New York, January 18, 1918.

My dear Mrs. Bain:

Your letter of January 11th has just reached me here in New York. I can fill a few engagements for the Woman's Committee in Ohio, following April 6th -- not over half a dozen, however. You ask as to expenses. I should not expect anything but my expenses after leaving Cincinnati, for this work.

Kindly let me know as soon as possible whether you wish me to come on , and where my engagements will be

Mrs. J. H. Bain,
Canton, Ohio.

Yours very sincerely,
