Dear Miss Rowley:

Here is a book which I think might be very well added to our collection if you feel like ordering it. Perhaps you better hold off until after October as the publishers possibly will send me a copy. I have a good many items on Lincoln as a lawyer of course, but this book promises to be something a little fuller than so far has been done.

I hope you are off on a vacation at the present moment seeing the world in your little car.

I hope I shall see you in October.

Faithfully yours

Ida M. Tarbell
