Doing the Largest, Safest & Best Lyceum Business in the United States

THIS LETTER WRITTEN FROM
SUITE 1101-1104 HIPPODROME BUILDING — CLEVELAND Dec. 22, 1917.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
1814 N. St. N. W.,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Miss Tarbell:-

Will it be satisfactory to you if we make some lecture engagements, to be filled by you between Nov. 1st, 1918, and May 1st, 1919? That is to say, the next Lyceum season? I hope we may do so, for we would like to keep your name upon our list even if you will only fill a few engagements. Now is the time when all persons who have definite information concerning the necessity for our being in this War, what it means, and what the people must do to win the War, should appear before audiences as often as possible, for we have not yet fully mobilized the mind of America back of this War, in spite of all that has been done. I find evidences of this everywhere whenever I travel.

With holiday greetings, and sincere good wishes, I am

Yours sincerely,

Gen. Mgr.
THE COIT LYCEUM BUREAU
