Dear Miss Tarbell:

I have your letter of March 2. I shall be very glad to see you next week, if it is convenient for you. I feel that there is excellent material for a popular article, particularly at this time.

I think I should have explained that, for the time at least, the Naumkeag joint research has been discontinued as the definite program of research was carried to a successful completion, at a considerable saving to the mill and satisfaction to the workers. I thought I ought not to mislead you as I must have done in my letter of February 1 into thinking it was now in active operation.

Very truly yours,

Francis Goodell (Mr. - NOT Miss)
