EXECUTIVE OFFICES NORTH AMERICAN BUILDING

CHICAGO

May 31st, 1922.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 E. Nineteenth St.,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

I am asking the various offices to write you direct regarding your dates next winter. If you can possibly do it, it would be well to fill such engagements as they have already made for you for the coming season, with the understanding that they are not to go ahead and do any further bookings without your permission. I hope, however, that you can see your way clear to give us the three entire weeks which we want.

The managers will probably write you direct about this in the near future, so that in the meantime you can be thinking it over. We have simply assumed that you would be willing to go out as in former years under our management and, of course, did not think for a minute that your writing engagements would interfere.

I believe the matter will work out in some manner mutually satisfactory. I have this day written the three managers involved suggesting that they get in touch with you.

Sincerely yours,

T. A. Burke
Secretary.
