Mr. Arnett & Pres. Bryan

Dear Friends—

We are planning through Hard Luck—to arrive at the middle of this month and hope to catch a glimpse of you. Our present plan is to arrive on Tuesday 14th at 4 p.m. and stay until Friday afternoon when we go on to Pauli Luck.

Have on a list of Common acids + ended to see to, but we want to make sure of seeing you.

Can you lunch with us at the Smith on Wednesday at one o'clock? If that time doesn't suit, then you name a time that does and I'll side-track everything else.

We are having many things over the convention, and only wish that power come down the home

stretch! Do you see your political
pocket to cast us.
Our weather has been so heavenly
that it seems foolish
to think of touching a cooler clime. Never have I seen my little garden so lovely!

Your photo is standing where I can see it as I write, and it's good to know that it will be quite real when I see you again.

Yours as always
