

Dear Miss Tarbell-

I am sending you the clippings from the Tenure Times, which I mentioned to you quite awhile ago but which got lost among my manuscripts upon my desk. Please do not bother to acknowledge them.

Although I do not get in upon many Thursdays - for sometimes ladies interfere - I get frequent reports from Elizabeth Payne & Gertrude Krenkel and so have heard of your lovely talks to the club, which I have had to miss.

I am still remembering, with keen pleasure, my unexpected call upon you your birthday night and the peace and loveliness of you among your background of books and flowers.

With affection, I am
Yours sincerely
Edith Bishop Sherman
