Dear Ida:

Sites and I have had our talk. From his memorandum I see that you are to have access to whatever is necessary in preparing the book. The Judge, in turn, is to see whatever is written in order to check up with you all points and to avoid any inaccuracy.

Tomorrow you and I will work out terms for contract and plans for financing the enterprise while you are at work upon it.

I shall be at the National Arts Club at four o'clock.

Yours faithfully,

Miss Ida Tarbell
