

A REVIEW OF THE ALLEGHENY COLLEGE BASKETBALL SEASON '09-'10

CAPTAIN "DICK" BAKER

Varsity Season

A Brief Review of Another Successful Basketball Season

The 1909-10 basketball season, as far as Allegheny was concerned, closed on March 19th, leaving a good record to the college which has an historic name in basketball. Eleven games were played, eight of which were victories, while three were lost. However, the three lost were all away from home, and the team has for another season preserved the record of not having lost a game on the home floor. This has been the boast of Allegheny basketball enthusiasts for several years and it is with great gratification to all that the time of the record has been extended.

The number of points made by Captain Baker's men and their opponents shows a very significant comparison with the teams which have been met. In the eleven games Allegheny has made 466 points, while her eleven opponents made but 209. This would make the average game more than a double score. The highest score made by the team was in the Bethany game, which was more of a farce than anything else. It ended with the score 71 to 10. The lowest tally recorded in any game by Baker's squad was 20, which was Allegheny's final score in both the Penn State and Oberlin games, both of which were lost. The highest mark reached by any opponent was that which the Penn State team accomplished when they ended the game with a sensational finish leaving the score 34 to 20.

The Results

The games played are these:
Dec. 11, Allegheny 68, Case 14.
Jan. 8, Allegheny 22, Rochester 27. (At Rochester.)
Jan. 15, Allegheny 20, Oberlin 21. (At Oberlin.)
Jan. 22, Allegheny 30, Cleveland Collegians 16.
Feb. 7, Allegheny 20, Penn State 34. (At State College.)
Feb. 8, Allegheny 48, Bucknell 20. (At Lewisburg.)
Feb. 18, Allegheny 51, Geneva 17.
Feb. 21, Allegheny 25, Ohio State Univ. 20.
Mar. 4, Allegheny 71, Bethany 10.
Mar. 10, Allegheny 44, Hiram 16.
Mar. 19, Allegheny 67, Denison 14.

Some of the Victories.

Of the eight victories, most were what would be expected from the opposing teams, but in several instances the results were very gratifying. The hardest and best game of the year was on February 21st against the strong Ohio State University team in the local gymnasium. They came heralded as the best team in the Buckeye State. In fact, for the last two years they have held the championship of the state. Already in this season they had made a swath through the Ohio colleges, taking everything in their path. The game was the best seen on the local floor for several years. A number of the players of several years ago said it reminded them of some of the old fights they used to have against the eastern schools. The first half ended with the score 11 to 8 in Allegheny's favor. The students whooped and yelled. Between the halves there was the greatest demonstration of real lively spirit seen in recent years. The men on the team were fighting and were determined to win. The State team was no less determined and continued the game in their characteristic hard, consistent manner. However, it ended with the final tally in favor of Allegheny by a margin of five points. It was the greatest game in at least the two past years. It gave the team a standing in the basketball world which easily atoned for the three defeats of the season.

Another victory, indicative of the fighting strength of the team was the Bucknell game, the only game won away from home this season. The trip to Lewisburg was made on the day after the squad had been defeated at State College. The men were filled with an unconquerable determination to win, to cause the Bucknellites to forget the memory of the season before when Bucknell won. The game ended with more than a double score in favor of the Allegheny team.

Before the Cleveland Collegian

CAPTAIN-ELECT WEIDLER

game, it was thought that the local five would have one of the hardest games of the season. The Cleveland men came labeled with a very high reputation, most of them being old, experienced players. The final score showed the supremacy of the locals, for it ended with the figures on the board showing 30 to 16, almost a doubling score.

The Defeats

The three defeats were, as has been stated, played on foreign floors which fact, of course, gave an advantage to the home team. These three games were all lost by a close margin and it is thought by the close followers of the game that any one of the teams could have been conquered on the Meadville floor. At Rochester, after a long hard trip, the five were defeated by the score of 27-22. At Oberlin a week later, through a slump in team work, the Oberlin bunch was proclaimed victor by the unsatisfying margin of one point, the final tally being 21 to 20. Then came the Penn State defeat, three weeks later. The State score was 34 to 20.

The fact that three out of the four games played away from home, were lost has led some to ask the question, "Are these trips successful?" Everyone realizes that the team which is accustomed to the floor has a decided advantage over its opponent, and for this reason there is a greater chance for defeat on foreign floors. But every team cannot play all its games at home; some games must be played away, whether successful or not.

The Team

It was rather singular that seven men won their letters. This was due to the shifting of the men from one position to another and the frequent change of line-up. The seven are Captain Baker, Maxwell, Weidler, Leffel, Hawk, Phillips and Firestone. Three of these, Baker, Maxwell and Phillips, go out with the graduating class and will leave vacancies next year.

The Coach

Much credit for the work accomplished is due to Coach E. J. Stewart, who came here unacquainted with the methods and abilities of the men and by hard work produced a good winning team. While at Mt. Union he gained more than a little reputation as a coach of basketball, and was largely responsible for the team which represented that institution.

Captain Baker.

"Dick" Baker, '10, is one of the most phenomenal basketball players in this section of the country and has for four years demonstrated his ability on the Allegheny team. He came here four years ago from Butler, Pa., where he had made a name for himself on the Butler High School and Butler Independent teams. In his first year he was recognized as a star and easily stepped into the forward position. The following year he was made Captain, an honor which was again bestowed upon him this season. Perhaps the greatest feature of his playing is the way in which he carries the ball about the floor, dribbling and passing perfectly and with great speed and agility. His shooting from all positions with accuracy and success is remarkable.

Maxwell

"Sam" Maxwell, '10, captained the team through a successful season last year after having played on the five for two years. He came at the same time as did Baker and they were together introduced to the Allegheny public at the position of forward. By his passing he has elevated the standard of team work at Allegheny. He began the game at Oil City High School where he played several years and captained the team for one year. During the past season he has been playing guard, having been changed to that position by the Coach.

Weidler

The versatility which has been displayed by "Pogie" Weidler, '11, in playing, during his three years, every position on the team, is remarkable. In his Freshman year he filled the position of substitute and went in at forward when the vacancy was made. In the second season he played regularly at guard and substituted at center, distinguishing himself in several games at the latter position. During the last season he was switched, by the Coach, from guard to forward and has been playing there with Baker throughout the year. Weidler comes from Oil City High where he distinguished himself as a basketball star and in one season captained the high school team. He has been elected Captain of next year's team.

MANAGER YOST

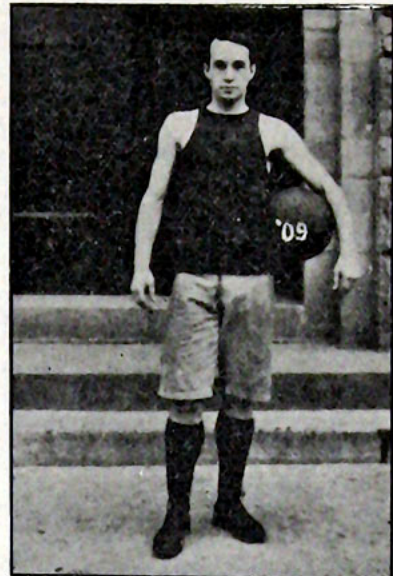

Leffel

D. H. Leffel, '12, who, in his brief career in Allegheny has distinguished himself by making four A's in three different branches of athletics, played guard throughout the season and frequently starred. His shooting was accurate, and his record in scoring was remarkable, considering the fact that his position was always guard. In one game alone he scored nine baskets. In his Freshman year he showed up well on the class team. Leffel comes from Piqua, O., where he has a reputation as an athlete.

Hawk

"Louie" Hawk was a star on the Meadville High School team last season and entered college labeled as an athlete. After making an A in football he got the center position on the basketball team. There he won

Scrubs Played Two Games of Their Own, Besides Helping Varsity

The credit for a successful season in any branch of athletics is due not only to the Varsity team but to the second rank players who are out every day for practice, permitting themselves to be used for the best advantage of the first team and getting little glory or reward. The men who constituted the reserves of this season, did all this and more. They played two games but unfortunately lost both.

On February 15 they were defeated by the strong Mendel team of Erie, by the score of 41 to 19. The game was well played and interesting but the locals were outclassed by the Erie team which was mainly composed of ex-High School players of more than

BASKETBALL IN REVIEW

In presenting this special number, this year's board realizes that it is the last opportunity it will have to say anything about basketball. For a whole season, Allegheny has watched the games closely, and never once has there been the slightest feeling that the team was not doing its best. That fact has made every one of the defeats just as honorable and just as glorious as the victories.

All three of the Seniors who have played their last basketball game for Allegheny are leaving behind them enviable records. No one who, as a student, has seen the games they have played will ever lack a story worth while of college days.

The management is to be commended on the thorough manner in which the home games were advertised. We believe that a study of advertising methods in all branches of our athletics would help solve financial difficulties, and that this season is a step in that direction. An impression seems to prevail that the basketball season pays for itself, but such is not the case. A close study of the figures in the possession of the athletic board will show that there is an annual deficiency of from $100 to $200 here. So care is necessary here just as elsewhere.

Our success in basketball even under the strictest eligibility rules should be a proof that a good team can be turned out without the promiscuous use of money and without lax eligibility requirements. It is one of the conclusive arguments in favor of the system we have.

We congratulate Mr. Weidler on his election to the captaincy of next year's team, and look to him for a continuance of the Baker-Maxwell policy of winning teams.

FOUNDERS' DAY

Next to the history of his country, the college student should be familiar with the history of his college. Both are more than a mere recital of facts; they are an inspiration to better service. It was for this latter purpose that Founders' Day was set aside for celebration each year, and it is only when celebrated in that way that it really honors those whose dreams for Allegheny are being realized to-day.

ATHLETIC MANAGERS

The fact that managers are in a way subordinate to the athletic board, which bears the brunt of any deficiency that may occur, makes carelessness a possibility. We think of no glaring examples so far this year, yet do not doubt that, by careful planning, it would be possible for a manager to save considerable money in the course of the season. At any rate, there is at present no system which makes the managers responsible to the student body for their methods. The reports get no farther than the athletic board, which, of course, can do nothing else but pay the bills that have been contracted. Whether his work has been successful or not, the manager gets his picture in the Kal-dron and the honor that comes to a holder of this office.

In view of the annual financial difficulties we experience, two things should be required of managers: first, a detailed report to the whole Athletic Association of every cent expended; and second, a similar report, subject to criticism, to the athletic board. Both reports would thus be analyzed carefully, and publicity and comparison would minimize deficits.

CONGRATULATIONS!

A glance at the program of the Public Speaking Conference being held today at Swarthmore, shows the great honor which has come to Allegheny in having one of the speakers. The Old Penn Weekly Review, of U. of P., names the two Pennsylvania professors who are to lecture, and then says: "In all, fifteen subjects will be lectured on by the most prominent educators of the district embraced by the conference." One of that number is Miss Alice H. Spalding, of the Department of Public Speaking here.

The Campus also congratulates Mr. Elmer H. Wilds on his selection as Allegheny's representative at Harvard through the Huidekoper Scholarship. It is another honor well placed.

A WAY TO PAY THE DEBT

The immediate need of the Athletic Association is $200 to provide for the debt which will be incurred by the carrying out of the spring program. A way for meeting this deficiency can now be seen, and the student body respectfully asks that those who can make this possible, give it their influence. Duzer Du has offered to present its play again in Meadville commencement week, and turn the proceeds over to athletics. If this is done, there is reason to believe that the new year can be begun without debt.

In addition to the financial benefit of such a presentation, it would be a needed addition to the festivities of commencement week, and would bring more alumni here at that time.

CAP AND GOWN ETIQUETTE

A Study in Color as Seen in an Academic Procession

With the approach of Founder's Day, the attention of the student body is called to the effectiveness and dignity added to such an occasion by the appearance of the faculty in full academic costume, as seen in the formal procession to the chapel. That there is a uniform and intelligible system of gowns and hoods is a fact not always realized by the students of our American colleges, yet there is a definite Intercollegiate Code, which was determined by an Intercollegiate Commission several years ago.

There are three distinct types of academic costume, being three types of gowns and three types of hoods, for bachelors, masters and doctors respectively. The bachelor's gown is the most commonly worn and has long closed sleeves; the master's gown has a long closed sleeve, square at the end which comes well below the knee, the arm coming through a slit near the elbow; the doctor's gown has full round open sleeves and is faced down the front with velvet and has three bars of velvet on the sleeves. The doctor's cap may have a gold tassel while the bachelors and masters wear black. The doctors' and masters' gowns are silk, the bachelors' of worsted stuff.

While these distinctions in gowns follow quite closely the British usage, the American style of hoods is a fine piece of constructive legislation, there being three distinct forms for bachelor, master and doctor, lined with silk of the official colors of the institution granting the degree and trimmed with velvet of the color that represents the department of learning to which the degree pertains. The colors distinctive of the degrees which will be represented in the hoods seen on Founder's Day at Allegheny are as follows:

Arts and Letters, white; Theology, scarlet; Laws, purple; philosophy, blue; science, gold-yellow.

These distinctive colors will be noted in the velvet facing down the front of the gowns, in the three bars of velvet on the sleeves as well as in the velvet facing of the hood.

The colors selected for the different degrees are both historic and

NEWSPAPER COMMENTS

The friendly attitude of the press, secular as well as religious, toward the college in connection with the recent financial trouble is shown in numerous articles and editorials appearing in the newspapers and magazines all over the country. In addition to several already mentioned and quoted in these columns, the Mercer Dispatch of March 4, gives a very clear and concise, as well as sympathetic account of the whole matter. The New York Christian Advocate of Mar. 10 devotes a column to a rather detailed statement of the whole affair of the college shortage and pays a very handsome tribute to President Crawford and his splendid service to Allegheny College. It also mentions the recent gifts made to the college and the plans for raising more endow-

MR. WILDS WINS SCHOLARSHIP

At a meeting of the President and Fellows of Harvard College held on March 28th, the Huidekoper Scholarship for 1910-11 was assigned to Mr. Elmer H. Wilds, and Mr. R. H. Uhlinger was appointed alternate to hold the scholarship in case Mr. Wilds should not qualify by coming into residence next year. This notice was recently received by the Registrar from the secretary of the corporation. It is pleasing to note that another honor has thus been tendered Mr. Wilds, who won the Wakefield Oratorical prize this year, and will represent Allegheny in the Inter-Collegiate Contest to be held here in a few weeks.

ORGAN RECITAL

The Modern Language Department was the means of giving the college a musical treat in the organ recital by Mr. Albert Riemenschneider at the chapel Thursday night. Nearly all the seats in the main auditorium and balcony were filled, the audience including a large number of town people.

Mr. Riemenschneider rendered a difficult program in a fascinating manner. He excelled in technique, touch, interpretation and sincere performance.

The program presented was as follows:

1. Widor
.....Allegro (Sixth Symphony)
2. Widor Andante Cantabile
3. Martini Gavotta
4. Bach Prelude in B Minor
5. Guilmant
March Funebre et Chant Seraphique.
6. Wagner Pilgrim Chorus
7. Dvorak Humoreske
8. Faulkes March Nuptial
9. Lemaigre Caprice
10. D'Evy Meditation
11. Widor.....Toccata (Fifth Symphony)

A DUZER DU PROPOSITION.

"She Stoops to Conquer" Will be Given Again for Athletics if Date Can be Arranged.

On last Monday evening the Duzer Du Club passed a resolution to repeat "She Stoops to Conquer," at the Academy of Music, during Commencement week, the proceeds going to Athletic interests. The athletic board was notified of the club's action and on last Tuesday afternoon the matter was put before the faculty.

According to the Commencement program as now arranged, all the dates which would be suitable for the production are occupied. The fact that the exercises are concluded on Wednesday this year instead of on Thursday, as heretofore, makes the matter of arrangement more difficult. The matter was placed in the hands of the officers of the faculty, Profs. Dutton, Breed and Snively.

The expenses of the production would be less than in the first performance and with a good "house" of alumni, students and town-folk, the receipts ought to be enough to give Athletics a good boost. The fact that the "show" would be an excellent attraction for alumni is fully comprehended. Having heard of the dramatic club with the funny name and of the men in female roles, more than one alumnus would make an effort to get back for the play.

With the faculty, in whose hands the affair now rests, exerting every effort to make the production a success, thereby helping the Athletic interests out of a hole, it seems altogether likely that "She Stoops to Conquer" will be repeated as a feature of Commencement week.

Dr. Camden Coburn is scheduled to give his famous lecture on "Adventures Among the Arabs," at the Reformed church at Saegertown on Tuesday evening, April 26.

On Sunday night, Dr. Coburn preached a sermon against graft which has been quoted by all the Pittsburg papers. It was delivered at the Second Presbyterian church of Pittsburg.

The faculty of Alden Academy at a recent meeting chose for the commencement speakers the following five men: M. P. Jeffreys, W. T. Thoburn, Arthur Waughman, D. L. Schoenfeld and R. L. Cullum.

Owing to the resignation of Coach Pierce of Alden Academy, who goes to Scranton as Y. M. C. A. physical director, J. C. Cochran has been secured to teach gym for the remainder of the year.

Word was received in this city Wednesday, April 6th, of the death of Mrs. Robert Alden Arthurs, which occurred at her home in Pittsburg. Mrs. Arthurs was a grand-daughter of the Rev. Timothy Alden, founder of the college.

Dr. William A. Elliott, head of the department of Greek, will give the final lecture of the year under the auspices of the Classical Club at Ford Memorial Chapel on Tuesday evening, May 17. His subject will be "On Horseback through America," and will be illustrated with stereopticon slides.

The regular monthly Quill Club meeting will be held next Monday evening. Mr. Claire Hilborn has charge of the program, and the reading of spring poetry will interest the members. Every member has been given a subject, and is expected to come prepared to read his composition.

N. R. Moore and W. L. Kulp returned Monday from the Province Convention of Sigma Alpha Epsilon held at Columbia University, April 7-9. They report a fine convention and excellent entertainment at the Columbia chapter which entertained the convention. The Province Convention of 1912 is to be held at Allegheny.

The program of the Scientific Club last Tuesday evening included a well-prepared paper by Miss Wilson, on "The Commercial Value of Fibres." Supplementing this discussion was a brief explanation of the fourth dimension by Dr. Akers. His remarks were altogether authoritative, and this mathematical enigma was unravelled for the benefit of those present. About fifteen answered to roll call.

The Classical Club, at its regular meeting on Tuesday evening, discussed things of interest about Rome. The program was headed by Miss Murray and Mr. Bright, and their subjects were "Survivals" and "The Poor at Rome." After the reading of the assigned topics, a part of the evening was devoted to general discussion. The program also included a book review by Mr. Criswell. Twenty-five members were present.

Miss Alice Huntington Spalding left Thursday to attend the Conference of Public Speaking held at Swarthmore College April 15th and 16th. Miss Spalding will present a paper on "Technical Voice Culture in College Work." This is a great honor for Allegheny as well as for Miss Spalding, for instructors from the colleges in Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, Southern New York, Delaware and the District of Columbia will be represented.

The union meeting of the Y. M. C. A. last Wednesday evening took the rather unique form of a "Swearer evening," the object being to raise the annual subscription for Mr. Swearer's work in Korea. After the devotional services, a special feature of which was the solo of Miss Bess Emery with a violin obligato by Miss Chase, Rev. Mitchell was called on for a few remarks. Dr. Elliott followed with some personal recollections of Mr. Swearer. The rest of the meeting was devoted to the raising of funds, and $250 was pledged. This marks the beginning of a campaign for $500 for the cause.

A BIG MEET

The track meet held on Saturday, April 9, in Duquesne Gardens under the auspices of the Pittsburg Athletic Club, was unusually interesting. The University of Pennsylvania defeated Yale and Carlisle in the two mile relay in the fast time of 8:8. Paul, who holds the All-American record for the mile, ran the last quarter for U. of P. The relay team representing Chicago defeated New York—the team being made up of the best runners of the country. Chicago won on foul.

Coach Stewart and Captain Hines went to Pittsburg for the meet to get a line on the men of the colleges of Western Pennsylvania. They report good material especially in Westminster which won the shot put, the 440 yard dash, and came in third in the 220. Westminster showed up the strongest of the local schools. W. & J. also has a good team. All the teams from the western colleges are stronger this year and Allegheny, which has been handicapped on account of the late start, will have a hard fight. It means hard work for the track men from now on.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE

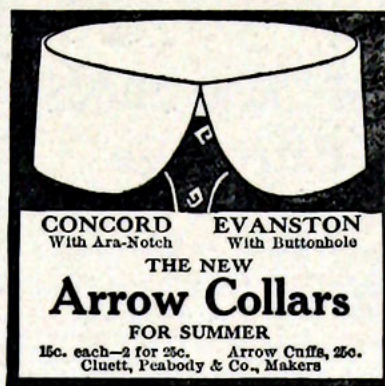

Manager David has arranged an excellent baseball schedule which will be submitted for faculty approval this week. A full home schedule and one extended trip are noticeable features. The season opens with Hiram at home, Thursday, May 5th. There is a little uncertainty about the Carnegie Tech game, but otherwise practically everything is settled. The games will be played as follows:

Thursday, May 5, Hiram (at Meadville).
Tuesday, May 10, W. and J. (at Washington).
Wednesday, May 11, University of West Virginia (at Morgantown).
Thursday, May 12, Pittsburg College (at Pittsburg).
Friday, May 13, Carnegie Tech (at Pittsburg).
Saturday, May 14, Grove City (at Grove City).
Friday, May 20, Western Reserve (at Meadville).
Tuesday, May 24, Grove City (at Meadville).
Saturday, May 28, West Virginia Wesleyan (at Meadville).

ALUMNI NOTES

A recent number of the North Fairfield Review (Maine), tells of the dedication of a new Methodist church at Easton, where Rev. Claude H. King, '05, is pastor. After graduating from Allegheny, Mr. King attended Boston University and on graduating two years ago accepted this appointment. He leaves the first of May, however, to accept the chair of Comparative Religions and Social Dynamics in West Virginia Wesleyan College at Buckhannon, W. Va. In addition to this professorship, Mr. King will be educational secretary of the college and have charge of the raising of a $200,000 endowment. The paper describes him as one of the ablest and broadest young clergymen in Maine and expresses regret at losing him.

The Pittsburg Dispatch for April 10th contained a picture of Miss Ida M. Tarbell, '00, the well known writer. Miss Tarbell lectured on "The American Woman," Friday evening, April 15th, in the lecture hall of Carnegie Institute, under the auspices of the Council of Jewish Women.

The Medico-Chirurgical College of Philadelphia

Affords Unusual Opportunities for the Study of

MEDICINE, DENTISTRY, PHARMACY, AND PHARMACEUTIC CHEMISTRY

If your chosen profession is along these lines no better preparation for it can be had than at this College. It is advisable for every young man to investigate the merits and facilities of The Medico-Chirurgical College before he decides definitely upon any particular one. The faculty consistently maintains a reputation for ability and modern methods of teaching, and includes many authors of widely-used text-books. The College is situated in the midst of a large manufacturing district. The hospital and accident cases from this source are extensive and varied in character and, with the largest and finest Clinical Amphitheatre in the world and modern and thoroughly equipped Laboratories and two Hospitals, afford unsurpassed clinical facilities. In each department degrees are granted at the end of carefully graded courses. Students have the advantage of Practical Instruction, Free Quizzes, Limited Ward Classes, Modern Seminar Methods and Clinical Conferences. Fourteen Laboratories. Upon presentation of proper credentials students from other recognized colleges are admitted to higher standing. Address the dean of the department in which you are interested for illustrated catalogue, describing course in full and containing information as to fees, etc.

Eldred's Hospital for Sick Shoes Now Ready for Patronage

Jno. Nagengast, D. D. S., expert "Shoe Doctor," has charge of our shoe repairing department—whose name is ample guarantee for satisfaction in this special line. Mr. Nagengast was with Mr. A. H. Kohler, ex-shoe dealer of Meadville, for seventeen continuous years, which is sufficient testimonial of his ability as one of the best and fastest workmen in the state.

We solicit your patronage. We guarantee your satisfaction.

HULINGS HALL NOTES

Miss Hazel Emery was home Tuesday.

Miss Edith Burchard spent Sunday at her home at Cambridge Springs. Mrs. Preston and Miss Ida Preston were guests at the Hall for dinner Sunday.

Miss Hazel Bullock, '09, spent a few days this week with friends at Hulings.

Rev. Mr. Smith, of Warren, Pa., was a guest at Hulings Tuesday evening for supper.

Miss Elizabeth Garver, ex-'11, who is now a student of Edinboro Normal, was the guest of Miss Caroline Parsons last Sunday for dinner.

Miss Elizabeth Houghton, '09, who was operated on for appendicitis recently at the Westfield Hospital, Westfield, N. Y., is recovering rapidly.

Miss Suzanne Vosburg, ex-'10, left Sunday after spending a week at the college doing special matriculate work.

Last Sunday evening the new cabinet of the Y. W. C. A. was installed after a very helpful talk by the retiring president, Miss Margaret Beebe.

Miss Margaret Beebe, ex-president of the Y. W. C. A., entertained the retiring cabinet at a supper Monday evening in the Y. W. C. A. rooms of the Hall. A pleasing social time was enjoyed afterwards.

CAP AND GOWN ETIQUETTE.

appropriate, in addition to being easily remembered. The white for arts and letters comes from the white fur of the Oxford and Cambridge Bachelor of wearing caps, gowns and hoods of their appropriate degrees, which are usually Ph. D., lining the hoods with the colors of the German universities upon which is laid a German tri-chevron of black, white and red.

The students may also be interested in what may be called the etiquette of the Oxford cap. In academic processions, on state occasions, as commencement, Baccalaureate Sunday, etc., all should wear the cap. On being seated it is preferred that President, deans and faculty and women students wear their caps, while men students remove theirs. However, there is no "should not" about the cap. It may correctly be worn all the time the gown is on. The President, faculty and students, when sitting at ease listening only, will for comfort and ease remove their caps, but when standing at attention or doing anything, the cap is needed to complete the full uniform. A student when delivering a long address will preferably wear his cap, but a distinguished scholar or public speaker may find it more comfortable to be allowed to doff his cap.

VARSITY SEASON

a reputation for hard consistent playing. He met six Ohio centers, each of whom was said to be "one of the best in the state." Hawk played the proverbial rings about them.

Phillips

"Red" Phillips is graduating from Allegheny this year with two blue A's which he won in basketball during his last two years in college. Always a stickler, he has proved a valuable man at guard and rarely allowed his man to make a basket.

Firestone

H. D. Firestone made his letter at forward, playing there in most of the games during the season. In his first year he was a substitute, and ought to be a valuable man next year. In his home, McKeesport, where much attention is paid to basketball, he is known as a "comer."

Croasmun

"Max" Croasmun, '13, was an excellent substitute and ought to be a good Varsity man next season. He played in several games of the season but not quite enough to make his letter.

Manager Yost

In his co-operation with the team and the coach, R. R. Yost, '10, did much to further the success of the team. He handled the business affairs in an able manner, arranging several good trips and getting one of the best schedules in recent years. He was assisted by H. T. Lavelly, who is to be manager of next year's team.

THE RESERVES

a little experience. Then as a preliminary to the Varsity-Denison game, they met the Oil City High School five. The result of the contest was 23 to 16, with the visitors doing the celebrating.

"Tad" Kulp, '11, has been one of the most faithful and consistent of the "scrubs." He has been out with more than the usual regularity shown by second team men and has always played the game hard. He has been a stand-by on the 1911 class team.

C. G. McNulty, '13, who was chosen captain for the team, came from Conneautville with a basketball reputation. He attended practice with regularity and when in the game gave his men a "chase."

W. E. Abbott, '12, of football fame, helped make the game interesting for the 'varsity men. He has played two years on the 1912 team.

H. H. Denison, '13, always made himself known when at practice and did much to keep the 'varsity men in trim, generally playing center. He captained the Freshmen team.

W. J. Caldwell, '13, soon became known for his speed and endurance on the floor. He is from New Castle and has had experience in the game.

W. L. Schermerhorn, '13, was out for practice with considerable regularity and did good work on the floor.

J. W. Mates, '13, showed up well in practice during the early part of the season, but after receiving an injury was unable to play. He gives promise of making good at the game.

C. F. Shields, '13, who made good on the Freshmen team, was generally at 'varsity practice and did good work on the Reserve team.

Smith's Clothes Are Different

You may have an idea that our store and our clothes are not very different

From other stores and other clothes; that it doesn't make any difference where you buy your clothes. When you come to Smith's and see our kind of clothes, our makes and styles, you'll soon realize that such an idea is a great mistake. Our clothes are altogether different, they're perfectly tailored and correct in every detail and always all wool. But you must see for yourself, we can't tell you about it.

You'll find our assortment for spring the largest ever seen in Meadville. The newest things in furnishings received every week.

Come and see.

but, in keeping abreast of the times, now a store in which about everything that old and young require is to be found. Seven acres of selling space.

A special feature is the selling of clothes for men and boys, women and girls.

Fashions in clothes are to be seen here as soon as they make their appearance—as a rule, we are the first in the city to show new styles.

The two things that form the solid foundation of this store, upon which has been built Pittsburgh's largest retail business, are quality and less price. Quality for quality, our prices are lower than anywhere in the city.
