Miss Ida Tarbell,
132 East 19th St.,
Manhattan.

My dear Miss Tarbell:-

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your kind favor of July 19th enclosing check for $91.90 covering your account and that of Miss Spencer.

In accordance with your conversation with Mrs. Crine this morning, we have written Miss Spencer, as per enclosed copy of letter.

We will advise you of her reply and beg to again express our regret at this unfortunate occurence.

Very truly yours,

Charles S. Leahy

Asst. Treasurer

Miss Edwina Spencer,
Rosemary Hall,
Greenwich, Conn.

Dear Madam:-

Replying to your letter of June 28th, I am requested by the Secretary of the Club to say that we have no instructions from Miss Ida Tarbell to render her a bill, in full, for your house charges, while a guest at the Club, as your letter states.

On the contrary, Miss Tarbell, stated to us that she was greatly surprised to learn that you had a room at the Club, as the guest privilege which she asked, was for meals only: and that this was distinctly understood by you.

In glancing over your account we find that in addition to meal checks, there are numbrous charges for cash advances, telephone calls, telegrams, etc. which we feel quite sure you would not wish sent to Miss Tarbell.

However, if you so instruct us we will forward the bill, in full, together with a copy of your letter to Miss Tarbell.

Awaiting your reply, I am,

Very truly yours,

Asst. Treasurer
