My dear Miss Tarbell;--

When you were teaching at Poland I wanted very much to meet you and thought several times of driving over to Poland and asking Fanny Case to introduce me. However now when I am near the end of life the nearest I have come to meeting you has been to be coupled with you in a newspaper item stating that we are both unusually active for eighty-one year olders.

I enjoyed reading your championship of Robert Walker. What you wrote was absolutely correct. You did not say what you might have said that his treatment of Colonel Botsford was equally dastardly.

Ex governor Wise of Virginia, in an article he wrote many years ago relative to his knowledge of President Mc.Kinley stated that he would do anything for a friend so long as it did not interfere with his ambitions, but would sacrifice any one no matter how he was indebted to him if in doing so it advanced his political plans.

I hope you are now and will continue to enjoy as good health as I do.

Respectfully yours,

E. D. Haseltine
