I went to the far-Harvard game at New Haven yesterday I saw H. Deane by 25-0. My first big game & coming home my eye over the crimson dress I saw for the first time my paper on "The Creation of A.L." or ~~was~~ was his game justified and improved I would take L. at 4/- (1850), a well-bred country lawyer & while briefly disbarred.
He had attained what? mainly a perfectly honest judgment ^{to think right} - good publicist but in a moral issue being little-known as Nebraska worse than

1. Difficulty of the question
2. L. thinks it out { picture in red ink "cannot wait - half slain leaf free" 3. Bolts for it - { man in great who finds a purpose - not a superior purpose - but a high moral purpose - anything he can do a full an impulsion in doing.
Birmingham meeting. ^{any} man is great who will sacrifice ^{on it}
Do you realize what it meant in 1850 to be a Whig?
What it means to be a Republican.
4. Fight for it - L. D. Deane.

1st element of Creation finds the truth image of his condition
Power of struggle will dig up truth study fellow & my class for this splendid material was seasoned - they were freshmen - & you know you got the men who will be the great & the great are going

Here & would use foot ball struggle for illustration - the team that holds on - more characteristic - the more apt - more intelligent - more pure - but steady - unbroken - patient - better but you go down as the quidnuncs & well over those splendid study fellows & my class for this splendid material was seasoned - they were freshmen - & you know you got
the men who will be the great & the great are going

L. wait till it is full of self attainment - quite Dispiriting - his supporters only half behind in his Story of L. Did you ever see his men about to mutter - one ripe his head & death in his hand to wipe up the college and a you ~~smaller~~ ~~unhappy~~ you subside your defeat with joy in the future. That is what happened in 188. A great man D. went to the end but L. was a great man. The east said it:

"pull it down he knew - he had made the farmer & the mechanic think - L. had gotten it - right -

5. ^{very much} man is great who can keep the essentials of his purpose clear of all unhappy entanglements who never fumbles his purpose - through his ball - it is the purpose always the purpose.
~~he is~~ after follow the Ball!

L. knew lost the Ball.

6. He played his game & came to the end - grate - frying - unusable -
