Mr. S. R. Bridges,
Healy Building,
Atlanta, Ga.

My dear Mr. Bridges:

I just received your letter of Feb. 7. I am sorry I missed you in January. I spent the fall and the winter up to the middle of January in Washington.

You say that you have subscribed for the week of March 13 to 18, and are having difficulty about your date at Raleigh, N.C. and would like to place me there on Monday, March 20, as I return North.

That would be satisfactory to me save for the fact that the Cleveland Bureau has made a date for me in Cincinnati on Sunday, March 19. I think it doubtful whether I could get back to Raleigh. I really should prefer not to take the extra journey, though of course I will do it if it is going to help you out.

I am sorry you are having a hard time with your bookings. It is too bad.

Sincerely yours,
