

April 21
February 8, 1922

Miss Marguerite Kimball,
122 Summer Road,
Brookline, Mass.

My dear Miss Kimball:

I have your note of February 6, asking if it would be possible for me to speak to the Radcliffe Club of Boston on the 21st of April.

I appreciate your inquiry, and if you can arrange it to your satisfaction with the Coit-Alber Lyceum Bureau of Boston, which sends me to Cambridge, I shall be very glad to go to you.
The address of the Manager, Mr. E. A. Wickes, is 80 Boylston St.
Any arrangement that you can make with Mr. Wickes will be satisfactory to me.

As to the subjects - I am speaking this winter on the Unemployment Problem. I was a member of the President's Unemployment Conference, held in Washington last October and am on its standing committee.

I am also speaking on the work of the Conference on the Limitation of Armament. I spent a couple of months observing its work.

I also have a talk which I call "The Emerging Working Woman," dealing with certain progressive trends which seem to me significant.

I shall be glad, my dear Miss Kimball, if it can be arranged for me to meet your Club.

Very truly yours,
