December 14, 1935

Dear Mr. Bestor:

Thank you for your letter of December second which gives me more exact information than I could expect. I hoped as I think I wrote you to go to New Haven the coming week but my schedule has been disrupted by unexpected happenings and Christmas is pressing. I shall have to put off my visit until after the firstof the year. As soon as I can manage it I shall present myself at the Library - your letter in hand.

You are good enough to suggest that when I do come to New Haven I be your guest at luncheon. It would give me real pleasure.

Looking forward to meeting you and with best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, believe me

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Arthur Bestor, Jr.
