Undoubtedly it is a truly representative group. It's new president, Mr. Miller, assumes office under unique circumstances. In the first place he was nominated under the petition system and, secondly, he is the first candidate for student body presidency who was a part of an active campaign which included a chapel speech and Campus articles. It seems to me that unlike past student presidents, Mr. Miller is really known to the entire college. This is because of his campaign; for past years, in most cases, freshmen had very little idea of the qualifications of the candidates. Your new presidents takes office, therefore, with the knowledge of his responsibility to all classes.

The Campus has asked for a brief summary of the duties the new A. U. C. will have. To enumerate all the duties would take up the entire issue; only the most important functions can be outlined.

From now until the end of the term, with the exception of aiding with high school day, the warming up exercises, and commencement the A. U. C. will be most concerned with the budgeting of funds for next year. It will have to decide how much money should go to each of the publications, the Singers, Debate, Playshop, Chapel programs, lectures, local music association, all-college dances, conventions, class banquets, the Christian Council, the Outing Club and so on. This will be a difficult and tedious task. Many committee meetings will be scheduled; regular council sessions will drag on until late hours. Many times it will seem as though a budget will never be drawn up which will be suitable to all groups. The spirit of the council will undergo its severest test.

But after the budget is adapted the council can settle down next year to the routine, yet often times exciting, task of managing the hundred and one functions of a student governing body.

Freshman week and freshman customs will be a part of the council's duties. Homecoming day will need student help, Thursday chapels must be planned, and lectures must be signed up. Emergencies will arise, although it's to be hoped none will be as serious as the Grove City painting episode.

Much of the council's time will be taken up in the revival of its own structure, new ways will be found to supervise the spending of funds. Economies will be planned, and groups will apply for admission to the council. Next spring, will come elections again with all the problems that arise from them.

Throughout the entire procedure it would be very valuable if the student body could realize that every member of the A. U. C. is aiming toward what he sincerely believes is the best interest of the college. Individual interests, personal prejudices, fraternity and class loyalty, all must be and are subordinated to the interests of the college.

To some it may seem a small thing that we of the student government constantly harp on our aim toward clean, democratic elections and conduct of student affairs. But doesn't it seem intelligent for us to realize that the spread of the democratic ideal in our colleges may have a vital effect on the future of this country?

In a day when democracy is being put to its severest test in history, do you wonder that we of the A. U. C. are proud of our privilege to participate in a living democracy?

The least you can do is to give President Miller and his very capable council your active support next year.

The complete personnel of the new A. U. C. is as follows:

Robert Miller, president.
Ralph Marasco, Block "A" representative.

Howard Beebe, Philo-Franklin representative.

John Van Strien, junior class president.

Guidance Clinic Will Again Be Held Week of June 22

Program Lengthened In Order To provide More Accurate Chart of Ability

Allegheny's third annual educational guidance clinic will be held the week of June 22 to 28 for all high school students and graduates who care to participate. The tests are intended to help the pre-college student determine his abilities and aptitudes for college and career.

The clinic, which this year will be lengthened several days, will consist of a full week's schedule of tests and conferences, one of the best organized programs of this kind in the entire area. The program will include inventory tests and an analysis of test results, lectures, and discussions and conferences with trained guidance counselors.

Tests will be given in mathematics, general science, social studies, fine arts, literary acquaintance, religion, and foreign language to determine the extent of the student's knowledge. Other tests give evidence of the student's capacity for successful work in college, while others measure such essential aids for college success as reading rate, reading comprehension, vocabulary, and knowledge of grammar. Additional tests draw the extent of the student's interests in a variety of occupations as compared with the interests of people successful in those occupations. A thorough physical examination is also a part of the clinic program.

At the conclusion of the testing schedule, the student and his parents have a conference with a member of the clinic committee and discuss the student's problems. Since the Educational Guidance Clinic is open to all pre-college students, advice as to the choice of a college will be strictly impartial.

All students will be housed in college dormitories during the examination period and meals will be provided in the college dining room. The fee for the clinic is $20, which includes the cost of testing, the cost of meals and overnight accommodations and the use of all college facilities. In the case of students who enter Allegheny, $10 of this fee will replace the regular matriculation fee.

Phi Sigma Iota has planned its annual banquet for Tuesday at the Kinsman Colonial Inn, Kinsman, Ohio. At this banquet the members of the fraternity will have the opportunity of hearing Senora Maria Chiunti de Schewe talk about Mexican life and customs. Mrs. Schewe, a Mexican by birth is a sister-in-law of Anne Schewe '44.

Initiation of new members will be the program for the next meeting of the Kappa Delta Epsilon next Thursday. The meeting is to be held in the Theta Upsilon rooms at 4:15. Kappa Delta Epsilon also wishes to announce the election of Mrs. Esther P. Buerger as national vice president of the fraternity. She was elected at the convention which was held at Birmingham Southern University, Birmingham, Alabama on April 18, 19 and 20. Jean Megahan and Mildred Hutchinson were the delegates from Allegheny chapter at the convention.

Quarter Finals: Blank-Haack, McEwen-Larson, Nichols-Turk, Blotter-James.

Semi-Finals: McEwen-Blank, Nichols-Blotter.

Finals: McEwen-Nichols.

The two-paddle boy, Dick Nichols, did right well by himself, and it requires probably the best all-around athlete in school, Bill McEwen, to take his measure in the finals.

The fraternity scoring for table tennis appears in the box elsewhere on this page.

The mushball season on Monday as the Chi Rhos eked out a victory by a narrow margin over the Tau Deltas, The margin? Oh that was only ten (10) runs. The score? 17-7. Joey Nasta held the Highland Ave. boys in pretty fair check after his mates built up a 6 run lead on a 7 run rally. Until that time the Deltas had been leading, 5-4, but they were never again threatened seriously. George Evert teed off on one of Joey Nasta's smoke-balls and lined it over Spear's head in deep left early in the game to account for a pair of the loser's runs, but they were not enough.

Lawrence's Teams Pile Up Impressive Record

Head Football and Basketball Coach Keeps Abreast of Current Sports

Coach Karl J. "Cagey" Lawrence is the Allegheny mentor of major sports. Mr. Lawrence acts as head football and basketball coach and is this year teaming with "Al" Werner in piloting the track squad. The responsibility involved in these capacities demands capable hands to carry out the assignments well and there can be little doubt that Karl Lawrence fills the bill.

He graduated from Concordia (Minn.) College in 1926 with an A. B. degree. In '26 he went to Warren, Minn. High School as teacher and coach but left there in '28 to attend Springfield (Mass.) College where in 1930 he was graduated as a Bachelor of Physical Education.

Even at this point Mr. Lawrence had made a mark in the athletic world. At Concordia, he was adjudged one of the outstanding athletes of the Minnesota Athletic Conference and was given an end post on the all-conference football team. He also won recognition at Concordia when the Minnesota newspapers selected him as all-state end in the sportswriter's poll. His honor was won over varsity contenders from about 20 other Minnesota Colleges and Universities.

In 1930 he was made Director of Physical Education in Midland College, Fremont, Nebraska. At Midland, his teams compiled impressive records and the college athletic department benefited greatly through his work there. For example, in five years of play, the Midland basketball team lost but 10 games out of a total of 71, and over one four year period won 37 out of 41 of their games. It was during this time that they won their conference championship four consecutive years and went through one complete season undefeated.

games will be played on the diamond at the far end of the field, near the score-board.

The officials request that all spectators keep in the stands in order to make possible the retrieving of the ball, when it goes into foul territory.

On Tuesday the Sigs got off to a flying start in the softball race when they trounced the Phi Deltas, 22-5.

Karl J. Lawrence

Allegheny lured him away from his position at Midland in 1935 and since then has been here in the capacity of Assistant Professor of Physical Education.

Lawrence has continued to study in his field each year since leaving Springfield and as a result, has kept well abreast of the progress made in the physical education field. During the summers, he has studied at such schools as Northwestern, Texas Tech, Minnesota and Columbia. The courses have covered the major sports field, namely football, basketball and track and have dealt with problems of individual and team strategy, technique and systems of play. Teaching in these courses has been in the hands of such famous men as Zupke, Hanley, Waldorf, Anderson, Kizer and Thornhill in football; Longorg, McMillan, Taylor and Keegan in Basketball; Littlefield, Hargis, Hill and Schulte in track.

Lawrence is known for his scientific and modern methods of coaching and keeps constantly in touch with the latest developments and advances made in the field. He is an excellent trainer and is considered one of the best if not the finest basketball coach Allegheny has ever had. The basis for this contention is well-founded for, with the exception of the past season, Allegheny cage teams have hung up a better record each year and reached the '39-'40 peak of 12 victories and 3 defeats.

In addition to his coaching duties here in the major sports, Lawrence also acts as instructor in gym classes, in touch football, wrestling, boxing and softball.

He is a member of the American Association of University Professors, the American Physical Education Association, the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, the American Football Coaches Association and is well-known in inter-collegiate basketball circles. He is on the membership committee of the American Basketball Coaches Association and is a member of the rules committee of the Eastern Basketball Coaches Association.

Allegheny Netters Open Home Stand At Cafilisch Today

Westminster, Pittsburgh and Slippery Rock Challenge Gators Over Weekend

Heartened by their dual win of the weekend, the Gator netmen this week prepared for a three match home stand against an invading trio of Westminster, Pitt and Slippery Rock net squads.

Though the Alleghenians barely got by on Saturday, with the bacon after an early Friday win, the team performed well on both occasions and showed promise of further successes as the season progresses.

The first of the invaders, the Westminster Titans, appear on the Cafilisch courts today in an attempt to avenge the 8-1 humiliation they suffered at the Gators' hands last year. The New Wilmington squad boasts a crack doubles combine in the number one spot and several strong singles contenders. However, on the basis of last year's relative strength the locals appear to have a better-than-even chance to emerge victorious in their opening home encounter.

Saturday features one of the outstanding matches the Gators play all season when the Pitt Panthers come to reckon with Alleghenians for the loss which they also suffered at the Gators' hands last year. The Pittsburghers then were edged much the same as Tech was this year by the local racket-wielders when they lost a 5-4 match. However they bring with them a seasoned squad for this year's campaign suffering from the loss of only Kristufek, last year's ace and number one man. The Panthers are known for their strong net squads and this year should be no exception, and with both squads facing each other with several preliminary matches under their belts the pace should be fast indeed.

Monday the Gators again take to the Cafilisch nets to face the Slippery Rock Rockets, traditional rivals of many tennis campaigns. Last year the Gators defeated the Rockets 8-1 in easy fashion, losing only one singles match to their opponents. This year the Rockets are reputed to have a winning combination that should give the Gators plenty of trouble but McEwen and company should be able to garner the day's laurels if they play head's up tennis for the match.

Badminton Tourney Enters 2nd Round

Allegheny's second annual open mixed badminton tournament is now in full swing under the direction of the Women's Athletic Association, it was announced by Helen Shaffer, Tuesday.

Some 25 couples this week played off their first round matches and are now ready to enter the second round eliminations at the girl's gymnasium in Huling's hall.

Final matches will be held sometime before Commencement, determining the champion mixed badminton team in Allegheny college.

50 points toward their athletic letter will be rewarded to all women participant in the tournament.

Cinder Squad Set For Rochester This Week

Results of Trial Meet Last Week Show Team in Pretty Fair Condition Generally; Lack Polish of Seasoned Opponents

With its first inter-collegiate battle only one week away, the varsity track team devoted last Saturday to a complete trial meet. It was a bright, sunny day, and all indications pointed toward fast times, but a stiff breeze which sprang up, coupled with a slow track tended to slow the contestants down in all events. The men were working under still another handicap, since they remained clad in their sweat clothes.

Dave Kinzer turned in good performances, as was expected, and succeeded in winning both the mile and half-mile runs; his time in the first was 5:06, and in the second was 2:16. George Cramer won the 440 in the comparatively slow time of 59.6 seconds.

Larry May, who reported to the squad late in the training period, was a double winner, running the 100 in 10.6 seconds, and the 220 in 22.4 seconds. Don Starr notched a place in the two-firsts column by clinching both the hurdle events. In the low hurdles, Starr, whose time was 15 seconds flat, finished only six inches ahead of Larry Larson. John Caughey, a freshman running in his first competitive hurdle event, amazed everyone by displaying a fine stride and finishing a very close third. Starr and Larson repeated their one-two act in Tuesday afternoon when they ran the low hurdles in 14.2 seconds.

In the two-mile run, longest event in which Allegheny runners compete, Ed Gasteiger led the pack home Saturday in a very slow time.

In the field events, Bill Pierce cleared ten feet six inches in the pole vault event, and finished second to George Cramer in the high jump, the latter leaping 5 feet 7 inches. Cramer repeated his winning streak over Pierce by broad jumping 19 feet 1½ inches, only ½ inch ahead of the latter.

Don Turk, versatile freshman, was outstanding in the weight events as he surpassed all varsity entrants in both the discus and javelin throws. Turk narrowly nosed out Bob MacPherson in the discus throw by heaving the platter 103 feet 9 inches, in the javelin event, he headed George Cramer when he hurled the shaft 142 feet 1 inch. Andy Singleton won first place in the shot put with a throw of 31 feet 6 inches, Doc August finishing second.

The trials on Saturday showed that the team was in fine condition, but also displayed that its members would need a great deal of polishing before meeting Rochester here on the third of May.

The contest on Montgomery Field will be the fourth for the visitors, and their experience in actual competition this season will doubtless give them a great advantage over the Gators. Last week-end the mile relay team, representing the Yellow Jackets in the Penn Relays, finished second in that meet. Saturday's meet is scheduled to start at 2:00 p. m.

A tentative line-up as supplied by Coach Al Werner, is as follows: Mile run—Dave Kinzer, Ed Gasteiger, Joe Rieger, Hank Leitzel and Bob Blotter.

440—George Cramer, Jim Craig and Jack Corey

120 high hurdles—Don Starr and Bob MacPherson.

100 yard dash—Larry May, Ricky Caldwell, and Lee Strong.

880—Kinzer, Blaine Detrick, Earl Anger and Craig.

220 yard dash—Bud Saylor, May, and Strong.

2 mile run—John Caruthers, Gasteiger, Leitzel and Rieger.

120 low hurdles—Starr, Larry Larson and Caldwell.

Field Events: High jump—George Hartwell, Bill Cramer.

Javelin throw—Andy Singleton, Doc August, Saylor, Hartwell, and Cramer.

Pierce, Cramer, MacPherson and Craig.

Pole vault—Hartwell, Pierce and Shot put—S.ingleton, August, Saylor and Hartwell.

Discus throw—MacPherson, Hartwell, Singleton, Saylor, Pierce.

The starter and referee will be R. W. Boice of Meadville, who has been starter and referee at Allegheny meets for several years. Among members of the faculty who will aid in officiating are: Mr. Kalfayan, head timer, assisted by Mr. Tongue and Mr. Giddens; Judges, Mr. Irvin, Mr. J. Ross, and Mr. Beigel. Officiating in the field events will be: pole vault, Mr. Seely, assisted by Ernie Newton and Bill Cramer; high and broad jumps, Mr.

Dual Weekend Wins Start Gator Netmen Off On Right Foot

Locals Trounce Dukes 9-0; Top Carnegie Tech in Tough Match 5-4

This marks the second successive year that the locals have swept their match with the Dukes and the victory was accomplished with little trouble in either match.

Allegheny's Gator netmen emerged victorious in their first two starts of the year last weekend when they first trounced Duquesne's Dukes 9-0 on Friday, then nudged out a 5-4 victory over Carnegie Tech's Tartans on Saturday.

McEwen started the streak when he defeated Bean in two easy sets; 6-1, 6-4.

Caravacci followed suit by whipping Langan; 6-0, 6-2.

Flint defeated Crevost; 7-5, 6-3.

Blank defeated Trovasnik; 6-0, 6-4.

Fauver defeated Perkins; 6-3, 6-3.

Mc Vey finished the singles sweep by smashing Destyio; 6-0, 6-0.

In the doubles the story was much the same as Mc Vey and Caravacci teamed to wallop Dean and Langan; 6-1, 6-0.

Mc Vey and Fauver teamed to win the second doubles canto at 6-3, 6-3.

Brokas and Leuthner got off to a shaky start, but finished strong to defeat Perkins and Dartyo; 8-6, 6-1.

Against the Tartans the Gators found the going much rougher and were forced to the limit to beat the tenacious Scots. Oddly enough, the first three Gator singles players won their matches while the last three lost. With the matches at 3-3 Allegheny took the first doubles match but dropped the second to deadlock the count at 4-4. Fauver and Mc Vey, playing in the doubles slot then downed Gibland and Harwig; 6-1, 6-2 to cinch the victory.

SINGLES

McEwen again started the ball rolling with a 6-4, 6-1 win over Ducker.

Caravacci defeated Moses; 6-3, 6-4.

Flint defeated Harwig; 0-6, 6-4 6-2.

Linkford defeated Blank; 6-1, 2-6, 10-8.

Herre defeated Fauver; 6-4, 3-6, 6-2.

Salisbury defeated Mc Vey; 6-1, 0-6, 6-4.

DOUBLES

McEwen and Caravacci defeated Ducker and Herre; 6-2, 6-2.

Moses and Kaplan defeated Flint and Blank; 6-4, 8-6.

Fauver and Mc Vey defeated Gibland and Harwig; 6-1, 6-2.

Preliminary Run-off

Slated For Golfers

Entering Tournament

All men interested in entering Allegheny's four annual invitation golf tournament should turn in their practice scores during the next two weeks to Coach Karl Lawrence it was announced today.

Mr. Lawrence stated that the athletic department plans to conduct an elimination match in the near future in order to select the four men who will represent the college as a team in the tournament and those men turning in the lowest practice cards will be chosen for the run-off play.

The tournament will be held on the Conneaut Lake Park course on April 16 and it is desirable that practice rounds be played on that course.

Invitations have been extended to the following colleges: Buffalo, Carnegie Tech, Edinboro, Geneva, Grove City, Hiram, Slippery Rock, Thiel, Washington and Jefferson, and Westminster.

Allegheny copped the cup the first year when it nosed Grove City on the final hole. In the last two years W. & J. has been successful in their quest for victory and are expected to bring a strong foursome in an attempt to retain the cup once more.

Lavelly, assisted by Vic Wagner and John Caughey; discus and javelin Smith and Don Turk; shot put, Mr. Ogilvie, assisted by MOE STALLER and Joe Sorce.

In other official positions will be: Al Brandt, Clerk of Course; Bob Hanlon, Official Scorer, and KEN STERN, EQUIPMENT MANAGER.

“UNCLE SAM’S FRATERNITY PIN”

This Cartoon by Milton Caniff, artist of “Terry and the Pirates” symbolizes the position taken by the sixty Interfraternity Conference members toward the country’s defense program.

Closer Cooperation Is Planned Between War Department and Fraternities

Program Includes Acquainting College Men With Draft Plans; Urges Students to Continue Studies Until Called by Government

Co-operation between the war department and national fraternities is taking definite form as the result of a conference held in Washington at the invitation of General George C. Marshall, chief of staff of the U. S. Army. Dr. Alvan E. Duerr and Cecil J. Wilkinson, past chairmen of the National Interfraternity conference, met with representatives of the War Department Advisory committee and the Joint Army and Navy committee for Welfare and Recreation in Washington to work out a program.

It was the consensus of this meeting that the fraternities should make undergraduates realize that the military authorities feel the need of college men who are well trained for leadership and that they want students to remain in college until actually called into service, both for the good of the individual and the good of the army. The fraternities are urged by army authorities to do all in their power to counteract the tendency of men of draft age to permit their scholastic efforts to slump.

Military authorities also believe that undergraduate chapters near training camps can be of great service by inviting uniformed men on leave as guests to their homes, thus providing a wholesome environment for these men.

As a part of the program of co-operation, the adjutant general, Major General E. S. Adams, has addressed a letter to fraternity chapters setting forth the desire of the Air Corps for an adequate supply of qualified candidates for pilot training.

Plans are being made to further interest the 80,000 undergraduate members of the 2,435 chapters established at 200 colleges and universities in the United States and Canada in the national defense program.

To meet the charge that college undergraduates are radical in their political thinking and pacifist in their approach to present day foreign problems, the National Interfraternity Conference, on behalf of its members, has just issued a declaration of principles of democracy. The purpose of this declaration is to align fraternity men fairly and squarely behind a constructive national program in defense of the American way of living; and further, to help to establish leadership among college men to combat any subversive elements which may be found on college campuses.

This declaration follows:

THE COLLEGE FRATERNITY OF THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA, which was conceived in the atmosphere of a struggle for political independence, and came into being as an expression of self-government.

Adheres steadfastly to social, religious, political, and economic democracy as the only sound basis for a satisfying personal and national life:

Defends the individual's right to liberty and equality of opportunity; Inculcates a sense of responsibility to self, to college, to country, and to society;

Stresses the spiritual values of life as the foundation of the truly democratic way of living;

Supports our country's championship of the cause of democracy;

Condemns all activities tending to subvert the principles and processes of democratic government;

Pledges unqualified loyalty and devotion to country.

Freshman Speech Finalists Compete For Cash Awards

Eight freshmen will compete in the finals of the Freshman Persuasive Speaking contest next Wednesday night at 8:00 in the Playshop, having survived the eliminations held Monday evening.

The contestants are: Robert Newell, Emily Gould, Russell Minnick, Leonard Petroni, Patricia Armitage, Esther Lee, Haskel Hoffenberg and Harry Peelor.

The speakers will compete for the three cash prizes, the first, ten dollars, the second, five dollars, and the third, three dollars. Each will present a ten-minute persuasive speech.

Judges, not yet announced, will probably be a faculty member and two townspeople.

This is the last of a series of monthly programs, sponsored during the year by the Philo-Franklin Union, forensics group.

Way and Schwartz Attend Convention At Atlantic City

Athletic Director H. P. Way and Miss Christine Schwartz left Tuesday to attend the annual national convention of the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. The convention is being held in Atlantic City's Ambassador hotel Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

The convention program includes a series of lectures, dinners, talks, and exhibitions dealing with American sports and playground activities. Numerous clinics are conducted each year and the convention draws annually about 1500 coaches, athletic and playground directors and teachers.

One of the features that Mr. Way expects to attend this year is the exhibition tennis match between Donald Budge and Bill Tilden which is scheduled to be held. He also expects to attend the tennis clinic conducted by Eleanor Tennent, famous coach of world champion Alice Marble.

William Tongue To Play at High School

Mr. William R. Tongue will be guest piano soloist with local high school music groups when they inaugurate National Music week at the high school Friday night at 8:00.

This program will be the first in a series planned for the following week in which the local symphony orchestra and an elementary school orchestra will perform.

Agnes Painter Will Attend Convention

Miss Agnes Painter, a member of the college library staff will participate in an all-day program of the Northwestern District Library Club at Tidouste, Pennsylvania on May 7th. Miss Painter is president of the organization.

The program, which begins at 10 a. m., will consist of a series of discussions on libraries and associated subjects led by authorities on the field within the state.

Mrs. G. B. Chase will serve as hostess.

Fraternities Play Host To Parents Over Weekends

Several Programs Held Last Week; More Set For Coming Weekends

The various fraternities are busy this week with plans for banquets, luncheons, breakfasts, etc., to entertain their mothers.

Kappa Kappa Gamma and Alpha Xi Delta will have their mothers' weekend May 3 and 4. The Kappas will have a luncheon at Venango Inn Saturday and a Sunday Morning breakfast in the fraternity rooms. The Alpha Xis will entertain their mothers with a banquet at Venango Inn Sunday. Mary Elizabeth Meyers '43 is in charge of the arrangements.

On May 11, the official Mother's Day, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Alpha Chi Rho will be hosts to their parents. Both fraternities will have banquets Sunday noon with George Hill '43 in charge of the Sigs and Donald Spitzer and Edwin Logan, both of '44, in charge of the Chi Rho plans.

Kappa Alpha Theta, Alpha Chi Omega, and Theta Upsilon have chosen May Day Weekend as the time to entertain their mothers. The Theta's will have a banquet at Venango Inn Saturday. Sunday Morning the sophomores will prepare breakfast for the mothers in the fraternity rooms. Saturday the Alpha Chi's will have a banquet at the Meadville Country Club and breakfast Sunday morning in their rooms. Louise Parsons '43 is making the arrangements. Theta Upsilon will have a "get together" in their rooms after the May Day ceremony. After church Sunday, they will entertain their mothers with a banquet at the Town House and a tea in the sorority rooms.

Phi Gamma Delta and Phi Delta Theta entertained their mothers last Saturday. The Mary Ann McCarty club had a tea for the mothers of Phi Gamma Delta which was followed by a banquet in the evening. James Aiken '42 and Mrs. Fred V. Lichtenfels were after dinner speakers. Breakfast was served to the mothers Sunday morning. The Phi Deltas also had an afternoon tea, followed by a banquet. The speakers at their banquet included Mrs. Joseph C. Faloan, Dean John Richie Schultz and Robert Welday '42. The Freshmen presented a skit Saturday evening. Mr. Hugh Wells of Cleveland spoke after dinner Sunday.

Ever wonder how that item in your hometown paper got there? The answer is Mr. Don Murray, publicity director of the college, who directs his complex little machine from an office on third floor Bentley.

Mr. Murray himself was an Allegheny student, a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. He quit after two and a half years to join the Marine Corps. Cuba, Haiti, and mostly Pearl Harbor, provided him with his liberal education. After that he settled down to a nice quiet life at Allegheny again, and graduated in 1936.

He alludes to his office as the “Loose Ends Department,” stating that everything not handled by any other department inevitably gets around to being handled by him. This he does on a modest budget, “since the school is not a state school relying on sure endowments each year.” Due to this state of affairs, he is careful about avoiding “broadside publicity,” preferring the more subtle approach. Therefore, he has to be sure that what he produces sells and gets results. This is where psychology and the alumni come in.

There is a certain magazine, The Alleghenian, which devotes its life and a good slice of Mr. Murray's budget to the noble purpose of keeping the all-important alumni informed and interested in Allegheny. On the cover of the last issue is a picture of Jim Gilmore climbing into an airplane. This, Mr. Murray says, is psychology, and very clever. In the first place, the picture suggests national defense. An Allegheny student suggesting national defense is of real importance to an alumnus. An Allegheny student with a look of grim photogenic determination and courage on his face is a masterpiece of psychology. It gives the older people a feeling of security to see that the college youth of today is not all Glenn Miller and convertible Buicks. Especially the alumni. And even if just one alumnus, (preferably the one who encouraged twelve freshmen to come to Allegheny this year), is favorably impressed, it means something.

There are other methods, too. Sending out a “different” picture to newspapers, having a widely-read columnist of a syndicated paper include something about Allegheny in one of his columns—all these are subtle, not reeking with “Come to Allegheny.” And they are effective. But the best seller, the most effective piece of publicity, claims Mr. Murray, is the college itself. And if anyone should know, it is he.
