Dear Madam:

I recieved a letter from you a few days ago addressed to my mother Mrs. Clara Doughman. my mother passed away almost a year ago. I do not know who Elizabeth Hanks was but I think she was my great grandmother. I have made inquiries from my relatives on my mother's side of the house and if you wish me to, I will write you what I find out from them.

yours respectfully

Miss Alice Doughfman

Wilmington, D.

P.S. my mother's name was Hanks before her marriage.
