DR. C. F. ROSS SELECTED AS ACTING PRESIDENT

OFFICE OF DEAN OF MEN TO BE FILLED BY DOCTOR
J. R. SCHULTZ

At a recent joint meeting of the Executive and Advisory Committee of Allegheny College important changes were made in the college organization. Pending the election of a new president, Doctor C. F. Ross has been elected Acting President and will also continue as Registrar. In assuming the duties of the Acting Presidency Doctor Ross has resigned as Dean of Men and Doctor J. R. Schultz has been elected to this position.

Doctor Ross is well equipped by experience and training for the larger responsibilities which have just been put upon him. He was chosen Acting President during the interregnum before the election of President Hixson and also before the election of President Beebe and in both cases carried on the duties in a most satisfactory manner. The college trustees know that the affairs of the college will be ably administered under Doctor Ross pending the final selection of a new president. Doctor J. R. Schultz will be a popular choice for the office of Dean of Men. He has a broad, sympathetic interest in the affairs of young men, is popular with the student body and has the confidence of the entire college organization.

The Executive Committee of the College consists of Andrew A. Culbertson, and Honorable Arthur L. Bates, Wesley B. Best, Esq., Honorable Frank P. Miller, all members of the Board of Trustees. Mr. Culbertson is ex-officio chairman of the Advisory Committee with William N. Ridge, of New York City Arthur W. Thompson, of Philadelphia, Minor D. Craig of Warren, John A. Gibson of Butler, James R. Mills of Cleveland, Edward B. Heckel of Pittsburgh, Andrew W. Robertson of Pittsburgh, Frank P. Miller of Meadville, Addison C. Waid of Cleveland, and Miss Ida M. Tarbell of New York City.

Allegheny College is starting the new year with an enrollment almost equal to the record enrollment of last year in spite of the fact that the business depression has seriously cut into the enrollment of nearly all educational institutions. This speaks well for the standing and prestige that come to Allegheny College from 115 years of great history. The outlook for the new year is most favorable from every point of view.

Delta Alpha Theta Is Instituted By Tallagewe Group

The group formerly known as the Abuskota Branch of Tallagewe withdrew last June from the Association of Tallagewe, with whose politics the local group was not in complete agreement. Their petition to form Delta Alpha Theta was granted by faculty action on June 13th, and a new organization is now in existence at Hulings Hall under that name.

Charter members of the new sorority include last year's active membership of Tallagewe and the following alumnae: Evelyn Norris Nelson, '15; M. Eloise Wald, '29; Bertha Hornak, '28; Lillian Newcomb, '27; Gladys Burton, '29; Ruth D. Byham, ex-'23; Emma Glanchar, ex-'28; Marion J. Christy, ex-'30; Inez Rich Johnson, '27; Mildred Kerr, ex-'30; Ruth Kreitz, ex-'31; Marion Moore Courtney, '23. Other alumnae have accepted invitations to membership in Delta Alpha Theta since June, when the charter membership was completed.

BAND IS REORGANIZED; REHEARSAL TUESDAY

Following the first band practice of the year held on last Tuesday afternoon, Prof. Luvaas predicted a highly successful year for the rejuvenated organization which has represented Allegheny in such a lax fashion in the past. About forty men reported for the first meeting. In itself a gain over last year, while several more men have expressed intentions of participating. Probably a few girls will be found in the corps this term. For the present, the band will concentrate on drilling and playing marches for the football games, but Prof. Luvaas hopes to work up a concert band as soon as possible. As the musical department has charge of the radio broadcasts on every Thursday and a portion of Sunday afternoon, the concert band is expected to furnish much of the entertainment on these days. As positions are still open in the band all students who can play a band instrument are urged to attend the next rehearsal on Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock. To correctly balance the band more clarinets, trumpets, and horns are needed to fill out these respective sections.

Miss Bess Jeffrey, '22, was the exchange teacher from Cleveland last year.

Music Courses Added As Part of Regular College Curriculum

For the first time in her history, Allegheny College this year has a department of music in the college curriculum. This course already seems to be gaining in popularity among the student body judging from the enthusiasm of those enrolled in classes in this department. These courses aim to develop in the student a keen desire and appreciation for the art of music even if such has been neglected for many years. Thus the course is open not only to those who are competing for some musical organization, but to all students who realize that a deep appreciation of music is a worthwhile aid to better everyday life.

Five courses in this department are open to the student body. These are "Elementary Harmony and Ear Training," "Harmony," "Counterpoint," "History of Music" and "The Appreciation of Music." The fundamentals of music are gone into thoroughly and, in addition, these courses aim also to develop a keen ability to listen intelligently to various types of music. Criticisms, both good and bad, are entered upon freely and the students are given methods by which all music may be studied critically although not harshly.

In addition to these courses, further college credit may be secured by students who, in addition to taking courses in the new department, are members of some college musical organization. Thus any student who is a member of any musical or vocal organization will receive additional credit on the basis of one credit for each two hours of rehearsal, providing that he is enrolled in the Department of Music. However a student may not earn more than two credits a year in this manner.

Prof. M. J. Luvaas, of Erie, Pa., has been greatly responsible in having this new department instituted and organized. Prof. Luvaas first came to Allegheny College in the capacity of Glee Club Director three years ago, and has done much to stimulate student interest in the musical organizations of the school and to increase the popularity of the Women's and Men's Glee Clubs, since that time.

Speaking Contest Is Scheduled To Take Place on Wednesday

Plans have practically been completed for the annual Extemporaneous Speaking contest held each year in Ford Memorial Chapel, sponsored by Delta Sigma Rho, national honorary forensic fraternity. The contest is open to all those who are not members of Delta Sigma Rho, or who have not won the contest in any previous year. The date for the first half of the contest has been set for Wednesday, October first, at which time the representatives of the men's fraternities will compete. The latter part of the contest will be held the following Monday, October sixth, when the women representatives will vie for honors.

Several changes have been made in the manner in which this year's contest will be conducted. Last year for the first time women were taken into the organization of Delta Sigma Rho, and as a result of that action, provision has been made for the women of the college to compete in this year's speaking contest. The women will speak at a different time than that of the men, but the general topic for the two groups will be the same. A silver loving cup will be presented to the organization represented by the winning speaker. At the present time the cup has been won by four different fraternities, Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Delta Theta, Delta Tau Delta, and Alpha Chi Rho, but must be held by some one organization three times before it becomes the permanent possession of that group.

The general topic for this year's contest will be "Our School." From this general topic sub-topics will be selected by the committee of judges selected for the contest, comprised of Dr. S. S. Swartley, Dr. Julian Ross, and Professor Hurst Anderson. The men will be given forty minutes to prepare a three minute talk on the subject assigned to them; the women will be given one hour in which to prepare their talk of three minutes. Representatives for the contest have been selected by the various organizations on the campus, but the results of these selections have not as yet been reported.

ALUMNI !!

Work on the new Alumni Register is progressing, but it is a tremendous task to assemble the names, occupations, and addresses of over 2500 graduates, and more than twice that many non-graduates, and to arrange an alphabetical, a geographical, and a class list of these names.

There is still time to bring all data up to date. Former students are urged to send in at once to the Alumni Office any information that may be helpful in the completion of this new Register.

ACTING PRESIDENT DR. C. F. ROSS

WORK HAS STARTED ON LIBRARY ENLARGEMENT

FACILITIES FOR STUDY WILL BE MAINTAINED DURING THIS PERIOD

About two weeks ago excavating was begun for the addition to Reis Memorial Library. Five trucks were seen carrying the soil away from the busy steam shovel to various places about the campus and city where it could be used. This work of scooping out the earth is now finished, leaving a space eighty-five feet long, forty feet wide and nearly ten feet deep. The foundations will be laid soon and the actual building processes rushed so that the business of tearing out the present main reading room may be done during the Christmas recess. Thus there will be no interruption to students although the entire enlargement of the building is not expected to be completed until late Spring.

The new addition will be a two-story structure similar in design and size to the front portion of the present library. Entrance will be made through the main lobby where a large circular marble stairway will lead up and over the present first floor stacks. Adjacent to this large room will be located reference books. An attractive mezzanine will further enhance this spacious sanctum of study. The beautiful paneled ceiling will be well equipped with electrical fixtures to give the best reading facilities at night, while during the day long windows set in heavy casements will permit plenty of light to enter the room. The first floor of the new edifice besides containing stacks will be partially divided along the north and east sides into twenty cubicles or private reading rooms. This is the very latest in library architecture and is designed primarily for the use of upperclassmen in special assignments and research.

The basement of the entire building will be large and commodious allowing ample space for lavatories and cloak rooms.

The new extension to the Library will more than double the present amount of room for books making a total capacity of one hundred seventy-five thousand volumes. This will not only eliminate cramped conditions but will also give greater possibilities for increasing the number of volumes. There are approximately seventy-seven thousand printed productions contained in the Library at the present time.

It is through the generosity of William E. Reis of Pasadena, California, the donor of Reis Memorial Library as it is now, that this new sixty thousand dollar additional project is made possible.

C. E. Hammett, Jr., '25, received his degree in law from Harvard University last June and is now associated with the patent law firm of Fish, Richardson, & Neave, Boston, Mass., one of the very old law firms of the country.

ALLEGHENY BROADCASTS OVER STATION WLBW

HALF HOUR PROGRAMS TO BE GIVEN DAILY BY SCHOOL
DEPARTMENTS

Through the courtesy of Station WLBW, located at Oil City, Allegheny now broadcasts a daily program over the radio.

The old Student Playshop on the third floor of Bentley Hall serves as a main studio. Pickup points are located in the Chapel, Little Theatre, gymnasium, and stadium. "The Allegheny Hour," as it is known, is broadcast on weekdays from 3:00 to 3:30 P. M., and on Sundays from 4:00 to 4:30, Eastern Standard Time.

Programs include lectures by members of the faculty, talks by alumni and distinguished visiting speakers, organ recitals and musical programs by school talent, and other programs of like nature.

Dr. Schultz spoke Monday on the poems of Vachel Lindsay; Dr. Beller gave an address on Tuesday on "The Factory System in Education." Miss Helen Murray, a graduate of Allegheny, will speak this afternoon on "The New Day in Rural Mexico." Miss Murray has spent a number of years in the missionary field in South America and has been studying for some time in Mexico.

In order to make the hour as much Allegheny's as possible, announcers and technicians have been selected from the student body. The announcers are John Werle, John Underwood, and William Boetcker. The technician is Otis Carpenter.

For the next five days the schedule is as follows:

Wednesday, Miss Murray, "The New Day in Rural Mexico."

Thursday, Musical Program, Professor Luvaas.

Friday, Dr. Henke, "Modern Psychology."

Saturday, Dr. Woodring, "Current History."

Sunday, Dean Ross, "Ideals of a Liberal Arts College."

About October 15, the radio committee will print programs for the entire semester. This committee consists of Dr. Church, chairman; Dr. Schultz, and Professors McClean, Luvaas, and Benjamin.

REPAIR WORK DONE ON BUILDINGS THIS SUMMER

Allegheny's campus is dressed in its usual autumn best, after the summer's rest from wear and tear, and as the result of the usual housecleaning done in the hot months by the college authorities.

Old Bentley in particular finds new dignity in its resplendent coat of paint, and odd jobs on other buildings have helped appearances materially. Behind the library, work is now well under way on the long-delayed addition made possible through the generosity of William Reis. The tennis courts are about ready for play, and will no doubt be opened this week. Indoor renovations are especially noteworthy in Hulings Hall, where the college has provided new dressers in the rooms and replaced the furnishings in one of the front parlors.

New Teachers Are Added To Faculty Of Present Year

Seven new professors and instructors have been added to the faculty of Allegheny College during the Summer and all have reported to the college to assume their new responsibilities. Many members of the faculty have spent the Summer travelling and studying, with several remaining abroad during the present school year.

With the creation of a department of music in the college, Morton J. Luvaas, B. Mus., was elected head of the department as Professor of Music. Mr. Luvaas obtained his B. S. degree from St. Olaf College in 1919 and A. B. Mus. degree after studying in Leipzig, Germany, in 1921-23. He comes to Allegheny College from Academy High School, Erie, where he was director of musical education.

H. Paul Way, A. B., of Springfield, Mass., has been elected Assistant Professor of Physical Education to assist in that department during the absence of Coach C. E. Hammett. Mr. Way attended Springfield College at Springfield, Mass., and obtained his degree in 1929. During the past year he was supervisor of physical education in the public schools at Lewistown, Pa.

William McDermott, M. A., of Carlisle, Pa., is instructor in Latin. Mr. McDermott graduated from Dickinson College and received his M. A. degree at Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore. He comes to Allegheny College from his studies at Baltimore and fills the vacancy left by the resignation of J. S. Callaway.

During the absence of William A. Elliott, Professor of Greek, during the coming year, Philip W. Harsh will assist in that department as instructor in Greek. Mr. Harsh, whose home is in Nashville, Tenn., attended Wayland Academy at Beaver Dam, Wis., and took both undergraduate and graduate work at the University of Chicago. He received his A. B. degree in 1928 and his A. M. degree in 1930.

Robert H. Nesbitt, A. M., is instructor in Biology and Geology and fills the vacancy caused by the absence of assistant Professor Dale E. Thomas, who is doing graduate work this year.

Mrs. Meno Spann, Ph.D., comes to Allegheny from Cornell University, where she acted as reader in the department of German, since her arrival in this country in 1928. Dr. Spann attended the University of Berlin and the University at Merburg where she obtained her Ph.D. degree. She is filling the vacancy caused by the absence of Miss Erika Meyer, who is doing graduate work at the University of Wisconsin.

Arthur Colley, A. B., a former student of the college, has returned as Instructor in Bible and English Language. Miss Thelma Karlen, also a former student, is back at the college as assistant to the librarian.

Professor Hammett's Condition Reported As Being Improved

When the college and the many friends of Coach C. E. Hammett, more commonly known to the students as "Smiling Charlie," heard that he had been stricken on June 7, 1930 with a paralytic stroke, they were very greatly shocked. Although everyone knew that he had been working hard and had had a great responsibility on his shoulders during last year, no one had suspected that he was not in the best of health. The stroke came as the direct result of a cerebral hemorrhage. Coach Hammett spent several weeks in the hospital in very poor condition, but he is now able to be about. During the past week he was well enough to enjoy several automobile rides. His many friends throughout the student body and the faculty are hoping that he has a speedy recovery from now on and that he will soon be back in our midst.

GILL AND TWINING ARE ELECTED AS TRUSTEES

On Commencement Day, June 10, 1930, Charles W. Gill, '07, present mayor of Meadville and William S. Twining, Engineering, '27, A. B. of Ambler, Pennsylvania and Fort Myers, Florida, were elected by the Alumni of Allegheny College to be the Alumni members of the Board of Trustees. Mr. Gill will take the place of Mr. Karl A. Miller while Mr. Twining will succeed himself. The two new trustees will take office at the beginning of the new year.

Managerial Competition

All freshman and sophomore men who are interested in competing for the managerial positions of the College publications meet in Bentley 14 Thursday, September 25, at 1:45 o'clock.

ADMINISTRATION

With the opening of another school year there comes a favorably accepted, yet unexpected, change of administration of Allegheny College. We concede that it is no slight task to carefully and wisely select a leader for an educational institution, and we heartily commend those into whose hands the selection of a leader has been entrusted for the action they have just taken.

Doctor C. F. Ross has proven himself in the capacity of Acting President at two previous times. He is wise in his administrations, a crusader for the cause of the College, and a friend to all persons named with the school.

Dr. J. R. Schultz is new to us in the Dean's chair, but our past associations with him on the campus give us an assurance and enthusiasm that compels us to feel that he will maintain the confidence of those with whom he may come in contact, and that he will capably fulfill the duties of that office.

We greet our Acting President and new Dean of Men with congratulations on having been selected to take on the responsibilities of these two offices, and to them we submit our loyal cooperation.

INTERFRATERNITY PROBLEM

The annual scramble of the fraternities for pledges resembles nothing so much as the freshman shoe rush. Each fraternity elbows the rest in an effort to emerge from the fracas with the most and best pledges. Those fraternities using the most ruthless tactics are often the most successful. As a result of this system of rushing, to the freshman in his first week the fraternity looms larger than the college. The newcomer gets no chance to view the fraternities in their true light; for there is much posing during the pledging season. Neither do the fraternities feel sure of the pledge's quality. Too many hasty decisions are made, to be repented of at leisure. Inter-fraternity friction and inter-fraternity dissension are engendered.

We think it about time to try some reforms. There is a good chance for the success of deferred pledging. In support of deferred pledging we would submit a few facts gleaned from the report of the Committee on Deferred Pledging to the Inter-fraternity Conference of nineteen twenty-nine. In reply to a questionnaire, forty-eight institutions reported that they had deferred pledging. The majority of these institutions highly recommended the system. In the schools reporting favorably, pledging was deferred until periods varying from three weeks after the beginning of the fall term until mid-semester.

The most common methods of compelling the college groups to adhere to deferred rushing are through inter-fraternity councils or faculty committees. We are not primarily interested in what method of enforcement is used, but we are vehement in our plea for the trial of new rushing regulations with the backing of some responsible council or committee.

INTRA-MURAL ATHLETICS

Athletics in 1930 should again attract the interest of Allegheny's students. In the last few years inter-collegiate athletics and its surrounding officials at this institution have been the cause of much wrangling, growling, and a general bad morale. Interest should be of a different form this year, however,—one which has that pep and vigor found only in the young man looking forward to a competitive sport. With the addition to the faculty in the physical education department, the men of the College will be presented an extensive program of intra-mural sports for their participation. Feeling toward intra-murals has not been what it should be in a college of this size, but with the arrangements that are being made, every man at Allegheny should find some sport that he likes and in which he is willing to compete with others.

In the past a good portion of the intra-mural athletics has been between fraternities, who often times only entered the sports in which they felt that they had an excellent chance of winning first place. This year an effort is being made to get every man entered in some sport. The inter-fraternity athletics that have been held before will again be found on the roster, but along with them will be found several sports new to Allegheny's students. A point system which will result in a cup

THE SCRUBBING BRUSH

No! readers! another college year is not beginning—it has begun. Already the various organizations of brotherly love and affection are carefully stowing away their leaden pipes and amidst the lifting smoke of battle are trying to count their victims.

And now the freshmen enter their college daze.

One freshman lassie, whom our kind-heartedness prevents us from naming, upon seeing a group of Robin-Hooded Cwens exclaimed, "Look at the darling freshman hats."

But don't you think Doc Myford has gone just a bit too far in hinting to the college boys that he is not running a night club?

Miniature golf has temporarily solved the social problem, but what will happen when winter comes?

A co-ed, to Paul Siple at the Cochran Hall Free-for-All: "My, but don't you find it warm in here."

Another semester! registration has gone by, but no one has yet been able to pick a lock on the faculty mail boxes.

The All-College Tuesday night was a big success. Chuck Roast, from Meadville, put on a hog-calling contest during the intermission. More people were on the floor after intermission than before.

The new radio broadcasting system has ushered in both confusions and benefits. One of the freshman girls, hearing in Chapel that Arter Hall was one of the pickup points, reported there for her date the next night. As for the benefits, we can now take our 8 o'clock classes in bed. To cut class, merely call up the broadcasting station and say, "Guess who this is!"

The freshmen are still in the "when I was in High School" stage. How long, O Lord, how long?

It might be a good thing to inform the freshmen that the library floor is perfectly solid and strong. It might relieve the nervousness they seem to feel lest they tread too heavily and crash through.

At the Y. dance, it is said, a freshman had the audacity to ask whether men were ever allowed to go into Hulings Hall. Not so you can notice!

Did you see the freshman who walked to the bookstore window and asked for a "synthesis" of English Language? Well, why doesn't someone write one?

for the fraternity that makes the best all-around athletic showing is to be worked out so that it will be possible for a fraternity to win the cup without taking first place in any one sport.

It is plain to see that the College authorities want every man who has any interest in his college, his fraternity, or his own well-being to get his spirit of competition aroused and to get out and find his forte. The College is willing and is ready to spend money in order to give all its men the benefit of athletics which have been centered on twenty-five or fifty heretofore. Are you as men going to sit back and say "I am no good—let someone else do it"? No! Every man at Allegheny from now on must show himself to be a "good sport"; to take his winnings calmly and his losings with congratulations for the winner. 1930 must be an outstanding year for intra-mural sports if they are to stay. Go out for some sport, derive its benefits, and keep intra-murals here for the students who are to follow!

Cross Country Men Are Training Hard To Uphold Records

With Jack Worrall coaching the squad in the absence of Coach Hammett, Allegheny starts training for another cross-country season.

Lack of veteran material will prove a great handicap for the harriers for the forthcoming season. Loss of three outstanding men—Captain Dreibelbis, Captain-elect Rockey and Gil Minnis will certainly be keenly felt. The burden of competition will fall on the four remaining men of the '29 squad, Worrall, Ish, Beiler, and Marks.

A large squad of new men answered the call at the beginning of the season; at present there are, besides the regulars, about fifteen freshmen and a few upper-classmen. That gives promise for future seasons, but a cross-country man is rarely developed the first year. However, the list contains a few men with high school or prep school experience who may be place-winners later in the season.

At present, there are three meets scheduled. Westminster is to be met on October 1, Pitt on October 11, and Geneva on November 21, all away from home. Manager Jimmy Hamilton is communicating with neighboring schools for other meets to round out the schedule.

Allegheny has a reputation to uphold as a cross-country school. Due in no small part to the coaching ability of C. E. Hammett, only one meet has been lost in four years of competition—that with Pitt last year. Coach Hammett, recovering from an illness, is on a year's leave of absence, and both coaching and managing of the squad have been put into the hands of the students.

WUXTRY! WUXTRY! WUXTRY!

All about the big endurance test on the campus! Police in the Biology building heartily disapprove! Say entrant is not physically strong enough to go through with it! Chief Magistrate Darling gets out an injunction to stop it!

A baby terrapin in the Biology building decided to try out his endurance for a long distance crawl. The starting point was set at the right side of the Biology lecture room. From there, the course lay one-third of the distance across the room to the lecture table. Then perpendicularly down the room the terrapin mooched along. He was allowed frequent rest periods during which he seemed content to scrutinize the surrounding scenery. After an hour of this exhausting labor, he was examined and pronounced physically unfit to go on with it. Weeping bitter tears of disappointment, he was led back to his home in the state of inertia. He says that he will make the effort again, but did not set a definite date.

Two fraternity parties and an All-College at Cochran Hall opened the fall social season last week. The annual Y. M. Y. W. Reception was held on Tuesday evening with the music being furnished by four Allegheny students. The Phi Kappa Delta and Beta Kappa Pledge Party on Saturday night officially started the fraternity pledge dances, since the Y. M. Y. W. Reception was not given the usual late party permission. Three more dances are on the social calendar for this week, Sigma Alpha Epsilon entertaining on Friday evening and Alpha Chi Rho and Delta Tau Delta on the following night. As yet no plans have been made public for the usual All-College Dances to follow the home football games.

The incoming Freshmen of the college were entertained at a get-together dance Tuesday evening, September 16th. The Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. sponsored the dance and additional credit should be given to the committee in charge. The first dance was to get the fellows and girls acquainted, and after that all dances were tag-dances. This proved an easy way to get acquainted, and before the evening was over the Freshmen were introduced to almost everyone. The Alpha Chi Rho orchestra furnished the music. Dr. and Mrs. Church, Miss Bowie and Miss Dale chaperoned the dance.

Phi Delta Theta held their annual Phikeia Dance on last Saturday evening, September the twentieth, at the chapter house. Coach and Mrs. C. D. Baker chaperoned the party. Entertainment was furnished by Kress' Olympians. Guests included Miss Betty Thompson of New Castle, Miss Florence Wheelock and Miss Janet LaFevre of Cambridge Springs, Ronald Gregg, A. F. Bortz, Agnew Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Gibson and son, Theodore Blaine, Frederick Long, ex-'30, Earl Pump of Oil City, Burdell Sankey, '29, Frederick Haberman, '30, Joseph Blowe of Titusville, Robert Brahm, '29, Dr. Robert Ellsworth of Meadville.

On last Saturday evening, September the twentieth, the annual Pledge Party was given at the Beta Kappa house in honor of the 1930 class of pledges. Dr. and Mrs. Ling were the chaperones. Walter Mill's Orchestra from Ashtabula, Ohio, furnished the music. Among the guests present were Miss Mary Allison and Mr. John Eberle of Thiel College, Jeje Myers, '29, George Barco, '30, and Miss Lora Fairing of Greensburg.

FORMER BROOKVILLE BOY MAKES MARK IN BANKING

H. Frederick Lewis, of the Peoples-Pittsburgh Trust Company, has been appointed chairman of publicity for the Pittsburgh chapter of the American Institute of Banking according to a recent announcement by Robert L. Finlayson, president of that organization. The department which Mr. Lewis heads will manage all publicity for the organization throughout the coming year including that of the national convention, which will be held in Pittsburgh next spring.

The American Institute of Banking is a national organization composed of directors, officers and employees of banks. The fall program of the Pittsburgh chapter was inaugurated last week with a banquet and dance at the William Penn hotel. Among other activities the organization sponsors banking education for employees of financial institutions. A school of banking offering both theoretical and practical instruction is maintained in conjunction with the University of Pittsburgh.

Joseph L. Stevens, Class of '28, is teaching in Nathan Hale Junior High School, Cleveland, Ohio. His address is 3682 E. 114th Street.

Alumni Notes

The wedding of Robert Lewis Kirkpatrick, Butler, and Miss Harriet Louise Wildley, of Stafford Springs, Conn., was solemnized August 27 at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Philip B. Barton, Amsterdam, N. Y. The bride was graduated from Wellesley College in 1929, and the groom is a graduate of Allegheny, '28. He is a student of the Harvard Law School.

Naomi Reischner, '26, was married on June 19, 1930, to Dr. Robert W. Roden, a member of the Dental School faculty of the University of Pittsburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Roden are living at 547 Rossmore St., Pittsburgh.

Hanson Monroe, '20, has been transferred from the Grasselli, New Jersey, to the Cleveland works of the Grasselli Chemical Company, Inc.

Arthur F. Hughes, '17, is no longer on the "lost" list. He is with The News Corporation, of St. Joseph, Missouri, and his residence address is 3525 Mitchell Avenue, St. Joseph. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes have a daughter, Nancy Anne, who was a year old last July 13.

Miss Julia King and Harold Hanks, '28, were united in marriage at noon on June 9, at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is a graduate of Edinboro State Teachers' College and has been teaching. Mr. and Mrs. Hanks were to spend the summer in Hartford, Conn., and then go to New Haven, where Mr. Hanks will complete his graduate work at Yale.

Dr. Robert H. Ellsworth, '21, who has been practicing dentistry in Erie for the past two years, has returned to Meadville and opened dental offices in room 24 of the Masonic Building on Chestnut Street.

Alberta Kuder, '28, was one of a group of four college women who spent the summer in Europe. Professor Grace Bacon was the leader of the group. Both Miss Kuder and Miss Bacon are located at Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass., for another year.

The many friends of John Blower, '26, were saddened early in the summer to learn of his accidental death off the coast of Massachusetts. Mr. Blower and a party of friends were out two miles from the coast in a small sloop when caught in a sudden squall. Only one of the party of seven escaped drowning.

Campus Clippings

Thomas S. Gates, former partner of J. P. Morgan and Co., has deserted the field of finance to become president of his alma mater, the University of Pennsylvania, without salary. The salary would, of course, be but a trifle compared with the enormous fortune he amassed on Wall Street, but it is the principle of the thing which interests one—for a man in such a position to turn his back to the lure of greater monetary gain and face a life of sacrifice in the field of education for the rest of his life. Such an act should not go unheralded in the circles of higher learning.

The students of Swarthmore College revolted last week at an order issued by Dean Valentine instructing them to wear coats into the college dining room. One hundred of the men entered the dining room minus coats, and took their places at the table. The Dean, surveying the situation, told them individually to leave the room. Later, they returned, arrayed in tuxedos, full-dress suits, and sweaters. Freshmen, don't allow this idea to sink into your heads for fertilization. Bar-rooms and dance halls aren't the only places where professional bouncers are in evidence.

Dartmouth College has definitely and legally abolished hazing of Freshmen. Apaeopitus, student governing body, at a meeting held last week issued the edict making illegal and punishable the ancient tradition of initiating newcomers to the institution. In explaining its action, the above mentioned body said that the practice did a Freshman no noticeable good and was often the cause of serious harm.

What is believed to be the first class in radio announcing in the nation is to be offered at the State University of Iowa. The class will use the University Station, WSUI, for practice. A room is being constructed with glass partitions where the class, under the supervision of Professor A. G. Riley, can watch individual members perform. Such an idea is far from impossible at Allegheny, with the connection with WLBW, plenty of willing students and all.

E. J. Gergely, '23, who was in McKeesport last year, is now a teacher in Mount Saint Joseph College, located in Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia. His residence address is 232 West Walnut Lane, Germantown, Philadelphia.

Freshmen Enjoy Busy Week of Activities Before Registration

Freshman Week, held at Allegheny College from September 11-15, was a well-filled program of activities to acclimate the entering class to college life and traditions.

A dinner for Freshmen groups was held at Cochran and Hullings Halls on September 11. A social hour and an address on "College History and Traditions" by Professor Akers completed the first day's program.

On Friday, September 12, Dean Ross, speaking on "The College Organization," explained Allegheny's educational aims as a college of liberal arts. "College Music" was the subject of a brief talk by Professor Luvaa. An English placement test and a psychological test were given. In the late afternoon a picnic and field day was held in a large ravine north of Meadville where a series of stunts were directed by upperclassmen. An appetizing lunch was much enjoyed.

Freshmen met with their advisers on Saturday and selected a schedule. A placement test was given in mathematics, following which students completed registration. Senator F. P. Miller and Dean Bowie delivered addresses on "Social Life," in the evening.

Chapel and vespers were held on Sunday. Professor Lavelly spoke at chapel. The vespers were in charge of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A.

Language placement tests and physical examinations brought Freshman Week to a close on Monday afternoon.

WORK OF MR. LARRABEE LAUDED BY TRUSTEES

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trustees held last June, recognition was given to Don M. Larrabee for the very valuable service he rendered to Allegheny College in compiling historical data concerning Washington's historic mission to the French Creek Valley and the present site of the College.

Recognition of Mr. Larrabee's services was tendered in the form of a resolution adopted by the Board of Trustees, and which reads as follows: "Not all the gifts of a substantial value to the College are material in form. Fine evidence of this is to be found in the contribution of Mr. Don M. Larrabee to the background of Allegheny. His researches into the activities of George Washington in this storied valley of French Creek and the link that has been forged thereby between the College and Washington, a memorial to which, by the gift of Mr. Larrabee, stands on the campus, constitutes a service to which the Trustees of Allegheny College find unaffected pleasure in testifying in the form of this resolution of thanks and appreciation."

INTEREST AROUSED IN NEW ATHLETIC POLICY

GROUP REPRESENTATIVES NOW
WORKING ON DETAILED PROGRAM

For virtually the first time since the advent of the omnipotence of major sports, student interest in Allegheny is due for a division between that branch of athletics and another branch whose estimation of importance everywhere has been soaring in the past very few years as rapidly as major sport interest increased several years ago. Allegheny is going to have a real intramural athletics program.

Why all the sudden interest and activity? Meet Mr. Way. The new Assistant Director of Physical Education is an enthusiastic and he knows his business. Add to that the facts that Allegheny wants and needs a sports program, and that the interest already is here, and it looks like things are due to happen.

They started to happen last night. At 7:30 P. M. a meeting was held to which all fraternity groups were invited to send their representatives to discuss a comprehensive plan of organized intramural sports competition. The Campus was sent to bed long before the meeting occurred, making it impossible to inscribe the actual results herein, but the object, as outlined by Mr. Way is as follows:

The intramural sports plan of Allegheny is to be systemized and enlarged. New sports will be introduced, and a comprehensive system of competition will be formulated. The Allegheny system will be similar to that now used in most larger schools. There will be competition in a number of sports (ten or more) throughout the year. All team competition will be by fraternity and non-fraternity groups, for championships and for points. Points will be awarded for three qualifications: team entrance, the winning of any single event (as a basketball game or a swimming race), and for final standing in each sport. In the case of individual competition, as in boxing and wrestling, points may be awarded to champions and runners-up, and may be added to the score of the group they represent. As points are awarded, they will be added to those already achieved by the group, and at the end of the year a trophy will be awarded to the group which has scored the greatest number of points in all competition. The trophy will signify the Intramural Athletics Championship of Allegheny College.

That, in brief, is the plan in its present form, and is virtually the plan used with great success by a large number of schools. The details are, of course, yet to be arranged—the scale of point awards, selection of sports to be undertaken, etc., will be decided later. There should be an Interfraternity Athletic Council to take care of matters such as settling of protests and arranging of schedules. Mr. Way has plans for adding even further interest to the competition, such as big Sports Carnival Night some time in March, with boxing and wrestling finals, and maybe a dance afterward. The intramurals will undoubtedly be a great thing for Allegheny, in more ways than one. The one thing that is now needed is the enthusiastic cooperation of the entire student body, and it seems to be forthcoming. With that factor, development should be rapid. Keep an eye on it.

HARRINGTON SMITH IS ELECTED TRACK CAPTAIN

Harrington Smith was last Saturday elected captain of the 1931 track team, to succeed Captain Jack Worrall, leader of the '30 squad.

Smith is a senior, and will next year run his fourth season as an Allegheny track man. He started out as a half-miler, but soon shifted to the 440-yard event, where he has been ever since. He is also one of the two student members of the Athletic Board of Control.

"Maud" Crum's Men Are Fighting Hard For Permanent Berths

This year Coach Crum has a number of new men who will be a big help to the team before the end of the season. Most of the new material is from the Freshman class, although two or three Sophomores who are out this year for the first time promise to develop into real players.

Among the Freshman candidates Bill Anderson is one of the most promising. Bill, a triple-threat man, is tearing things up during practice, and it seems more than possible that he will get a chance as varsity halfback. Another man who is trying to make the grade for halfback is Tomlinson. He is a hard worker, and will undoubtedly get a chance in some of the big games. Ronald Gregg is competing with Captain Garbark for the position of fullback, and is keeping Bob on his toes. With a little more experience he will probably develop into a good man for Allegheny's backfield.

On the line are Eddie Homer at center, Tintman at tackle, Tuttle at end, Bill Hershelman at end, and Kohn and Venaman at tackle or guard. Homer is a hard and consistent player with only a few rough spots to be ironed out. Tintman, the new 190-pound tackle, is playing some real football and may make a berth on the varsity. Tuttle is giving a very good account of himself at end, and will, no doubt, be a hard man to beat. Bill Hershelman, also at end, is putting up a good fight for a place on the team. Although he is a trifle light, he comes here well recommended. Last year he was all-section end in the Oil City district. Venaman and Kohn, trying for places on the line, are going strong, and with a little seasoning will make first-class players.

Among the Sophomores are Francis and Carey March for tackle, Larry Boylan for end, McCartney for guard, and "Dutch" Kohler for halfback. Francis, a new man this year, may be headed for a berth on the varsity. He is heavy and fast, and should be one of the mainstays on the line. Carey March is playing his first year of football for Allegheny, and is showing that he knows what it is all about. He is the heaviest man on the team, tipping the scales at 205. Larry Boylan, back after a year's absence, is stepping into his old position at end, and in spite of his light weight is putting up a very good scrap and will probably make the varsity. McCartney, another light man, is doing some good work at guard. He will get a chance in one of the early games to show that he can play football as it should be played.

Several of last year's backfield men have shown marked improvement. Kohler, Ungerman, and Robblee have all improved, and are showing some real stuff. The presence of these men keeps the regulars on their toes and fighting for their positions.

P. Theodore Lorz, '24, of Cleveland Heights, sailed September 6 for a year's stay in France. Mr. Lorz was appointed exchange professor by the Cleveland Heights Board of Education and is assigned to teach English and to interpret America to the Frenchman at the Ecole Normale Supérieure at Valence, in the department of Drome, on the Rhone River; Monsieur Robert Merle, Paris, will replace Mr. Lorz as instructor in French at the Heights High School during the coming year. Before taking up his work at Valence on October 1, Mr. Lorz will spend three weeks in Southern Germany and in Paris in company with his mother, Mrs. Fred Lorz, Meadville, whom he was to meet at Munich.

C. C. Merrill, '05, is now at Madison Barracks, New York, continuing his service as United States Army Chaplain.
