SOCIAL SEASON REACHES HEIGHT WITH JUNIOR PROM.

All College Affair to Be Held in Armory Tomorrow Nite

The Junior Prom which is scheduled for Thursday evening, January 11 in the State Armory, will be a suitable opening for the social year of 1923. Although it is primarily a Junior function the whole college is invited as is the custom. All thoughts are centered and all attention is now turned to this affair which is the biggest all-college social event of the year.

The class of 1924 was forced to seek a hall other than a college building in which to hold its promenade because of the fact that a ruling was recently passed prohibiting dancing in college buildings. The only desirable place conveniently situated was the State Armory, which has been secured.

Every effort is being put forth to make the affair this year the most successful of its kind ever put on by any Allegheny College Junior class. The committee in charge of preparations is doing everything in its power to secure the very best for the occasion.

It has been definitely announced that Johnny Jones' Black and White Melody Boys, of York, Pa., will furnish the music. The programme will open with a grand march promptly at 8 o'clock. The Black and White Orchestra is well known throughout the East, and especially in college circles. This is the first appearance of this organization in Meadville and, according to all reports, it will prove a treat extraordinary.

The decorations of the hall have been planned and work was begun by the committee the first part of the week. Special care is being taken to make the hall exceptionally attractive.

The committee has announced that in accordance with the precedent established in past years, there will be no flowers. Although the Prom is a formal dance it has long been the custom for the ladies to go without flowers. The committee makes this a point which it wishes to be carried out to the letter; in this connection it is rumored that the first dance following the grand march will be "Don't Send Me Posies."

Donald H. Coale is chairman of the general committee in charge of the Junior Prom. He is capably assisted Theodore A. Seidle, M. Victor Wright, W. L. Leffingwell, H. W. Smith, Merrill W. Doolittle and Charles B. Weigle. The chaperones for the dance are members of the faculty.

EASTERN ALUMNI MEET IN INTEREST OF COLLEGE

PRESIDENT HIXSON SPEAKS AT NEW YORK ALUMNI MEETING

President and Mrs. Hixson were the guests of honor at the Annual Dinner of the New York Alumni Association of Allegheny College, held on Dec. 8th, New York City. President Hixson, as the speaker of the evening, told of the present standing and achievements of the college. He presented to the Alumni the year's athletic program, which was heartily endorsed. The New York Alumni expressed the feeling that congratulations should be given to those who have put forth such sincere efforts to develop the winning football team of last fall.

At the conclusion of President Hixson's address, Miss Ida M. Tarbell stated that in all the years since her graduation, she had never heard such a fine speech about her Alma Mater. She stated that President Hixson had brought her attention, as never before, the obligations which all the Alumni owe to Allegheny.

The recent death of one of the original founders of the Alumni Association, R. R. Ross, was learned with much regret.

During the evening, a number of boys, members of the Madison Avenue Boys' Club, entertained with the Parade of the Wooden Soldiers from Chauve Souris, one act from Penrod, and several clog dances. The club, under the direction of Albert Hines, class of '11, has been growing steadily until it has reached its present admirable standing.

At the business meeting, Albert Hines, '11, was elected to fill the office of President and Leroy Peterson, '13, the office of Secretary-treasurer.

DEBATING TEAM HAS EXTENSIVE PROGRAM

LOCAL DEBATERS WILL DISCUSS POWER OF SUPREME COURT WITH WESTERN RESERVE AND W. AND J.

With eight men, five of them experienced, practicing twice a week for the Varsity team, the prospects for Allegheny's success in intercollegiate debating this year are unusually good. The Freshman-Sophomore debate also promises to be of interest as a considerable number of freshmen are going to try out.

The Varsity team will debate with Western Reserve University March 1, and at Washington-Jefferson on the ninth of the same month. Dr. S. S. Swartley also hopes to arrange a debate with Penn State, but the possibility of this is still uncertain.

The question for inter-collegiate debate this year is: "Resolved that the power of the Supreme Court to declare legislation unconstitutional should be restricted."

The men chosen this year are: J. H. Bozic, R. W. Leeper and J. L. Ross, with C. L. Sutton as alternate, for the affirmative, and R. H. Demmler, C. E. Hammett, Jr., and J. E. Larson, with M. V. Wright for alternate, will be the negative debaters.

COLLEGE SONG CONTEST WILL CULMINATE SOON

STUDENT BODY WILL BE JUDGES OF SONGS CONTRIBUTED

Several contributions have already been made to the Allegheny song contest and others are expected in the near future.

The names of the contestants and their compositions are being kept secret. The student body are to be the judges of the songs. Beginning next week each song will be submitted to the students during Chapel service. After the students have memorized one song, another will be submitted. When they are fairly familiar with all the songs, an entire Chapel service will be devoted to singing them, and the students will thus be able to judge all the compositions impartially. The winner will receive a prize of twenty-five dollars.

DR. T. A. CANADY DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

FATHER OF MRS. F. W. HIXSON RESPECTED AS SCHOLAR, PREACHER AND SOLDIER

Dr. Thomas A. Canady, the father of Mrs. F. W. Hixson, passed away on Wednesday, January 3, following a short illness at Colorado Springs while visiting his daughter, Mrs. Rea Ward. The funeral services were held in the Stone Church last Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. The Reverend Hampton H. Hough was in charge of the service.

Dr. and Mrs. Canady left their Meadville home several weeks previous to Thanksgiving to visit their daughter, and while there Dr. Canady was taken ill. His illness became serious several weeks ago and culminated in his death on last Wednesday.

President and Mrs. Hixson were in attendance when Dr. Canady died, President Hixson having arrived only one day previous.

Dr. Canady was an alumnus of the University of Missouri, a soldier in the Civil war, and a chaplain in the Spanish American war. He was a retired minister, having served several important churches in Missouri and Illinois. He had been a resident of Meadville for the last two years.

Dr. Canady was married to Miss Margaret Lindsey of Princeton, Mo. Their three children are still living: Mrs. F. W. Hixson of Meadville, Mrs. Ward of Colorado Springs, and Colonel Earl L. Canady, U. S. A., Langley Field, Va. Dr. Canady was a very brilliant and respected man and most kind to his fellow men. He will be sadly missed in Meadville, as well as in other communities.

EXAM SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

The examination schedule for the first term has been announced. Changes may be made in this schedule, but no changes may be made ofter January 13. The official copy will be printed on January 17. There are unavoidably a few conflicts which should be reported to the Registrar's office before January 13, in order that arrangements may be made.

Examinations in one hour subjects will be limited to one and one-half hours; in two-hour subjects to two hours; in three-hour subjects to two and one-half hours; in four-hour subjects to three hours.

When a student has been absent from any class for any cause, one-seventh the total number of recitations or more, a supplementary examination must be taken in the subject. Supplementary examinations are to be given at the close of the examination. Members of the athletic clubs and the Glee Clubs are allowed four absences above

ITALIAN DEPARTMENT HAS HIGH STANDING

ALLEGHENY HAS LARGE ENROLLMENT IN THIS COURSE

At a meeting of the Modern Languages Association in Chicago during the Christmas vacation, Professor J. L. Russo met a large number of professors from whom he was able to discover how high the Italian department ranked at Allegheny in comparison with some larger colleges and universities. The number of students in the Italian departments of these institutions ranged from 15 to 75. Allegheny has 50. The University of Chicago, with 10,000 students, has only 75 Italian students; Minnesota, 15 students, and Michigan 12. In actual numbers Allegheny stands second, but in proportion to our student body we rank far ahead of the others. From the information he received, Professor Russo believes that Allegheny ranks just as high in the quality and efficiency of her students as she does in numbers.

In view of the great cultural and practical advantages of the Italian language, Allegheny is to be congratulated for having such a high standing.

SCHUMANN-HEINKE MAKES HER FIRST APPEARANCE IN MEADVILLE SINCE SICKNESS

NOTED SOPRANO WILL SING AT STONE CHURCH ON MONDAY EVENING

On Monday evening, January 15, Allegheny College students and residents of Meadville will have the opportunity of hearing, at the Stone Church, Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink is in great demand everytralto. This concert was originally scheduled for November 24, but owing to an illness suffered by Madame Schumann-Heink, it, with many other engagements was necessarily postponed. She has been in New York since that time, recuperating at her home. Her appearance at the Stone Church will be the first one since her illness.

The concert is the second in a series of Allegheny College concerts which is being managed by Charles A. Bortz, an Allegheny College graduate who is now teaching in one of the Pittsburgh high schools, and Dr. H. W. Church. The Allegheny course is only one of a number of series of concerts which they are managing. This concert is being given in the Stone Church as the seating capacity of the chapel is not sufficient to accommodate everyone. The tickets which were sold for the previous date will be honored.

Madame Schumann-Heink has for some time held a premier place among opera singers. She is recognized as the world's greatest contralto. Although she is now sixty-two years old, her voice is unimpaired. Her plans for this season are very extensive; she will appear in Youngstown the night following her appearance here and will then continue her tour. The plans for next season are still more extensive and it promises to eclipse all previous seasons. Madame Schumann-Heink is in great remand everywhere, and Allegheny College and Meadville are very fortunate in having this opportunity of hearing the famous artist.

MANY FACULTY MEMBERS ATTEND CONVENTIONS

That Allegheny is keeping abreast of the times is evidenced by the fact that an unusually large number of faculty members attended department conventions during the Christmas holidays. Never before in the history of Allegheny have so many professors spent their vacation in this manner

Dr. J. R. Schultz, returning from Missouri, attended the annual meeting of the Modern Language Association held in Chicago under the auspices of the University of Chicago and the Northwestern University on December 27, 28, and 29. The association is composed of teachers and scholars interested in Romance, Germanic, or English Language and literature.

Dr. I. R. Beiler spent part of the holidays in New Haven, Conn., where he attended the convention of the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis as well as that of the National Association of Biblical instructors, both of which having been held at Yale University this year. Professor Beiler was on the program at the latter convention as was also Professor Wood of Dartmouth, who during the college year of 1914-15 was acting Professor of English Bible here.

Dr. C. B. Coleman was present at the convention of the American Historical Association which was held at Yale University on Dec. 27, 28, and 29. This meeting was featured by an address of Secretary of State, Hughes, in which he made a formal announcement of the attitude of the administration towards German reparations.

Professor L. D. McClean attended the annual meetings of the American Economic Association and of the American Sociological Association, both of which were held in Chicago on Dec. 27, 28, and 29.

Dr. F. G. Henke attended the convention of the American Philosophical Association which convened in New York on Dec. 27, 28, and 29. Professor John Dewey gave Paul Carus lectures on Philosophy.

Dr. Bascom was present at the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

BLUE AND GOLD PASSERS WIN FROM WAYNESBURG 25-20

Clever Defense of Local Team Features First Home Game

An airtight defense coupled with a speedy offense gave Allegheny a 25-20 victory over the fast Waynesburg College five on the local court last Saturday evening. The first half of the contest was featured by the rapid passwork of both teams. The downstaters succeeded in caging the ball three times from the field while the Blue and Gold floormen were held to two successful attempts during the initial period. With the opening of the third quarter, however, the local defense tightened to such an extent that the Waynesburg squad had to content themselves with one point gained from the foul line while the Blue and Gold offense men streaked down the floor and scored 10 points in as many minutes. Led by their star, McHenry, the opposing courtmen staged a great comeback in the final quarter, but their rally fell short of the desired result by five points.

Coming as they did from a gruelling battle the night before at Grove City in which they were nosed out in last few minutes, the visitors displayed a fine brand of the indoor game and convincingly outplayed the locals during the first 20 minutes of the fray. In comparison with this smooth running was the erratic shooting of the Blue and Gold representatives. Freqeuntly after working the ball into position the throw would fall short. Waynesburg men usually took the ball off the board as few of the attempts were followed in for shots at close range.

Wise opened the scoring with a short lift from beneath the net three minutes after the opening whistle. Personal fouls counted heavily against the visitors as Brownell was having exceptional success from the free throw line. In the second quarter Waynesburg tied the score at 8 all. From this point, however, the Blue and Gold's exponent's were never in serious danger and the half ended with Allegheny on the long end of an 11-10 score.

With the resumption of play the locals went on a rampage and scored almost at will while the tight defense, on the other hand, kept the visiting collegians out of the danger zone at all times. The work of Braun was the bright feature of this half Not only did he hold the fast moving McHenry in check, but he slipped down the floor

ALLEGHENY QUINTETTE TAKES THREE GAME TRIP THIS WEEK

WAYNESBURG, PITT AND WEST VIRGINIA WILL BE PLAYED

Allegheny's floormen will start the first trip of the regular basketball season tomorrow to play Waynesburg, Pitt, and West Virginia, on their respective home floors. Every one of the games promises to be a gruelling contest, and Coach Baker's cagers will have to be in prime form if they are to return victorious.

Tomorrow night the Blue and Gold five will be pitted against the Waynesburg team. Those who witnessed the contest of last Friday realize that this game will not be a walk-away for Allegheny by any means, for the downstate quintet are a gamey set of fighters with clever floormen and good shots in McHenry, Reed, and Freeman. The local five will have a considerable handicap in the Waynesburg floor which is coated with wax and said to be exceedingly slippery. Waynesburg, however, is quite likely to be rather worn out inasmuch as they are to play West Virginia tonight at Morgantown.

Friday night comes one of the very hardest games of the season, that with the stellar aggregation of Pitt passers. Coach Carlson will have a veteran combination on the floor that is rated as one of the best in this section. Jordan, if he is in basketball togs after his trip West with the football team, Rose, and Levinson are three of last year's forwards who will be available. Funk, the Smokey City center, stands six foot four, and this extraordinary size combined with basketball experience should make him a formidable man for the local team to handle. At guard there will be Captain Byers, considered one of the best guards of the tri-state district, and Hugh Carr, a star of last year's freshman team. The fact that Pitt was victor over the fast passing cagers from Syracuse is almost sufficient as a barometer of its strength.

Not a great deal is known of West Virginia who are the opponents for Saturday night. Allegheny has had no athletic relations with the Morgantown institution for several years on account of an unpleasant incident which occurred during a basketball game in Library Hall in 1919. There are only two of last year's players in uniform for the Mountaineers, Bowers at guard and Pierre Hill at Center. Both these men, as well as the newer material, are reckoned to be strong

LANGUAGE STUDENTS FORM NEW FRATERNITY

HONORARY SOCIETY WILL INCLUDE HONOR STUDENTS IN ROMANCE LANGUAGES

With the new year comes the birth of a new fraternity on Allegheny Hill. After months of hard work, numerous meetings, and careful preparation a group of advanced students in the Romance Languages and the instructors in the department presented Phi Sigma Iota to the college. This is an honorary fraternity which will draw its members from the Romance Language courses.

Work on the organization was begun early in November, and during the Thanksgiving vacation the plans were completed. The constitution was drawn up and accepted on November 28, 1922. No publicity was given the matter because some details had not been definitely decided. At the present time, however, the organization is thoroughly prepared to announce itself and take its place with the numerous and older organizations already established at Allegheny.

Phi Sigma Iota has been founded with the purpose of promoting interest in advance courses in the Romance Languages and also to foster research. Eligibility depends entirely upon the ability of the student. It is solely an honorory fraternity upholding scholarship as the outstanding qualifications for membership.

The organization is unique in so far as it is the only fraternity with the specific requirements that it has in the particular field. Being new to the fraternity world and an infant protege of 1923 there is considerable work before its promoters.

The charter members of Phi Sigma Iota are: Dr. Henry Ward Church, Prof. Joseph L. Russo, Miss Naomi Kayhoe, Prof. George L. Doty, members of the faculty of the college; and Dorothy Irwin, Helen Bowman, Maria Avery, Jerome Hixson, and Theodore Lorz, students at Allegheny.

Nothing has been decided in regard to expansion, but it is highly probable that such a move will be considered, providing desirable groups in other institutions want to affiliate.

Allegheny may well feel proud of her commendable list of student organizations; they have been of immeasurable value in developing more fully the character of those participating in them. Obviously, students especially interested in French have found an incentive in Le Petit Salon, and so it is, accordingly, throughout our twenty some clubs and extra-curricular organizations.

Yet there is a possibility of overdoing a good thing. Allegheny can seriously impair her efficiency and machinery by being too heavily burdened with organizations—for they can be a burden. With the current tendency to organize, let us be cautious lest we necessitate the institution of an "Anti-Organization Club."

Many new advertisers have appeared in the columns of the Campus during the past few weeks. These advertisers are in the majority of cases merchants of Meadville. It is the merchants of Meadville who have greatly supported a number of College activities during the past year. Without their active cooperation with the Athletic Board the success of the past football season would not have been possible. These members of the Meadville Chamber of Commerce to a great extent support the publications of the College by their advertisements. Without this aid the College publications could not be financially successful. Numerous other instances can be cited in the various college activities where the aid received from the Meadville merchants "put the thing across." In return these same people ask that the Students of the College support them. The Meadville merchants should receive the trade of the student body when at all possible. A feeling of friendliness and good will exists between the student body of Allegheny and the Chamber of Commerce of Meadville. It is imperative that we maintain this spirit—as students we must support the Meadville merchants.

The Campus, as a representative of the Student body of the College, extends its sincere sympathy to President and Mrs. F. W. Hixson and family in their recent bereavement in the death of Dr. T. A. Canady.

REV. MR. HOUGH SPEAKS AT CHAPEL SERVICE

LOCAL PASTOR EMPHASIZES IMPORTANCE OF COLLEGE ASSOCIATIONS

The Rev. Hampton H. Hough, pastor of Stone Church, discussed in a pleasant and entertaining talk in Chapel last Thursday morning, the value of activities and associotions with fellow students, as by-products of a college career.

"The opportunity to sudy human nature by association with fellow students," said the Rev. Mr. Hough, "is more important than any other college work." The man who does not understand people, and who cannot do teamwork with his associates is a failure no matter what scholastic honors he may have earned.

The success of the few who have usually lead in fraternity and class activities is due to their superior understanding of people. The most successful man today is like the circus performer who can "stand on his head" and "walk a tight rope." That is, he is a man whose judgment is reliable and understanding, who is permitted activities and associations with fellow

"If a man empties his purse into his head, no man can take it away from him. An investment in knowledge always pays the best interest."
—Franklin.

FRESHMEN WILL DEBATE SOPHOMORES NEXT MONTH

Tryouts for the Freshman debating team will be held on January 16 or 17. There is plenty of good material in the class, and there should be no difficulty in organizing a team which will compare favorably with that of the Sophomores. Several of the first year men come with fine records from their high schools, and if they live up to the reputations, they will provide several keen contests.

The date for the annual Freshman-Sophomore debate has not been definitely decided, but it will probably come early in the second semiester.

ALLEGHENY ALUMNUS RECEIVES FELLOWSHIP

In the election of Mr. John D. Regester, class of '20, to the Jacob Sleeper Fellowship of Boston University, another significant honor has been conferred upon Allegheny College. The Jacob Sleeper Fellowship is the highest scholastic honor accorded by the University. Those receiving this election usually go to Europe for further study, and Mr. Regester will probably go abroad during this year.

Allegheny has contributed a very high percentage of the men who have received this Fellowship. Mr. Fred D. Gealy, class of '16, was the last Alleghenian to be elected.

LAW STUDENTS MUST HAVE ADDITIONAL LATIN

STATE SUPREME COURT REQUIRES FOUR YEARS OF LATIN FOR LAW

In the December number of the Latin Department News Letter of the University of Pittsburgh there appeared the following item of vital importance to prospective law-students in Pennsylvania.

"By a recent ruling of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, an additional year of Latin (Vergil, Aneid I-IV) will be required of prospective law students, beginning in 1923. The total requirement will then be Caesar B. G. I-IV, Cicero, Orations against Catiline (minimum Cicero requirement); Vergil, Aeneid I-IV."

The Vergil requirement may be met by registering for and completing the Course Latin B given next semester. Students who are concerned should consult with Prof. Gilmer as soon as possible.

DEFINITE DATE HAS BEEN SET FOR FRENCH PLAY

A definite date has been set for the French play which is being given by Le Petit Salon. "Les Femmes Fortes," which was written by Sardou, will be presented on March 22. It is by far the most difficult play which Le Petit Salon has ever attempted to produce. It is a three-act play with a cast of twelve characters, this number being greater than in any former play. Due to these conditions the cast is working very hard, and it is predicted that the production will be a real success. There has been a slight change in the personnel of the play due to the illness of Miss Virginia Grenelle. Miss Margaret Daugherty, who is taking her place, is doing splendidly as are the rest of the cast in their respective parts.

LE PETIT SALON

Presenting an unusually clever and interesting one act sketch, "La Surprise d' Isidore," the town members of Le Petit Salon greatly enlivened the regular monthly meeting which was held Monday afternoon at the Phi Delta Theta house.

The play was ably directed by Miss Chevret. The scene was laid in the office of a doctor for the insane. The plot was based on the peculiar actions of an old friend of the doctor. He was mistaken for a crazy person but believed that the others were the ones who were crazy. When the doctor returned everything was straightened out satisfactorily.

At the Lausanne conference the delegates now are assuming an attitude of hostility towards one another. Saturday morning the Turkish representative, Riza Nur Bey, refused to listen to further Allied pleas for an Armenian home, "and insultingly walked out of the meeting." The Turks are threatening in their attitude and dare the Allies to end the parley. The meeting Saturday was one of more or less general disorder.

The Senate has voted 57 to 6 in favor of removing immediately the remaining United States troops from the Rhine valley.

The court at Bastrop, Lousiana, is in session now considering evidence brought forth by W. C. Andrews and J. L. Daniel concerning the murder of the victims of the Mer Rouge mob. State Pathologists testified that the murdered men had been tortured before they were put to death.

NOTED COMPOSER'S NAME HONORED AT ANNIVERSARY

TRIBUTE IS PAID TO MEMORY OF STEPHEN C. FOSTER

General observance of the fifty-ninth anniversary of the death of Stephen Collins Foster, writer of folk songs, is urged of school officials and music supervisors throughout the state by Dr. Thomas E. Finnegan, State superintendent of public instruction, in a letter to the various officials. Mr. Foster died January 13, 1864, in New York City, and his body was buried in Allegheny cemetery, Pittsburgh. He was born in Pittsburgh on July 4th, 1826.

Since Mr. Foster was born in this state and gave birth to American folk-music; and inasmuch as his music forms the backbone of the repertory for community singing in this country, it is fitting that Pennsylvania's testimonial be a banner one," Dr. Finnegan's letter says.

A suggestive outline for a "Foster Program" has been sent out. The numbers include most of Foster's best known songs, "My Old Kentucky Home," "Old Folks at Home," "Massa's in the Cold Ground," "Uncle Ned," and "Old Black Joe," and also others less well known.

Choice of a Career
From the Yale News

THE NINETY-FOUR

Someone, probably an insurance agent, was quoted recently as saying that from the mass of one hundred college graduates one individual only rose to the Polo and butler class, perilously near the top of the financial ladder. Five others became comfortably off and found themselves after twenty years at the small yacht and chauffeur stage. The other ninety-four presumably congregate in the great section of the American people who drive their own Buicks to the golf club. In other words, dreaming about being a rich man is one thing, and making the grade is "something else again."

Yet the ninety-four presumably work just as hard as the sumptuous six. Their business is the axis on which a small and uninteresting world revolves. They have become devotees of the dollar and when that fickle deity deserts, have nowhere else to turn. Jammed in a dull, straight rut of business they can never leave the road and jump the fence into finer fields of life. This, then, is the portion of ninety-four men out of every hundred now on the campus.

The answer to the problem lies in the proper choice of a career.

Between now and Commencement we shall have something to offer on the subject of "Careers." Watch for the space with the Famous Signature.

CLUB ACTIVITIES

QUILL CLUB

With a human "bookstall" as the center of interest, the Quill Club held one of the most entertaining as well as instructive meetings of the year Tuesday night in their room in the library.

Miss Rowley, who had charge of the program, prepared a proper setting for the "magazines" which were to appear during the evening and gave a general introductory talk. These magazines—which included Harper's Woman's Journal, Bookman, Radio, Saturday Evening Post, Revue des Deux Mondes, Asia, and others—opened their covers to the club members and briefly gave their history, their policies, their virtues, and other interesting information concerning themselves. The Misses Putnam, Kitchen and Laffer, and Messrs. Demmler, Havice, Dale, and Bollinger represented the magazines.

After these presentations the meeting was devoted to informal discussion which brought out many educative facts.

CLASSICAL CLUB

To better acquaint the members with the subject, Mr. Ross and Mr. Gergely discussed mythology at the meeting of the Classical Club last Tuesday evening in their room in the Library.

Using many illustrations, they presented the origin of myths, their history, and their various cycles.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Butler, New Castle Y. M. C. A. and Heinz House of Pittsburgh were the teams played during the pre-season barnstorming trip taken by the Allegheny basketball squad. These games which were on Dec. 21, 22, and 23 respectively, while not so successful as the actual winning of the games was concerned, were of immense value in shaping the team up for the opening of the collegiate season. The first game, that with Butler, was a hard fought battle throughout. The home team was confident of victory and was surprised to find that it was nosed out by the score of 32-27. The members of this team were the proteges of Coach Baker before he came to Allegheny.

The game with New Castle found both teams off form and a slow loosely played contest resulted in a defeat for the Allegheny representatives by the score of 25-22. The final game of the trip was with the Heinz House team of Pittsburgh, one of the strongest amateur aggregations in this section. The end of the first half found the Meadville five in the lead but the Pittsburgh passers clearly out-played the visitors from that point, and emerged winners 42-30.

The trip uncovered no outstanding stars. Brownell, however displayed rare form in his foul shooting. These games should give Coach Baker invaluable aid in eliminating the weak points in the squad.

TRI-STATE BASKET BALL LEAGUE IS ORGANIZED

At an organization meeting held last week in Pittsburgh, Pa., representatives from Waynesburg, Duquesne, Bethany, Grove City, Westminster, Thiel, and Geneva signified their intention of entering the newly formed Tri-State Basketball League and elected M. R. Glover of Geneva College president of the loop.

Recent developments disclose the fact that West Virginia, Pitt, W. and J. and Penn. State will not enter the new organization this season at least. Failure of West Virginia to act favorably in this matter is very surprising inasmuch as Athletic Director Stansbury of the Mountaineer institution was one of the prime factors in the promotion of the new circuit. One excuse is that Pitt, one of the most active rivals of the Morgantown collegians is not a member of the organization. From other sources comes the information that a satisfactory schedule could not be arranged.

The entry of Allegheny is very much in doubt at this time according to Graduate Manager Townsend although definite action on the matter has not been taken as yet.

MUSICAL SERVICE IS HELD BY Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. varied its Sunday evening program last week, and the meeting was announced as a "Musical Scripture Service." While soft music was played, the leader, Helen Robinson, read a number of passages of Scripture concerning prayer and Christian love and service. Following each Bible reference, a familiar hymn suggested by the thought expressed in the reading, was sung.

players. West Virginia always has a good team, and there is no good reason to think that such is not the case this year. Indeed, after having had games the past two nights, the local five will in all probability be taxed to their utmost in the contest at Morgantown.

Under the coaching of Mr. C. D. Baker, the Blue and Gold team is rounding into good shape, and the men are fighting hard, for there is enough material so that every player must struggle to hold his place in the lineup. The trip which the team is to undertake this week will be a trying test, but with the morale as it is at present there is every reason to believe the journey will be successful.

CLASS BASKET BALL BEGINS SATURDAY

KEEN RIVALRY BETWEEN GROUPS PROMISES INTERESTING SEASON

When the interclass basketball season opens Saturday afternoon with a doubleheader, the most extensive intramural court year that Allegheny has ever known will be ushered in. Two rounds of play will constitute this season's program and with all of the teams gradually rounding into formidable shape some unusually good games may be expected.

The games of Saturday will bring the Juniors and Freshmen together in the opening tilt which is booked to start at 2 o'clock. One hour later the Seniors tackle the Sophs. Because no games have been played yet it is hard to draw a comparison between the teams of the circuit. All of them are practicing hard and even the Freshmen squad is showing promise that may make them the dark horse of the league. The schedule is as follows:

Jan. 13—Juniors vs. Freshmen; Seniors vs. Sophomores.
Jan. 20—Seniors vs. Freshmen. Juniors vs. Sophomores.
Feb. 10—Seniors vs. Juniors; Sophomores vs. Freshmen.
Feb. 17—Juniors vs. Freshmen; Seniors vs. Sophomores.
Feb. 24—Seniors vs. Freshmen; Juniors vs. Sophomores.
Mar. 3—Seniors vs. Juniors; Sophomores vs. Freshmen.

BOWLING TOURNAMENTS WILL BEGIN SATURDAY

SCHEDULE FOR INTER-FRATERNITY CONTEST IS ANNOUNCED

Greek will again meet Greek, this time the battles will take place on the college bowling alleys. Plans have been completed for the biggest, most hotly contested tournament ever staged at Allegheny. An appropriate cup has been purchased, which may be seen at the registrar's office, that will be given to the winning team. This cup will remain the property of the fraternity that wins this year's tournament. Wright and Morley, house men, wish to impress this fact; the cup has been purchased and will be given to the victorious five.

In addition to the cup a cash prize of one dollar will be awarded weekly to the man who rolls highest score Here is a chance to pick up that badly needed spending money fellows.

Here is the bowling schedule; put it up where you can see it. Let's make the balls roll. The alleys are refinished; they are in great shape, and think how that cup will add to the appearance of your house. Have your team ready at the time scheduled; it will add a little more zest to the whole affair and add greatly in avoiding confusion.

A man may bowl with as many teams as he desires. The following is the first round of the tournament. Next week a complete schedule will be published in box form. If teams cannot play on the date set, the house man should be notified and another date will be arranged. Teams must be on hand at the date and hour set because the alleys will be reserved for tournaments.

W. D. Barcus, '20, who has been recently, married, is living at 124 Waverly Place, New York City. He is employed with the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.
