

May 10" [1937?]

My dear mother -

Everything is alright
dear - only as I write to you - Abner & Emily
was not in the stamping deal - he had father
involved in a telegraph business when the words were printed - Abner was in New York
for months working
on it at least working
dear father for the money side & that was a failure -

It was all so terrible.

I do not understand how darling Mother & Father lived thru it all -
Mother was so brave & we wouldn't let Father worry any more than he could help & I never told them all the horrid
things said about dear Kind Father - he went to Church one Sunday & one man came
to him & took hands & asked if anything he

Could do; The next Sunday
I asked Father not to go,
I knew he did not want to & he never entered the Church again —

The men in Poland
with profound sympathy
were not members
of Church & never attended —

One of the elders
talked more about Father than any one else &
at that time had taken $60,000.00 from
the Poland Bank — He

was the Cashier - The Bank Officers Ragsdale
 & C. D. Hine Lawyer in Jamaica - Sent Middle
 the Cashier out West & he has never returned.
 The bank was closed.

I must not write
 any more -

I thank God they are away from this world -

The yard, house,
 has been very much
 improved -
 Every room

5

is Taken - all kinds of juggle - thing do not bother me -

I try to be happy -
only thing left for me
to do -

I was 77 last
month -

Am so sorry
you have not been
up to Jan.
Try + be careful

dear -

Wish I were nearer
to be up & live in 4 Ave. London -

You didn't hurt
my feelings - you could never do that -

My love to your family - Dev. truly yours

DW
(Clara Walker)

you have written
it well - & I am always proud of what you write.

P.S. I'm thinking of our good times - do
you remember one
night we were driving
from Lowellville after dark & drove into a Stone Quarry & "Dan"
stopped & would not
move - we were at the edge deep hole - we backed out all night - Clara Walker

Annie Lee Gault wife of Robert H. Gault one of Prof. Northrup's V.
Evangelists. -

Annie was Clyde's
sister -

[Clara Walker]